BOMB FIRES SANITARIUM; FIVE RESCUED

Pet Poodle Spreads Alarm Before Police, Firemen Arrive; Proprietors Rescued From Room Just in Time

Charred ruins loom today where Grace Cottage, of the Cowdrey Sanitarium stood this morning, marking the scene of a terrific bomb explosion, a general alarm fire, the death of a pet dog, fatally burned while trying to save the household, and heroic rescue by Oakland policemen and firemen.

Shortly before four o'clock this morning an infernal machine placed in the reception hall on the first floor of the two-story hospital exploded and almost instantaneously the entire house was enveloped in flames. The fire swirled about the reception hall, swept up the stairway and cut off all exits.

Within five minutes the sanitarium, conducted by George and Mrs. Cowdrey at Park boulevard and Cottage streets, was converted from a rest home for nervous disorders into a raging inferno and the occupants stood helpless in their night robes while Betty, a toy poodle, raced through smoke and flames giving the alarm and Policeman W. C. Christensen fought to effect an entrance.

FIVE RESCUED BY SKILL OF WORKERS.

Those who were rescued were:

George Cowdrey, proprietor of the Cowdrey Sanitarium.

Mrs. Cowdrey, superintendent of the sanitarium.

Mrs. Mary O'donnell, nurse at the establishment.

Mrs. C. E. Whissan, another nurse.

Miss Alberta Chamberlain, a patient.

Due to the valliant work of Christensen, the only casualty was that of Betty, who died at the feet of her mistress. Mrs. Cowdrey, as she and her husband stood at a second story window screaming for help and watching the police and fire department attempt to get a ladder through the wall of flame for the rescue.

When the ladder was put through and Captain Herbert Walden of No. 16 engine scaled the heights, passing through the flames and smoke, he was in time to rescue Cowdrey and Mrs. Cowdrey, who had collapsed, overcome by smoke, but the dog was dead. A moment later the floor on which the three had been standing, collapsed.

NURSE RISKS LIFE TO SAVE PUPPY.

Meanwhile on the first floor of the sanitarium Mrs. Mary O'Donnell, a nurse, having assisted Christensen in the rescue of Mrs. Whissen and the patient, was running after Betty's puppy, Tiny, who was attempting to run up the blazing stairway to her mother. High above the crackling of the timbers and the roar of the flames could be heard the death call of Betty.

Mrs. O'donnell, at the risk of her own life, saved the little French poodle, which spent the balance of today walking through the ruins in search of the missing mother. The puppy is disconsolate and Mrs. O'donnell is more wretched over the passing of the older dog than she is over the loss of all her personal belongings.

The five occupants of the house, which is used as a sleeping quarters for the Cowdreys and a small staff at night, and as a nurses' home by day, have lost all of their personal belongings, jewelry, clothes, keepsakes and valuable books and furniture. The place is a total loss and the occupants are dressed in borrowed garments.

FOURTH OF PERILS

This morning's disaster at the sanitarium marks the fourth of a series of terrifying adventures experienced by the Cowdreys and the nurses who are at Grace Cottage, according to Cowdrey, who professed himself at a loss to know who is trying to make a human holocaust of him, his family and his attaches.

The reign of terror started on Thursday afternoon, August . Mrs. Cowdrey and Mrs. O'donnell were alone in the house when they detected the odor of smoke. They went downstairs to find a fire blazing under the stairway. The fire was of incendiary origin, as evidenced by the oil-soaked rags. The two women extinguished the blaze.

Captain J. F. Sandy, fire prevention and arson bureau investigator, immediately started a probe. Five days later a second blaze was discovered. This time the fire was "set" in the basement on the side of the stairway leading up to the main floor.

On this occasion the incendiarist had chipped out a bit of the plaster wall, pushed oil soaked rags into the crevice thus fashioned out, and started the blaze. Again Mrs.

Republicans — Ball, Borah, Calder, Dillingham, Edge, France, Frelinghuysen, Keyes, Nelson, New, Phipps, Reed of Pennsylvania, Smoot, Sterling and Wadsworth—15.

Total, 22.

By J. BART CAMPBELL
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Fresh complications were thrown this afternoon about the soldiers' bonus bill when Republican leaders of the House served notice on the Senate that the lower chamber will not accept the McNary land reclamation and Simmons foreign debts amendments which the Senate tacked on the measure.

Taking sharp issue with Secretary Mellon's contention that the treasury cannot afford to finance the soldiers' bonus, Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the Republican leader, declared in the Senate today that "it is idle and absurd for anyone to say the pending bill will embarrass or bankrupt the treasury."

Lodge pointed out that $77,000,000 must be set aside next year by the treasury if the bill becomes a law, and the total $3,800,000,000 estimated cost of the bill would be scattered over a period of forty years.

"I am not in the least alarmed that the New York stock market is going to be paralyzed by the enactment of this bill," said Lodge. "The government is perfectly solvent and able to do justice to the men who made great sacrifices in the hour of the country's peril, and all talk about the government not being able to compensate them partly is, I think, silly."

SAYS PRESIDENT WILL VETO BILL.

A cabinet memebr, who declined to be quoted, stated today that President Harding will veto the soldiers' bonus bill, which is expected to pass the Senate late today.

Such action by the President, it is understood, probably will be based on advices from the secretary of the treasury.

As amended by the senate the soldiers' bonus bill would become effective January 1, 1923, and would provide three optional plans for veterans of the world war other than those whose adjusted service pay would not exceed $50. These would be paid in cash.

THESE OPTIONS ARE OFFERED EX-SOLDIERS.

The options are:

Adjusted service certificates payable in 20 years or sooner at death and containing loan provisions.

Vocational training and at the rate of $1.75 a day up to a total of 140 per cent of the adjusted service credit.

Aid in purchasing a farm or home, the total amount to range from 100 per cent of the adjusted service credit if the money were advanced in 1923 to 140 per cent of the adjusted service credit if the payment were made in 1928 or thereafter.

Adjusted service pay or adusted service credit would be figured on the basis of $1 a day for domestic service and $1.25 a day for foreign service, less the $60 paid at discharge. But in no event could the amount of the credit of the veteran who performed no overseas service exceed $500 and the amount of the credit of the veteran who performed any overseas service exceed $625.

Adjusted service certificates would have a face value equal to the sum of the adjusted service credit of the veteran increased by 25 per cent, plus interest thereon for 20 years at the rate of 4½ per cent a year, compounded annually.

BANKS CAN MAKE LOANS TO VETERANS.

Until January 1, 1926, any national bank or any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of any state, territory, possession, or the District of Columbia, would be authorized to loan to any veteran upon his promissory note secured by his adjusted service certificate any amount not in excess of 50 per cent of the total of the adjusted service credit plus interest thereon from the date of the certificate to the date of the loan, at the rate of 4½ per cent a year.

Should the veteran fail to pay the principal and interest of the loan within six months after its maturity, the government would pay to the bank the amount of such principal and interest and take over the certificate. This would be restored to the veteran at any time prior to its maturity upon receipt from him of the amount paid by the government to the bank plus interest on that amount at the rate of 4½ per cent a year compounded annually.

The rate of interest charged the veteran by the bank is not to exceed by more than 2 per cent a year the rate charged at the date of the loan for the discount of commercial paper by the federal reserve bank for the federal reserve district in which the bank was located.

GOVERNMENT WOULD PAY BENEFICIARY

If a veteran died before the maturity of the loan the government would pay to the bank the principal and interest to the beneficiary named by or to the estate of the veteran the face value of the certificate less the amount paid to the bank.

After January 1, 1926, veterans holding certificates could make direct application through postmasters for government loans.

If such loan were made at any time not more than three years after the date of the certificate, it would not exceed fifty per cent of the sum of the adjusted service credit of the veteran plus interest at 4½ per cent a year from the date of the certificate to the date of the loan.

If the loan were made at anytime more than three years after and not more than six years after the date of the certificate, the sum could not exceed 85 per cent of the adjusted service credit plus interest at 4½ per cent from the date of the certificate to the date of the loan.

If the loan were made at any time more than six years after the date of the certificate the sum could not exceed seventy per cent of the adjusted service credit increased by 25 per cent, plus interest at 4½ per cent from the date of the certificate to the date of the loan.

The veteran would repay the loan upon an amortization plan by means of a fixed number of annual installments sufficient to cover interest on the unpaid principal at the rate of 4½ per cent and such amount of the principal as would

Race Horse Kicks Lascelles on Chest

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

LONDON, Aug. 31. — Viscount Lascelles narrowly escaped serious injury in the paddock at the York race course yesterday from the kick of a horse. The three-year-old Backwood, who was on the way to the post, lashed out both feet as he passed Lascelles, catching him on the chest.

The viscount, however, was almost out of range, and was touched only lightly.

$300,000 Allotted For Honolulu Harbor

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Additional allotment from funds appropriated by congress for river and harbor improvement work during the fiscal year 1923, announced today by Brigadier General Taylor, assistant chief of army engineers, include $300,000 for Honolulu.

Mexican Deputy Slain by Opponent

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 31.—(By International News Service).—Deputy Torcuato Lemos was shot to death today in the Chamber of Deputies by his political opponent, former Deputy Martin Barragan. Deputy Lemos was a member of the cooperatistas party and had defeated Barragan in the election. Barragan was a member of the Liberal Constitutionalists.

New Arrest Made in Bergen Case

EDGEWATER, N. J., Aug. 31.—Charles Schullion, brother of Mrs. George Cline, whose husband is held for the burder of John Bergen, "motion picture daredevil," was arrested today on a charge of murder. Witnesses of the slaying say Schullion was present at the home at the time Bergen was shot, and that he procured for Cline the pistol with which the shooting was done.

FOUR KILLED WHEN TRAIN HITS AUTO

Bodies Carried 700 Yards Before Falling Off Engine; Hail of Splinters From Car Confuse Enginemen

Four persons were killed in a collision at the San Lorenzo crossing of the Southern Pacific company today when train No. 82, known as the Stockton flier, traveling toward Stockton, crashed into an automobile. The car was broken in two parts and one part was carried 1012 yards before the train was brought to a halt. The dead are:

MRS. WILLIAM COOPER, wife of the former, same address.

JOHN DANGERIN, rancher, Route No. 22, Box 8, Hayward.

According to witnesses, the driver of the automobile, believed to have been Cooper, who owned the car, apparently did not see the train approaching, and drove onto the tracks just as the locomotive bore down upon them.

So terrific was the impact of the crash, due to the great speed of the flier, that the engineer and fireman were so confused in the hail of splinters and parts of the car that they were unable to apply the brakes for some distance. The impact did not stop the speed of the train, which lurched for the moment and sprung forward, according to witnesses, picking up the car bodily and carrying it with its occupants for a distance of 700 yards before it broke in two. Half of the car carrying Mrs. Cooper and her baby dropped off. The other half was carried for a distance of 1012 yards from the scene of the

It is believed that Mrs. Cooper was killed when the rear section of the automobile was hurled from the locomotive 700 yards beyond the scene of the accident. She was dead when picked up. Her baby, which was lying sveral feet from the body of its mother, was still alive, but was pronounced dead at the county hospital.

Both men were dead when picked up. The bodies were badly mutilated.

Foundations Head Studies Nobel Plan

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 31.—Hamilton Holt, president of the American-Scandanavian Foundation and executive secretary of the Woodrow Wilson Foundation, was received Wednesday by the King of Sweden, who showed keen interest in the promotion of cultural relations between the United States and Sweden, sponsored by the Swedish-American Foundation in Stockholm and the American-Scandanavian Foundation in New York. Holt is studying the plan of the Nobel Institute, which will be used as a model for the Woodrow Wilson Foundation.

Battle cruisers Lion and Princess Royal. Battleships Orion, Monarch, Conqueror and Erin.

All are among the most famous warships in the British navy.

Flames Checked In Mine; Rescue Hopes Increase

Crews Working From Kennedy Shaft Near Victims' Refuge Place.

JACKSON, Aug. 31.—Women of Jackson today appealed for funds to aid the wives and dependents of the miners who are held prisoners and who may be dead in the Argonnat mine here.

The appeal was sent out today, saying:

"Funds are urgently needed for a work of mercy.

"Wives of many of these men have families of four and five, the youngest still in arms, and in two cases there are babes soon to be born.

"Funds sent by local civic bodies or through newspapers will be turned over to the Red Cross at Jackson, as trustee, and will be received by the sufferers with gratitude too great to express."

JACKSON, Aug. 31.—(By International News Service.)—Hope was running high in Jackson that rescue for the 45 miners trapped by fire in the Argonaut gold mine early Monday is near at hand.

Efforts to reach the men were nearing a climax today. The crew digging from the Kennedy mine were hopeful that if no ill luck is encountered they will soon be in position to tap the Argonaut level. Another drive for the Argonaut shaft from the Kennedy was started today as a precaution in case the first one should encounter insurmountable difficulties in the form of an extraordinary rock formation or rock fall.

The fire which entrapped the miners was reported today to be virtually out. It will be some time, however, before it will be possible to enter the shaft to do rescue work from that angle. The heat and smoke are still terrific and repairs must be made to the shaft where its lining was blasted away to stop the spread of the blaze.

While some experienced miners hold that the little band is long since dead, others believe that they are alive and rescue will reach them in time to prevent their dying from starvation.

F. L. Lowell, engineer for the state industrial accident commission, believes the men will be found alive. He is convinced that they are safely bulkheaded in the lower reaches of the mine, where, he says, there would be enough air to sustain them for some time.

RESCUE COMMITTEE DETAILS PROGRESS.

JACKSON, Aug. 31.—The first official news bulletin issued by a committee of mine owners, mining engineers and State and Federal mining experts revealed that two crews of apparatus men from the Federal bureau of mines worked all night in the Argonaut shaft replacing timbers that had been removed from the shaft 60 feet below the 2400-foot level.

The timbers, the bulletin said, were removed to provide a barrier against the fire creeping up the shaft. This work was finished at 4:15 a. m. The official bulletin continued:

"During the work of replacing these timbers a fall of ground was heard somewhere down the shaft, and the air blast caused by the fall of ground forced gases up the shaft to the 2400 foot level, but the apparatus men hastily donned their oxygen-breathing helmets and were saved from being overcome by the poisonous carbon monoxide. This is the extent of the work in the Argonaut shaft during the night.

"At the Kennedy mine 45 feet of the 3900-foot south drift was cleared out, which brings them under the chute from the stope above. This leaves about 430 feet of drift to be cleaned out. From now on the going should be a little better, as the drift will not be under the old stope.

"In the 3600-foot level of the Kennedy mine they are still working in soft fillings in the drift, and have about 50 to 90 feet to reach the crosscut into the green stone. By going into this crosscut, which will be open, they will be able to go around the drift that is filled with loose mud and rock, thereby saving time. There will be about 60 feet of drilling to be done to get back to the drift, which will then be under more solid ground."

PRAYER OFFERED AT MOUTH OF MINE.

JACKSON, Aug. 31.—The wives and families of the entombed men in the Argonaut mine assembled at the mouth of the shaft yesterday as prayers for their safe delivery were offered by Rev. Edwin M. Brown, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Jackson.

Rev. Father Kearney announced that mass will be said at St. Patrick's church today at 7:30 o'clock, when prayers will be offered for the imprisoned men.

Rats have begun pouring into the Argonaut mine in droves. Poison gas fumes are driving the rats out of the lower levels and they came scampering up the timbering by the hundreds. Two years ago, when the Argonaut burned, this same thing occurred on the second day after the flames broke out. All gold mines along the Mother Lode are infested with the rodents.

TYRRELL AND BACON WAGE STIFF FIGHT

Mortimer Smith Is First in Police Judge Vote, With Fellow Incumbent Leading For the Second Position

Senator Johnson's Majority Close to 5000; Foss 4048 Ahead of Wells Drury in Vote For Treasureship

The sole remaining undecided contest of importance in the primary election today was as to the Oakland police judgeship. All day as the count of ballots proceeded Judge Mortimer Smith's re-election has appeared assured, but whether the second judgeship should go to the incumbent, Edward J. Tyrrell, or to Howard Bacon, has been in doubt.

Smith	14,757
Tyrrell	12,665
Bacon	12,460
McGuire	3,601

Senator Johnson's majority in Alameda county today passed the 5000 mark. Richardson leads Stephens in this county by 4900 votes with approximately one-quarter of the precincts yet to be heard from.

The re-election of County Treasurer Fred W. Foss was definitely assured today. Though the tallying yesterday closed with him less than 200 votes away from his contestant, Wells Drury, former secretary of the Berkeley Chamber of Commerce, the continued count today put him well in the lead. The figures on 432 precincts were:

The victory of Foss removes the last uncertainty among county office incumbents who were caandidates for re-election. They all are re-elected.

J. D. MacLafferty increased his lead over D. D. Oliphant in the continued count of the ballots today. He now has approximately 1270 votes more than his nearest competitor.

Judge Lawlor was but 450 votes in 50,000 ahead of Judge Wilbur in this county. The associate justice race discloses Kerrigan leading in this county with Seawell, Shurtleff and Sloane almost a tie.

In the Alameda city justice contest, Johnson has polled almost twice as many votes as Porep.

British Launch Is Attacked by Rebels

NOMINATION CLINCHED BY RICHARDSON

Governor Stephens Hopelessly Behind As Count Nears Completion; Johnson Majority Still Growing

State Executive Barred As Prohibitionist Candidate, Jordan Claims; Wilbur Is Leading Justice Contest

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 31.—Governor William D. Stephens, who has held office for two terms as chief executive of the state, today prepared to withdraw from politics following the defeat at the primary Tuesday.

"The returns indicate the nomination of Friend W. Richardson as the Republican candidate for governor," he said. "I have wired my congratulations. When my term is over I will take a limited vacation, after which I shall return to California where I expect to practice law."

By M. D. TRACY,
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 31.—Hiram W. Johnson and Friend William Richardson continued to pile up their leads today in their contests for the Republican nomination for senator and governor respectively.

The day was marked by William D. Stephens, whom Richardson defeated, sending Richardson a telegram of congratulation and conceding defeat. Moore already had conceded his defeat.

The latest available figures today showed:

For senator—5821 precincts out of 6695: Johnson, 280,388; Moore, 213,115. Johnson's majority, 67,273.

Johnson's nomination means that he will oppose William J. Pearson of Los Angeles, who was nomee by the Democrats. Pearson was un-

Upton Sinclair, author and several, was named by the Socialists as their candidate for the senate and H. Clay Needham of Newhall, Cal., will be prohibitoon candidate.

STEPHENS IS BARRED AS PROHIBITION CANDIDATE

Although Stephens received votes enough on the prohibition ticket to give him that nomination, Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan declared that the law would not permit his name going on the ballot.

This meant that the race for governor in November would be between Richardson, Republican, and Thomas Lee Woolwine, Democrat, district attorney of Los Angeles county.

Richardson, in a statement yesterday, declared he was nominated on a platform of economy and indicated he would continue his campaign for election on a similar platform.

Woolwine, who was leading Mattison B. Jones for the Democratic nomination early today by a vote of 49,332 against 28,861, has practically promised to make the Ku Klux Klan an issue if possible. He is counted on for a fiery campaign.

Judge Curtis D. Wilbur had rolled up a lead of approximately 30,000 over William P. Lawlor for chief justice of the supreme court. C. C. Young won the Republican nomination for lieutenant-governor nearly two to one over J. A. Rominger, and Charles G. Johnston had a 35,000 margin over J. T. Millan for state treasurer with Walter Brinkop of Los Angeles trailing 25,000 behind Millan.

For representatives in Congress the results follow:

First district—C. F. Lea, incumbent, of Santa Rosa, defeated Euvelle Howard of Lakeport, and O. S. Greene of Gridley, for the Republican nomination, and will be unopposed in November.

Second district—John E. Raker, incumbent of Alturas, defeated I. H. Parker of Auburn and G. W. Root of Grass Valley for the Republican nomination, and will be unopposed in November.

Third district—C. F. Curry of Sacramento, incumbent, won the Republican nomination, unopposed and seemed to have defeated Katherine Braddock of Stockton for the Democratic.

Fourth district—Julius Kahn, incumbent, was unopposed for the Republican and Democratic nominations. Hugo Ernst, Socialist and labor leader, will oppose him in November.

Fifth district—John E. Nolan, incumbent, San Francisco, was unopposed for the Republican and Democratic nominations.

MacLAFFERTY LEADING IN OAKLAND COUNT.

Sixth district—James H. MacLafferty of Oakland was about 1200 votes ahead of D. D. Oliphant, Jr., of Oakland, with the count incomplete. H. L. Boyle and H. C. Cutting were trailing considerably behind for the Republican nomina-extinguish the debt within an agreed period not exceeding the life of the certificate.

COULD CANCEL NOTE, RESTORE CERTIFICATE

If a veteran failed to make any payment when due, the Secretary of the Treasury at any time prior to the maturity of the certificate would cancel the note and restore the certificate to the veteran upon receipt of all installments in arrears, together with interest at 4½ per cent, compounded annually, upon each such installment from the time when due.

In event of death of the veteran before the maturity of the loan, the loan and note would be cancelled and the government would pay to the beneficiary named by or to the estate of the veteran the face value of the certificate less the principal of and interest on the government loan.

The certificate of a veteran would be cancelled only in case he failed to redeem it before its maturity or if he failed to make any payments when due and such default continued to his death.

The land settlement aid option of the House bill has been stricken out and the Smith-McNary reclamation bill substituted. Under that measure veterans would be given preference in employment on reclamation projects and in obtaining homesteads on land reclaimed. They would be required, however, to pay for such homesteads without further government aid; on the same footing as other homesteaders. Settlement would be open to all veterans of the world war, the Spanish-American war and the Philippine insurrection and irrespective of whether they had received any compensation from the government under the bonus bill or other legislation.

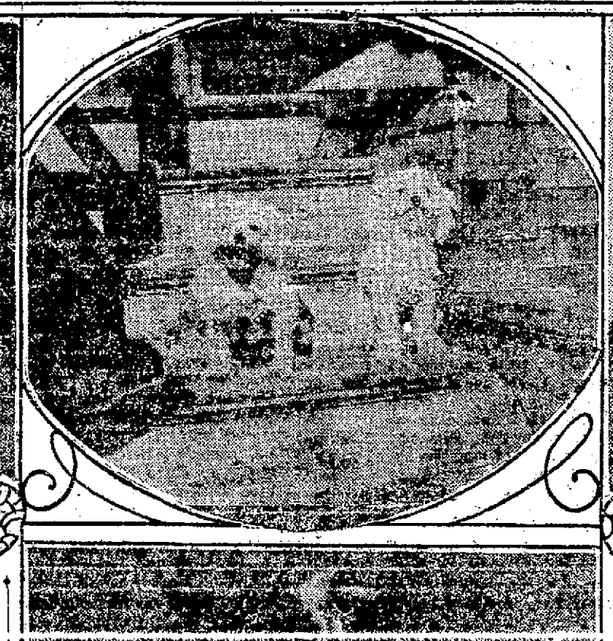

The veteran's choice among the options proposed would be made by application filed with the Secretary of War, if he were in service or his last service were with the military forces; or with the secretary of the navy if he were serving in, or his last service were with the naval forces. Such application might be made at any time after the passage of the bill and would have to be made personally by the veterans except in the case of physical or mental incapacity, in which event it would be made by such representative of the veteran and in such manner as the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy might jointly by regulation prescribed.

Grace Cottage and Its Heroic Inmates

PATIENTS SAVED FROM BLAZE IN HOSPITAL BLAST

AWAKENED BY DOG.

Then came the night of August 28, when Mrs. Cowdrey and three nurses, Mrs. O'donnell, Mrs. Whissen and Mrs. Catherine Bowman were awakened by the ever watchful "Betty" to find the northern wing of the house ablaze. The fire department was summoned and the fire extinguished.

The painters and decorators had just finished their work of redecorating the nurses' kitchen, the two dining rooms and the living room burnt in the fire on Monday when the bomb explosion came last night, wrecking the house and its contents and leaving only charred timbers and water-soaked ashes for a land-mark.

Grace cottage stands on the west side of Cottage street on a slight decline from Park boulevard. It is surrounded by the F. M. "Borax" Smith park and residence on Park boulevard, the Home club and the main unit of the sanitarium. The house is in a sort of natural park well up from the street.

Since the first incendiary outbreak a watch has been kept on the place by the police, and Cowdrey had engaged a special watchman, E. M. Cook.

INSPECTED GROUNDS

Christensen met Cook at 3:40 o'clock this morning and together they made an extensive tour of the premises and looked into the basement of the house. There were no indications of any fire and the house was deserted by all but the sleeping occupants.

Their investigations concluded, the two officers left for a nearby police box. As they reached the box to telephone to Central station for orders they heard a terrific explosion. Looking back toward the Grace Cottage they saw a wall of flame shoot up into the sky.

They returned immediately, but in the five minutes that had elapsed a new scene had been created. The house was burning from all angles and when the officers forced the main entrace door by physical power they were met by flame and smoke and were driven back.

Again and again the two men tried to get into the house. Inside they could hear the barking of Betty, who had evidently discovered the marauders with their infernal machine, for she raised a hue and cry before the explosion, according to the occupants.

Finally, while Cook was summoning the fire department, Christensen managed to effect an entrance and took out the patient. Nurses from the main sanitarium and patients in the convalescent stage then started to gather to assist in whatever way possible.

When Cook and Christensen had succeeded in taking out of the burning building the two nurses and their charge the fire department arrived and it was then discovered that the Cowdreys had not escaped, but were trapped on the second floor.

It was then that Captain Herbert Walden, in charge of No. 16, engine of the Oakland Fire department, braved death in his successful effort to rescue the two trapped people. The ladder was finally placed against the side of the burning building, and Captain Walden started his climb, while thousands, attracted by the flames, stood aghast.

Up the ladder, rung by rung, climbed the fireman with flames enveloping him and smoke clouding his head and body. Finally he reached the apex and took the unconscious body of Mrs. Cowdrey from her husband. With the woman on his shoulders, Captain Walden proceeded back to earth, followed by Cowdrey in a state approaching collapse.

The work of extinguishing the fire followed, but the damage had been done so quickly that nothing but ruins remain today. The cottage was valued at about $10,000, and the loss in personal effects to the Cowdreys alone amounts to $5000. They estimate a general loss of $25,000.

SAILOR FREED FROM JAIL CELL BY HAVING WIFE

Louis King, aged 24, has the "marrying fever", Judge George Samuels declared today, but he took a chance and continued his probation when informed that King was going to sea on a windjammer that would first sail to New York and then to Europe.

Captain Henry Nelson, 1149 Twenty-first avenue, told the court that he had arranged to place King upon this ship.

"Yes, but a sailor has a wife in every port," said Judge Samuels.

Captain Nelson admitted that he knew this, but declared that King would be safe as the wives were not likely to meet, at least.

King was haled into court for violating his probation on a burglary charge by getting married without first informing the probation officer, one of the rules.

German in Schools Up to State Board

Asked to take some stand concerning the advisability of teaching German again in the public schools, the superintendent's council of the Oakland school department today formulated a report which will be sent to the board of education Monday, advising that the matter is a state affair and not strictly under the jurisdiction of Oakland.

A delegation recently appeared before the board of education with a petition asking that German be taught in the schools, and the petition has since been greatly augmented till it now has several hundred names.

Superintendent Fred M. Hunter says the matter is not for the Oakland educators to handle.

"The matter of teaching German in the public schools," says Hunter, "has been and is being handled by the State Board of Education, which body is undoubtedly more familiar with the general demands and needs of the state than any local community, and their ruling precludes the eteaching of it, and it is not within the power of the council to vary it."

PREMONITION OF DISASTER CAME TO FIRE VICTIM

Mrs. George Cowdrey had a premonition that some disaster would follow her and her husband last night, according to a statement given out by her today in connection with her story of how she was rescued from the burning Grace Cottage.

"My husband and I were out rather late last night," said Mrs. Cowdrey, "and when we returned I had a strange feeling that all was not well. I insisted that my husband search the premises thoroughly.

"I imagine that I was somewhat unnerved by the strange occurences of the past week. At any rate I insisted on the search and my husband looked over the place from cellar to garret. He found nothing untoward.

"We retired shortly afterward and it was nearly four o'clock when I was awakened by Betty barking and scratching at the door of our bedroom, which is in the front of the house on the second story.

"While I was trying to collect my thoughts the explosion happened. There was a terrific bang and the house was rocked to its foundation. While the structure was still swaying from the shock I leaped to the floor.

"The floor was hot on my bare feet. My husband rushed to the door and Betty leaped into the room. She was blackened and the hair was burned off her face and shoulders. With the opening of the door the room was filled with smoke.

"We had no opportunity to take anything. Clad in our night clothes we started through the hallway. The stairs were blazing and the smoke was unendurable. My husband went back and secured blankets.

"With these over our heads we felt our way along. Every exit was closed by flames and smoke. Finally in desperation we turned to a small bedroom on the north end and made our way to a window. Our feet were blistered by the boards of the floor.

"Everyone was on the other side of the house, it seemed. I screamed again and again. It began to look hopeless. Then I heard something scraping up against the side of the house. I continued to call for help. My husband was holding me about the waist.

"For a moment I took away the blanket and as I did I saw the most welcome sight in all the world—a fire helmet on top of a grimy, smoke-stained face. Then I fainted. I shall never forget the face of that fireman. I do not know his name, but I shall never fail to remember his countenance.

"After that everything was blank. When I awoke Grace Cottage was gone and everything I possessed had gone with it."

Couple Escaped In Previous Blaze

George and Mrs. Cowdery, who experienced the bombing and fire at Grace Cottage early this morning and escaped unscathed, had already received their baptism of fire.

In 1912 the Cowdreys lived at Ocean Park, and in the fire which burned that resort town they lost their home.

Betty, the French poodle who died in the fire, was to have been replaced today by a watch dog of larger physical proportions.

"I intended to bring in a big watch dog from the ranch," said George Cowdrey, "to take the place of Betty.

"Little did I realize the heroine she was to prove. It is with a heartache that I go for her successor."

Dogs Saved from Pound-Pen Deaths

MANSFIELD, Aug. 31.—A philanthropic spirit is credited with prompting a woman resident here to register a standing request that the dog catcher permit her to inspect each day's catch.

If in the collection she spies a dog that she pities or sees one that suits her fancy the woman takes it.

She is now caring for eleven dogs, eleven cats, a goat and two horses.

Cottage Built to Aid College Girls

Grace Cottage, destroyed by bomb and fire this morning, was built by F. M. Smith, the borax king, whose palatial home is across the street, for the benefit of struggling University of California girls.

It is one of a series of cottages on the street of that name constructed by Smith to give homes to girls who were working their way through the university in the old days.

In 1915 George Cowdrey and his wife took over two of the cottages for sanitariums for nervous patients. The other cottages are being occupied by private families. The Grace cottage site is still the property of Smith.

German Soldiers Must Walk to Camp

(By International News Service.)

BERLIN, Aug. 31.—Railway fare are so high in Germany that the soldier of the new German Republic's Army will have to march to his training camps and drill grounds whatever the distance may be, the Minister of Defense has decided.

BROKER ACCUSED AS EMBEZZLER GIVEN LIBERTY

By consent of the Oklahoma authorities C E. Funnell, a broker, today was released by Superior Judge Lincoln S. Church through a writ of habeas corpus issued in connection with a charge of embezzlement, the outgrowth of a deal involving $42,000 of Clarita state bonds of Clarita, Oklahoma.

Funnell was given his freedom through the failure of the Oklahoma authorities to present extradition papers G. C. Ringole, attorney for Funnell, stated this was due to the fact that John Knox, deputy state bank examiner of Oklahoma, had been convinced son, deputy United States attorney of Oklahoma, had been convicted by Funnell that he was guiltless in the matter. The Oklahoma authorities are looking for another man believed to be the real culprit in defrauding the state with forged bonds

Funnell was arrested at the Hotel Oakland about two weeks ago on telegraphic advices from Los Angeles to which place the Oklahoma authorities had pursued Funnell, only to find that he had come here.

SAN FRANCISCO Aug 31 — John Sloan 55, 2629 Howard street, is at the Central Emergency ho tal suffering with several knife wounds on the body, and John Hill, 60, is under arrest for a charge of assault with intent to commit murder, as a result of a fracas early this morning at Hill's home at 2903 Baker street Hill told the police that he and his wife, Mrs Amy Hill, had separated three days ago as the result of a family quarrel, but that he kept the keys of the house He asserts that he entered the house with his keys early yesterday morning and found Sloan in his wife's room Sloan and Mrs Hill deny Hill's story, according to the police, and declare that Sloan rented a room in the house last night and had no previous acquaintance with Mrs. Hill

Belgian Compromise on Moratorium Is Accepted

PARIS, Aug. 31.—By the Associated Press).—The Reparations Commission late today unanimously accepted the Belgian compromise on the German moratorium proposition

M. Dubois, the French member of the commission, voted with his colleagues after a long interview between sessions with Premier Poincare

The commission rejected the motion of Sir John Bradbury of England for a moratorium without further guarantees by a vote of 3 to 2.

The first ballot on this motion was a tie, France and Belgium voting against the proposition, and England and Italy for it M. Dubois, as president of the commission, then cast his second and deciding vote

It is assumed that Chairman Dubois voted for the Belgian compromise with the approval of Premier Poincare, but this has not yet been definitely determined, as no announcement regarding that has been made on behalf of the premier

The commission accepted the last-minute proposals of the German government providing for deliveries of coal and wood in 1922-23 under contracts for delivery to be made under an arrangement between the German government and leading industrialists, including Hugo Stinnes

WOULD REMOVE OCCUPATION THREAT.

The acceptance of the new proposals by France would remove the threat of a separate military action in the Ruhr. Premier Poincare throughout the negotiations has indicated that a failure of the allied powers to come to an agreement on the German terms would result in further occupation of Rhine territory by French forces, and though the possibility of such action still remains, it is regarded as removed from the realm of probability by today's tentative agreement

England alone voted for the motion France and Belgium voted against it, and Italy abstained from voting

The commission accepted the last-minute proposals

PARIS, Aug 31 (By the Associated Press) —The allied reparations commission has decided to accept the Belgian compromise on the German moratorium proposition as a solution of the present crisis, it was learned this afternoon. A formal vote will be taken before the day is over, it was stated.

The British, Italian and Belgian members are declared unequivocally to favor this settlement The attitude of M Dubois, the French member, was not definitely known when the early afternoon session of the commission adjourned.

The American observer, Colonel James A Logan Jr, is contributing toward the movement for compromise, according to L'Oeuvre

WOULD ACCEPT BILLS PAYABLE IN SIX MONTHS.

M. Dubois went at once into consultation with Premier Poincare, with the purpose of bringing to the commission the French government's decision as to whether it would accept or decline the Belgian compromise

Under this plan, brought forward by M de Lacroix, the Belgian member of the commission, Belgium, in lieu of the remaining cash payments from Germany this year, to which she is entitled under a priority agreement, would accept treasury bills from the German government, payable in six months.

These bills would total more than 350,000,000 gold marks, and Germany would offer further guarantees for their redemption when due.

GERMANY WOULD KEEP AMERICANS ON RHINE.

The American government, through a channel quite apart from the American embassy in Paris, has re-opened its inquiry as to the propriety of keeping American troops on the Rhine The attitude of the French government is said to be one of indifference, while the German government has expressed a desire that the American garrison continue, being likely, the Germans believe, to exercise calming influence in the Belgian, French and British forces of occupation

One reason for the American attitude, it is understood, is the fact nothing has been paid to Germany for the maintenance of the army, the bill for which now amounts to $270,000,000, less certain sums, estimated at $40,000,000, consisting of requisitions made by the American military authorities on the German government.

By S. D WEYER,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

BERLIN, Aug 31—Following a night meeting of the cabinet, Chancellor Wirth today notified Herr Schroeder, the government representative in Paris dealing with the inter-allied reparations commission, that Germany would not sign the French conditions for an indemnity moratorium unless they were modified There were indications that some of the officials believed that the French would make some modification.

CHANCELLOR TAKES PESSIMISTIC VIEW.

Chancellor Wirth takes a pessimistic view of the situation He is said to believe that the crisis is fully as grave as that which confronted Germany when called upon to sign the Versailles treaty Certain political leaders have advised the chancellor that, if he gave up the policy of fulfillment and flatly rejected France's demands he would get the solid support of all parties from the monarchists to the communists

FRENCH BLACK TROOPS ON RHINE STIR PROTEST

Hitchcock Declares U. S. Should Suggest Substitution of White Forces.

WASHINGTON, Aug 31 (By the Associated Press)—Calling attention to reports of crimes committed by French black colonials on the Rhine, Senator Hitchcock, Nebraska, ranking Democrat on the foreign relations committee, declared today in the Senate that it was the duty of the American government to suggest to France the substitution of white troops

'Reports of returning American travelers and letters from American tourists," said Senator Hitchcock, 'have brought news that France has thousands of black troops quartered among the German population, and that repulsive crimes are again inflaming race hatred

"We may sit idly by while France in her folly proceeds to cripple, if not to crush the German republic by demands for reparations which all the world knows Germany cannot pay at this time We may even witness in silence the fall of the German republic and see the German people driven in desperation back into the grasp of the plotting monarchists or into the arms of bolshevism But we as a nation are in part responsible for the Rhineland being under military occupation, and is our right as well as our duty, to protest against quartering half civilized black troops among white people where they appear as conquerors and act as criminals"

Cleveland's Mayor Faces Recall Fight

CLEVELAND O, Aug 31 — Recal of Mayor Frederick Koler was demanded here today in petitions containing approximately 25 000 names The filing of the petitions is the climax of the mayor's fight with the Cleveland Federation of Labor over the "open shop" policy inaugurated in city departments.

BAG BOUNCES FROM AUTO TRAILER

"Aha! Another one straggling home after a vacation. This vacation season is about over, isn't it? I had mine so early in the summer I forgot I ever had one But Esther, what's the matter? You look sort of sad and gloomy. That's no way to come home after a wonderful trip like you had"

"Oh, I know it, but I can't help looking sad. Everything was lovely up to the last minute. My suitcase bounced off the trailer and got lost. Just when we were nearing Oakland again, too"

"Rotten luck And I don't suppose there is a chance in a million of your finding it, either I suppose it was jammed full of your best things and was a valuable suitcase at that, That's the way things usually happen."

"Well, no, this one really wasn't very good and I didn't have much in it. I had a fairly new evening dress and it is next to the only evening dress I had. I wore it at two hotel dances while I was away. There were a lot of odds and ends in the bag but that was the most valuable thing and I just can't afford to get another one."

"Well, it's gone. Surely you can get another one. No one can live without an evening dress Run down to Cherry's at 515 13th street and look over their things You can make arrangements for easy payments there, you know."

Roos Bros
SIX MODEL STORES

Sketched from Life in our Women's Dept.

Securing Better Quality is the constant Roos job

Our resident New York buying staff and our local store are ALWAYS keenly watchful about Quality. Makers know this and, of course, make it their object to please us, as we purchase tremendous quantities for our group of stores. You naturally benefit by all this care and watchfulness.

Marline, Tricotine, Yalama, Poiret Twill and Pancina Suits in both mannish and fancy models, many embellished with Caracul, Wolf and Nutria, are offered at only $49.50. Surely this is a very important demonstration of the values we secure by having six stores, and making tremendous quantity purchases. There are both long coats and short coats. There is severe self-trimming and smart stitching, and, too, there are fancy style-and-trimming details for those who prefer them. All in all, a remarkable collection, with a model to please any feminine type. Fall's favored colors.

As you know, Roos Bros. are Headquarters for man-made, man-tailored street and dress apparel

Exhibition Planned On Child Welfare

When Fremont High Parent-Teacher Association met yesterday it was decided to send an exhibit to the Sacramento State Fair, September 5, in the nature of posters depicting child welfare work. These posters have won state and district prizes and are the work of the Fremont High art department. Two representatives of Fremont High Mothers' Club will be sent to Sacramento fair as representatives of the club. They are Mrs. Ed A. Rogers and Mrs. Hattie Campbell.

ZONE JUDGE NAMED.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—The President today nominated John D. Wallingford of Iowa, to be United States judge for the canal zone.

MINER ARRESTED FOR MURDER IN HERRIN INQUIRY

By HARRY C. READ.
International News Service Special Correspondent.

MARION, Ill., Aug. 31.—Otis Clark, a coal miner and a resident of Marion, was arrested here today charged with the murder of C. K. McDowell, superintendent of the Southern Illinois Coal Company's strip mine near Herrin.

The arrest of Clark on a warrant was the first made in connection with the Herrin massacre of June 22. Clark was taken into custody in the offices of Attorney George Stone, counsel for the Williamson county sub-division of the mine union.

Attorney August Kerr, counsel for the Illinois sub-division, went at once to the court house with Stone and began negotiations with State's Attorney Delos Duty for a bond for Clark.

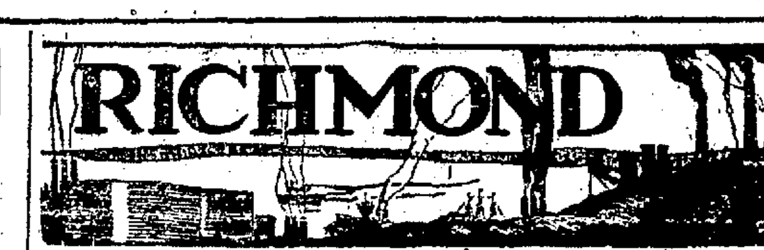

As the probe continued in the little court house today, Attorney General Brundage was elated over the progress made thus far. He declared it was the opening gun in the fight to bring those guilty of the shootings in the "procession of death" to justice.

"This will broadcast to the nation that the people of Illinois are not going to let the massacre and murder of 22 men go unpunished," he said.

The indictment was totally unexpected. There was one lone spectator in the courtroom when the jurors reported that they had found an indictment. It had been believed that no indictments would be reached for at least two weeks and that the first to be issued would be for rioting and not murder.

TO HOLD SCHOOL MEETING.

RICHMOND, Aug. 31. — The Stege Parent-Teachers' Association will hold its first meeting of the school year on Tuesday, September 5, at 2 o'clock at the Stege school. Matters of importance relative to the winter's program for the association are to be threshed out. All members and others interested in school work are urged to be present.

Death Cause Fixed in Crossing Mishap

RICHMOND, Aug. 31. — Death was due to hemorrhage of the brain in the case of Richard Rogerson, who died last Saturday after being struck by a Southern Pacific freight train at the Lucas street crossing, the coroner's jury determined last night. Rogerson occupied a Ford roadster, which went dead on the crossing. Two men with Rogerson were able to scramble out of the car before the crash and escaped unhurt. No responsibility for the accident was fixed by the jury.

The members of the jury were: H. J. DeRoff, W. D. Wilson, P. T. Duffy, F. A. Helger, H. Keamer and Mike Dender. Coroner Charles F. Donnelly conducted the inquest.

Work starts next Tuesday evening, September 5, in the following subjects: Women's "gym" classes, Monday evening, in charge of Miss Laurin; naturalization, stenography, typing, on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday; shop mathematics, Monday and Wednesday; English for foreigners, grammar school subjects, mechanical drawing, woodwork and pattern making, machine shop, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Whist Party Given At Lodge Meeting

RICHMOND, Aug. 31. — Eclipse Lodge No. 403, I. O. O. F., entertained with a whist party Monday night at the close of the regular business session in Bank hall.

The committee in charge included C. Belshe, chairman; assisted by James Miller, J. T. Gibbs, Mrs. Amy Pearson and Mrs. C. Cecil.

The initiatory degree will be conferred by Eclipse lodge at the meeting next Monday night.

WILL TOUR EUROPE.

Recent Events Are Depicted by Films

Besides the Hayward pictures, an interesting series was that showing the U. S. Shipping Board disposing of ships and shipping material under the hammer to several hundred buyers. Every conceivable object connected with shipping from a rivet to a full grown steamer, was knocked down to the highest bidder.

The recent Knights of Pythias celebration at Oakland was adequately preserved for Knights and others to look back on with pleasure in the years to come.

Club to Discuss Rail Conditions

RICHMOND, Aug. 31. — The weekly luncheon of the Richmond Rotary Club will be featured tomorrow noon by a discussion of the railway situation by Timothy J. Healy of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce. H. A. Stiver, local agent for the Southern Pacific company, will act as chairman.

Group 3 has charge of the program tomorrow. The group consists of H. A. Stiver, Gus W. Penning, Charles Crary and George N. Rooker.

Chauffeur Dies From Injuries

RICHMOND, Aug. 31. — Simon W. Elliott, a chauffeur who lives at 122 Tewksbury avenue, Point Richmond, died at Temple hospital this morning as a result of injuries sustained when he fell from a truck in Berkeley Monday evening.

Elliott is survived by his widow, Mary Elliott. He was engaged in the trucking business.

PASTOR HAS GOOD FISHING.

RICHMOND, Aug. 31. — Good fishing is reported by Rev. H. K. Sanborne made the trip by motor, Presbyterian church, who has just returned from a vacation at Lake Tahoe, Tioga Pass and Leavitt Meadows in the high Sierras. Rev. Saanborne made the trip by motor, accompanied by Mrs. Sanborne and daughters.

BEET GROWERS PROTEST RULE ON ROAD AUTO LOADS

Law Limiting Weighs On Highway Ruinous, Declare Men Before Board.

Pleading that the state law restricting loads to be carried on highways be not enforced until the law could be changed, men representing the beet sugar industry of Alvarado today appeared before the board of supervisors.

The declaration that the enforcement of the restrictions would mean ruin to the beet sugar industry was made by the representatives. They declared that beets could not be grown or the sugar made at a profit of the weight of loads was restricted, as the cost of transportation woul be too great.

The representatives who appeared were H. M. Springer and R. S. Stewart of the Alameda Sugar Company, which has a plant at Alvarado, and A. W. Haley and J. H. Langdon, beet growers of the district.

The matter was taen under advisement by the board of supervisors, Supervisor Redmond C. Statts declaring theat the representatives would be notified of the board's decision. William J. Hamilton, chairman, expressed the opinion that the request could not be granted as it would be discrimination as regards other haulers while the excessive loads were wrecking the highway pavements at a great cost to the county and state.

TO OPEN SCHOOL BIDS.

RICHMOND, Aug. 31. — Bids will be opened on Thursday, September 4, for the construction of the auditorium unit of the new Roosevelt Junior High school. The auditorium is to cost approximately $40,000 and will be located on the Bissell avenue side of the block on which the $280,000 junior high building is now in course of construction. The auditorium is to have a seating capacity of 1500.

SENTENCED FOR ATTACK.

RICHMOND, Aug. 31. — Howard Duboise, colored, was convicted yesterday in Justice of the Peace John Roth's court on a charge of assault and received a six months' sentence in the county jail. Duboise attempted to assault a Richmond woman shortly after leaving a street car late at night in a lonely part of the city several weeks ago.

STOLEN AUTOS ARE 'SWAPPED' BY BOLD THIEVES

The police are looking for the thieves who stole an automobile belonging to R. A. O'Connor, 6213 Lawton avenue, and left in its place an automobile which had been stolen in Nevada.

The machine which they took from Nevada was found by Police Inspector William Smith of the automobile detail in Redwood Canyon. In the machine they found a coat which belonged to O'Connor. The police are working on the theory that the men stole O'Connor's machine, and then stripped the other machine.

The following note was found on the steering wheel of the machine:

TRANSCRIPT WON IN PETERSEN CASE

A writ of review from the Superior court, commanding the Oakland civil service board to produce a transcript of all the testimony in the Walter J. Petersen case, was received by the civil service board this morning and immediately referred to City Attorney Leon E. Gray.

The Superior court demanded tht "the civil service board certify fully on September 11 a full and complete transcript of all the records and proceedings nad by the civil service board in the Petersen case."

According to City Attorney Gray, "thtere seems to be nothing to do but obey."

A transcript of all the testimony is estimated to cost $3500.

Several times Petersen and others have requested a transcript, which was also suggested for incoming members of the civil service board who were compelled to decide the Petersen case, though they had not heard the testimony. But the city officials asserted that the cost of such a transcript was prohibitive, and the civil service verdicts were reached without it.

Petersen then appealed to the Superior court for all the salary for all the time he was away from the Oakland police force, under suspension, and this legal fight caused the demand for the transcript.

ANTI-BOLSHEVIK REVOLT BEGINS IN SOUTHERN RUSSIA

Sailors of Black Sea Fleet Join Forces At Odessa Against "Reds."

BY UNITED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—Press despatches from Berlin today quoted reports from Odessa that an anti-bolshevik revolution had started successfully in Southern Ukraine and was spreading through the Crimea.

A despatch to the Daily Mail said an Odessa soviet had "freed itself of bolshevism and called upon citizens to unite against the communist usurpers."

Considerable bloodshed is reported to have attended the revolt.

Sailors of the bolshevik beet in the Black Sea have joined the revolt of Odessa and other southern provinces against the soviet government, according to the reports received here.

Odessa is an important Black Sea port near the Bessarabian border. Before the war, it was a prominent grain center and still is one of the Russian gateways.

"Red Crown" vaporizes 100 per cent. Every atom mixes with many times its volume of air and is completely consumed in the cylinders, leaving a minimum of carbon residue on spark plugs, valves and cylinder heads.

FIANCEE BALKS AT BEING LISTED AS McCOY'S NINTH

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 31. — The proposed ninth marriage of Norman Selby, better known as Kid McCoy, former pugilist, struck a snag today when the bride-to-be, Mrs. Jacqueline McDowell, en route to this city from Baltimore, stepped off the train at some unannounced point and telephoned "The Kid" that she would not come any further west.

The woman who is scheduled to be the ninth wife of Kid McCoy is decidedly "peeved" at the large amount of publicity given the forthcoming marriage. This she frankly stated to McCoy over the telephone, he said.

She was due to arrive in Los Angeles today from the east to be married, after which the couple planned to take a honeymoon trip to the Orient.

R. H. Mulch, sales manager of the Star Motor Company of California, has announced that no Star cars will be received from the Eastern plants of the Durant Motor Company, for showing in California before the Oakland plant of the Durant interests is able to produce Star cars for actual distribution. The first Stars are to come through the Oakland plant about September 15 and arrangements are being made for the first showing of W. C. Durant's new masterpiece in Oakland about September 17.

The first Star cars to come through the Oakland plant are all to be touring cars; but President Norman De Vaux claims that there will be some of the closed models seen on the Coast within thirty days after the first Stars are out.

The office building and warehouses of the Star organization which are being rushed to completion now on ground adjoining the Durant factory on East Fourteenth street, are to be ready shortly after the first cars come out of the plant and there are already several hundred dealers waiting for Star contracts in the territory controlled by the Star Motor Company, which is officered by Norman De Vaux, president; R. C. Durant, vice-president; R. H. Mulch, sales manager.

PLANS EXTRA FERRY SERVICE

To accommodate the motoring public on the holidays and for special events beginning Saturday, September 2nd, Golden Gate Ferry Company and Rodeo-Vallejo Ferry Company have arranged for special service.

"On Golden Gate Ferry Company," according to Owen J. Hanford, president of the company, "the first boat leaves San Francisco, foot of Hyde street, at 6:00 a. m. for Sausalito and every half hour thereafter from both sides till midnight and later if necessary to clear up all traffic. This service will be for Saturday, Sunday and Monday, September 2nd, 3rd and 4th.

"On the Rodeo-Vallejo Ferry Company's lines," Hanford states, "extra service will be given from September 2nd to September 10th, inclusive; boats leaving the terminals at Vallejo Shortway every 15 minutes from 6:15 a. m. to 12:15 p. m. and later if necessary.

"It is expected that this period beginning Saturday and ending Sunday, September 10th, will break all records in automobile ferry traffic and both companies are prepared to give the utmost in service to the automobilists."

BENNELL A LOCAL VISITOR.

To further the program originally laid down in a trip several weeks ago in the interest of establishing closer relations between Haynes owners and the Haynes Automobile Company of Kokomo, Ind., J. A. Bennell, Pacific Coast representative for the great Indiana interest, left the San Francisco bay district on a tour of the Northern California territory last week. His itinerary included stops in San Jose, Stockton, Sacramento and many of the northern towns.

During his stay here, he made the offices of the Haynes Auto Sales Company his headquarters. Bennell, one of the widest known factory men in the west, has inaugurated a plan whereby Haynes owners may come into personal contact with the Haynes factory, in the interests of better service, and has invited all Haynes owners to get in touch with him at any time.

One of the features of this plan is his series of trips through the territory, when it is planned to make stops in all possible places to better the service plan. In this way, he is constantly in touch with as many points in the state as is possible.

He plans returning to Los Angeles soon where he makes his headquarters with Lynn C. Buxton.

SONG WRITER OF NOTE, HERE.

The automobile manufacturers who have lived through the "Ups" and "Downs" of the industry for a score of years may be numbered upon the fingers of one hand. The field still further narrows down rapidly farther back, and the celebration this year of its "Silver Anniversary" by the Olds Motor Works is an important milestone in America's second largest industry.

Co-incident with an advertisement a few days ago in a magazine of nation-wide circulation calling attention to this important event and the fact the "Oldsmobile" had become a household word as far back as 1905, to a considerable extent due to the whirlwind success of the song "My Merry Oldsmobile," there arrived in San Francisco the first of the week a National figure on the vaudeville stage to whom much of this popularity and renown is due.

This man is Gus Edwards, author of the famous song, "In My Merry Oldsmobile," who is still writing and singing to packed houses on the Orpheum Circuit, but whose best claim to fame lies in the swinging rhythm of his song of seventeen years ago.

"Gus" and his troupe of pretty girls, according to H. G. Markham, paid a visit to the plant of the J. W. Leavitt Company, Oldsmobile distributors in San Francisco, one day early in the week. They talked with Manager A. D. Plughoff and other members of the organization; and then were taken, in Oldsmobile of course, for a trip to the scenic points of interest here.

"Gus" and his party pronounced the day a decided success and were only sorry that the matinee required their presence and that their trip of several hours "In My Merry Oldsmobile" had at last to come to an end, and they party company with the shiny new 1922 Oldsmobile at the San Francisco Orpheum stage entrance just in time to dress for their act.

Veteran Oakland Dockmaster Dead

Captain Samuel Lund, dockmaster of the Moore Shipbuilding Company, who has been operating drydocks in this port for over forty years, died yesterday at his home, 948 Eagle avenue, Alameda, following a short illness.

Captain Lund has docked almost every vessel which is owned in this port, and had charge for many years of the floating drydocks of the Merchants' and Shipowners' Drydock Company, San Francisco. He came to Oakland when the Moore & Scott drydocks were built.

Lund was 63 years old. He was a member of the Masonic lodge. The funeral will be held tomorrow from the Alameda residence.

POLICE QUITTING KLAN.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 31.—Reports have been filed by several members of the local police department to the effect that they have severed their connections with the Ku Klux Klan. Others filed reports stating that, although their names were on the membership roster of the K. K. K., they never belonged to that organization. There were in all 18 reports filed with the Chief of Police. This action was the result of an investigation conducted by the police department a few months ago.

DEATH WINS IN FATHER'S RACE TO SAVE GIRL

GOUVERNER, N. Y., Aug. 31.—Lila and Madeline Wells, six and eight years old, set out to meet their father last night on his way home from work in a quarry here. They took a route over the New York Central railroad trestle in Williams street. When they were more than half way across they saw their father, William Wells. He saw them, and behind them, a fast approaching train. He tried to beat the train to rescue the children. He lost hte race; all three were killed.

Amundsen Quits Polar Flight Plan This Year

NOME, Alaska, August 31. (by Associated Press).—Captain Roald Amundsen, Norwegian explorer, has definitely abandoned for this year his plan for an airplane flight from northern Alaska across the North pole to Spitzbergen or Grant's land, but plans to hop off next Spring, it became known yesterday with the arrival here of the coast guard cutter Bear from Point Barrow.

"JACK THE JABBER"

Wedding Takes Place at Home Of Relatives

The marriage of Miss Lou Alta Melton of San Francisco and Archibalt S. Merrill of Missoula, Montana, was solemnized Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's cousin, Mrs. Lola M. Campbell, in East Oakland. The bridal couple were attended by Miss Stella Martin of Saan Francisco and Humphrey G. Owen of Denver, Colorado, and the services read by the Rev. T. A. Story of Berkeley.

Miss Melton was charmingly gowned in white canton crepe, and carried a conventional boquet of bride's roses, while her bridesmaid was attractive in light green charmeuse. The ceremony was followed by a daintily served luncheon. Only close friends of the family were present, among them being Mrs. L. A. Martin and Mrs. Ellen Butler of San Francisco. cisco.

Merrill is professor of mathematics in Missoula College, Montana, and Mrs. Merrill, herself a professional woman of distinction, being a member of the American Association of Engineers.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill will sojourn in the Santa Cruz mountains for a few weeks, after which they will return to Missoula, Montana, their future home.

MISS BLACK TO BE HONOR GUEST.

Miss Frances Black will be the incentive for a number of smart social affairs during the next two months prior to her marriage to Horace Cleveland of San Francisco on September 27.

The Misses Alma Smith and Dorothy Kinney will be hostesses at an informal affair to be given at the Robert Russell Smith home in Berkeley, September 15. The hostesses and bride-elect are members of the Alpha Chi Omega Greek letter society, and many of the guests will be scorority sisters.

With the E. B. Gimbal home as the setting, Miss Eleanor Gimbal and Ruth Cereghyino will honor Miss Black at an afternoon affair, September 16.

Friday of last week Mrs. John Ruskin Holt (Madora Irwin) and Miss Dorothy Grace Doyle entertained delightfully at a bridge party and kitchen shower for Miss Black at the Doyle home in north Berkeley. On Saturday Mrs. David Christian was hostess at an afternoon of bridge, having as her guests a group of Miss Black's former college associates.

The marriage of Miss Black and Cleveland will be consummated in a simply appointed ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, the R. S. Millers of Piedmont, the bride to be attended by a number of intimate friends.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wall Fisher entertained a number of their friends in their new home on Ruby street, the occasion being the fifth wedding anniversary of the young couple. Mrs. Joseph Friedman, well-known in literary circles of San Francisco, was one of the many guests to enjoy the novel features of the evening. A program of music and dancing was arranged by the hostess, who before her marriage was Miss Maebelle Jewell of this city. Fisher is connected with the Standard Oil company of San Francisco.

BETROTHAL TOLD AT SORORITY.

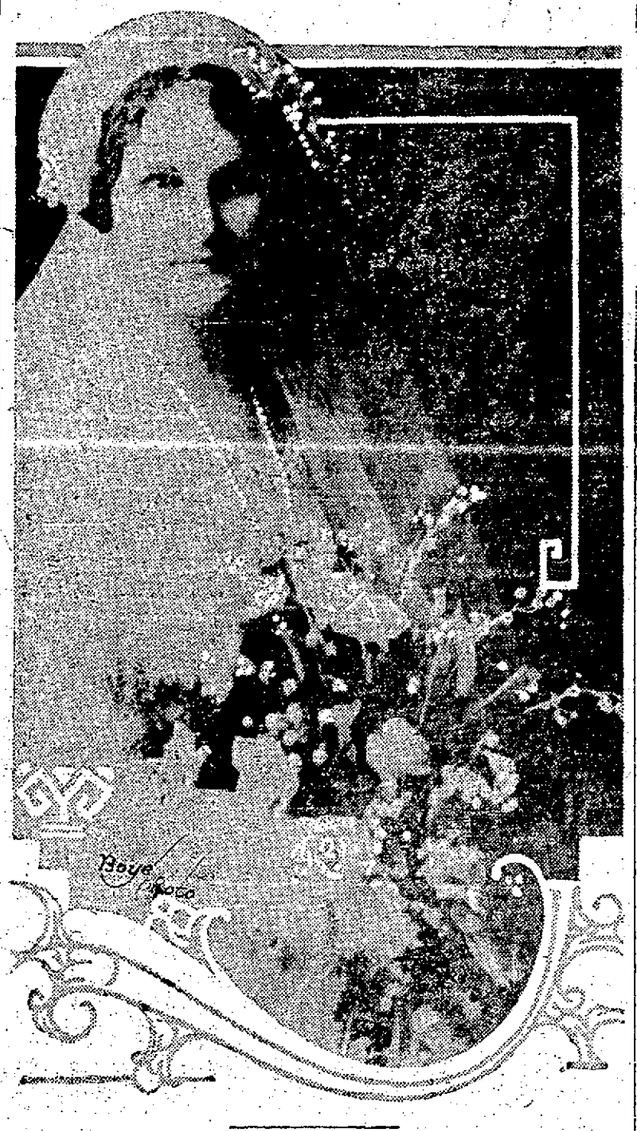

Burton E. Anderson, formerly of this city but now of San Francisco, will wed Miss Dorothy C. Mitchell, a student at the U. of C., in the spring, according to an announcement made Monday evening at a dinner-dance given at Miss Mitchell's sorority house at 1515 LaLoma avenue, Berkeley.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Mitchell of New York, and is a student in the music and art departments at the university. Anderson is an electrical engineer. He is the son of Mrs. F. E. Schooler of Richmond.

Miss Elizabeth Clarke, a graduate last spring of the Cora L. Williams Institute, will continue her education at New Antioch college, where its new president, Atrhur E. Morgan, a noted engineer, is inaugurating an interesting experiment in education. Miss Clarke is the daughter of Professor W. T. Clarke of the University of California.

GERMAN ENVOY TO RETURN TO JAPAN

BERLIN, Aug. 31.—(By The Associated Press.)—The early return to Tokyo of Dr. W. S. Solf, the German ambassador to Japan, definitely sets at rest reports that the government had planned to transfer him elsewhere. It is also viewed as an evidence that the government places a high estimation on his services in restoring good relations between Germany and Japan.

The relations between the two countries has become closer lately in the educational field and considerable sums have been advanced by the Japanese to aid needy German scientists.

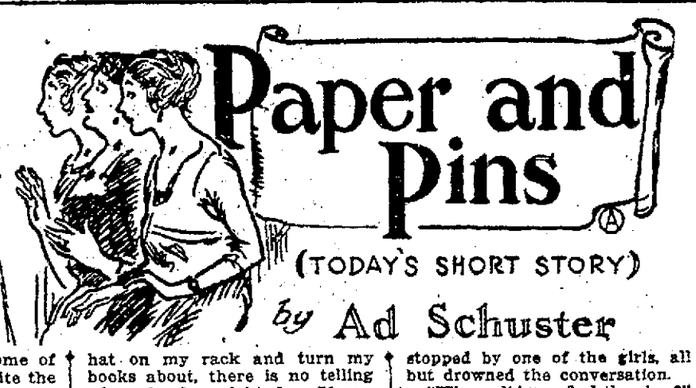

The number of Japanese students in Germany is steadily increasing and many German professors have been called to Japanese universities. It is noted that even now Professor Einstein is about to make a lecture tour of Japan, not only to discuss the relativity theory, but to confer with Japanese scholars on common scientific theories.

SCANTILY CLAD HIKING GIRLS SHOCK WABASH

WABASH, Ind., Aug. 31.—There are no bathing beauties to contend with in Wabash for the city has no beach, only the banks of the Wabash river, and as the song has it, they are "far away." Just the same, Chief of Police Charles Bolte has his troubles with costumes of the women folks. Two of these cross-country hiking girls came to town yesterday and Chief Bolte says that the "bathing beauties are all muffled up" as compared with the pair.

The chief detained them until they agreed to add to their costumes.

Paper and Pins

(TODAY'S SHORT STORY)

by Ad Schuster

THE mystery in the home of Mrs. Cadwatter, despite the efforts of the police, has never been explained. In every way, the eternally flustered matron will admit, it was a most satisfactory and aggravating mystery.

"It had me in tantrums most of the time," she confides occasionally to Miss Coy, who, as seamstress to the three Cadwatter girls, is a fixture in the family, "and yet there was nothing I could lay my hands on. Of course I'm glad it has stopped, but until I find out who was responsible, I will never be the same."

It was almost a year ago that the mystery made its appearance in the home of the widowed mother, the three marriageable girls, and the hard-working seamstress. It came quietly in the night and left a plug hat on the hat-tree in the hall.

Now a plug hat on the Cadwatter hat-tree, in any hour save those when the Misses Cadwatter were receiving, was as out of place as a walrus in the goldfish bowl. It was a disreputable plug hat and it bore unmistakable proof that someone had entered the house at night to hang it there. A search in which five excited women took part, and which included the coal bin and the attic, showed nothing else was disturbed. The visitor had been content to hang up his hat and depart.

The mystery of the unaccoutable hat was talked over in the sewing room where Mrs. Cadwatter, each day, was given her one chance to improve an acquaintance with her daughters. It was good for a week of speculation. The accepted theory that one of the young friends of the girls had left the hat as a joke, was shaken when one morning when the mother discovered that all of the display books in the parlor case had been turned upside down.

"It isn't that I care so much," explained Mrs. Cadwatter, "for goodness knows the servants can fix things up, but when a man can come into the house in the dead of the night, hang his old hat on my rack and turn my books about, there is no telling what else he might do. If any of you girls are joking you get no trip to the lakes this summer."

After that the mystery worked at least once a week. It removed the pies from the pie tins, stuck tiny flags in the potatoes, and placed the sugar bowl in the oven. Quite often it ate a cookie or a piece of cake. The girls and Miss Coy held out against calling the police. A burglar alarm was installed and a procession of women each night made certain the place was locked.

Mrs. Cadwatter had her triumph when the sign appeared. It was done in red ink on a piece of paper, an inadequate thing which read, simply: "Three Vain Girls."

"You can't tell," said the mother, "this may be a warning. I will telephone the police." The incensed Misses Cadwatter for once agreed.

Ed Wylie appeared with the inspector and listened while each of the women told her story. They were met in the sewing room where the hum of Miss Coy's machine, until she was stopped by one of the girls, all but drowned the conversation.

"Where did you find the sign?" Ed asked when the inspector was through.

Ed talked a moment in a low voice to the inspector who left abruptly, mother and daughters accompanying him to the door. The youth followed and joined them.

"Mrs. Cadwatter," he said, "you may be assured there will be no more mystery. We will have the party in jail by night."

"Well?" said the inspector when they reached the street, "What's the answer?"

"It was the little sewing woman," Ed answered. "She was dying for excitement. I told her if it stopped there would be no trouble."

The inspector thought deeply. "How did you know?"

"The joyful way she pedaled the sewing machine started me. Then, there was the sign. It had been pinned to a table cloth while the artist painted the letters. No one but a seamstress would do that."

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—Inventory of the estate of Mrs. Anna M. Swift, widow of the late Gustavus F. Swift, showed the estate to be valued at $4,883,482. Local charities and religious institutions were remembered by Mrs. Swift under the terms of the will to the extent of $450,000. The American University of Washington, D. C. also was given $25,000. The remainder of the estate will be divided among members of the family.

National C. of C. Planned in Japan

TOKYO, August 10. (By Associated Press by mail.)—A movement has been started by the leading business men for the organization of the chamber of commerce of Japan after the example of the chamber of commerce of the United States of America. The proposed organization has in view, according to Toyoji Wada, one of the inauguration committee members, the unification of the commercial and industrial activity nationally and internationally and the promotion of the businessmen's welfare. The new organization will thus include almost all the commercial and industrial societies and associations, clubs and leagues, throughout the empire.

The movement is supported by the government authorities and financial concerns such as the Mitsui and Iwasaki.

BERKELEY SOCIAL, HEALTH SERVICE GIVEN PRAISE

Delegates to Red Cross Regional Conference Taken Sight Seeing.

BERKELEY, Aug. 31—Praise of health and social service measures being employed in Berkeley and of steps taken to aid the disabled veterans were etended this morning by delegates from twenty-six Red Cross chapters in this state and Nevada at the second day's session of a regional conference being held at Unity Hall.

The delegates were taken on a tour of inspection of the various Berkeley social agencies, while those desiring to visit Letterman General Hospital in San Francisco, where hundreds of disabled veterans are being cared for, were taken across the bay.

R. C. Branion, assistant manager of the Pacific Division of the Red Cross, declared that between $2,500,000 and $3,000,000 was being spent by local chapters for work with disabled soldiers, this fund supplementing money provided by local chapters.

At today's session Superintendent of Schools H. D. Wilson told of the work being done by the Junior Red Cross in Berkeley, while Mrs. Emily Noble of the University of California spoke on "Training for Social Work."

Tailors at Dinner Plan For Convention

The members of the Oakland Exchange of the Pacific Coast Merchant Tailors' Association will hold a dinner meeting at the Hotel Oakland this evening for the purpose of formulating plans for the fourth annual convention to be held here in February.

A large delegation from San Francisco will be present to assist the local members in laying plans for what promises to be the banner convention of the organization. President K. Wills looks for a large attendance from all parts of the coast, he stated today.

STATE.

"A Wide-Open Town," starring Conway Tearle is the popular attraction at the State Theater this week. Tearle has a role that suits him well and as usual he gives a good account of himself.

The vaudeville for the week includes: "Bits of Dance Hits," a dance extravaganza; Robey & Gould are eccentric comedians; the Armstrong & Gilbert sisters, originalities; Mardo & Rome, a collision of fun; the Cliff Bailly Duo humorists.

The big change of policy at the State Theater occurs Sunday, Lester J. Fountain, manager, has said that the announcement when made public will surprise and delight Oakland's amusement loving public.

SCOUTS TO HOLD DRIVE PARADE

ALAMEDA, Aug. 31. — The Alameda Boy Scouts plan to stir things up tomorrow night in the drive for funds. A parade, headed by the Elks' band and directed by Lieutenant B. A. Palmer will march along the main business streets. The parade will start from the demonstration camp of the scouts in Oak street between Central and Santa Clara avenues at 8 o'clock. The Sea Scouts are to have a float. Preceding the parade a campfire rally will be held at which each troop in the city will put on a stunt.

Gustaf Ekberg and Norman Graham were both cited for the scout honor badge for life saving at the court of honor held at the demonstration camp last night. This is a gold medal issued by the national scout council to be awarded scouts who save life at the risk of their own. Both boys belong to the Sea Scouts.

Palmer Ashley became a Star Scout. Scouts winning merit badges were Lewis Clark, Bertram Young, Bernard Moran, Herman Sellarius, Israel Hamilton, John Hamilton, Burrows Hunting, Gerald Dunne and Fred Smith. Advancements were made by Scouts Hooper Blethen and Louis Apple. The court of honor consisted of Dr. W. B. Stephens, E. K. Taylor, J. W. Sanford and A. G. Dexter.

The Rotary Club, which is handling the drive for funds in Alameda, reports through A. W. Porter, chairman of the drive, that collections are coming in very nicely. The drive will continue to the end of the week. The objective is $6000.

NEW BROADWAY

Allan Dwan's notable production, "The Sin of Martha Queed," will be offered at the New Broadway Theater for a limited showing of two days beginning today.

In contrast to this offering, breezy Bryant Washburn appears on the same program in "The Road to London." Washburn has a characterization peculiarly adapted to him.

Herbert Rawlinson follows Saturday in "The Wakefield Case."

"My Old Kentucky Home" with Monte Blue as the star, is announced for Sunday.

NEW CHIMES

In the fastness of the California mountains the primitive caveman is given the chance to try out his method of love making in "The Primitive Lover," Constance Talmadge's latest offering to the screen which is the current feature at the New Chimes Theater till Friday. Kenneth Harlan and Harrison Ford play opposite the star.

Comedy of the hilarious sort plentifully besprinkled with melodrama and with a genuinely interesting plot, to say nothing of thrills every few minutes—describes "The Boat," in which Buster Keaton is seen in his latest two reel comedy.

MOZUMDAR

Mozumdar, who together with Rabbi William Rice has conducted healing meetings in San Francisco for the past month, will conduct a short healing campaign here in Oakland, beginning Thursday evening. Mozumdar was born in India of a royal princely caste. About eight years ago he made Oakland his home, and founded the Universal Messianic Center here, which has persisted to this day. Since then he has been traveling. He has conducted healing campaigns in Spokane, Honolulu and elsewhere. Mozumdar has about 30,000 followers and students all over the world. Rabbi William Rice, who has been lecturing on spiritual healing here and in San Francisco, will speak at the meetings with Mozumdar. These meetings will be conducted on the roof garden of the Pacific Building, 16th and Jefferson streets, beginning Thursday evening, August 31, and extending over next week.

NEPTUNE BEACH

Indian summer days, the best summer days that are enjoyed by the Easthay region, are bringing daily hundreds of visitors to Neptune Beach.

Labor Day, next Monday, will be celebrated at Neptune Beach with one of the biggest displays of fireworks ever seen in Central California. The Oakland Tribune Juvenile performers will stage up-to-date vaudeville. A grand ball will be held in the beach pavilion in the evening. Sunday is Kute Kut Play suit day at the beach.

Sunday, Japanese fencing will be the attraction of the day, featuring jiu jitsu. Dansants with special music will be held at the beach on Saturday, Sunday and Monday evenings.

4 MILES A MINUTE SPEED IS CLAIMED FOR NEW PLANE

By WILLIAM R. KUHNS,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

CROYDON, Eng., Aug. 31. — A mysterious airplane, reported capable of covering four miles a minute, is expected to be the sensation of the 'round England air derby September 8, for which thirty crack British pilots were entered today.

The plane, said to be something entirely new in the realms of flight, has been constructed in secret at Bristol. It will be piloted by C. W. Uwims, famous English airman.

"The derby is for the "King's Prize" and is over a course of 900 miles long. It is a handicap affair, with entrants ranging from high speed monoplanes, such as the mystery plane is reported to be, to giant amphiblans and cross-channel passenger buses.

N. S. G. W. ARRANGE PICNIC.

The Oakland Native Sons of the Golden West have formulated plans for a picnic to be held at Pinehurst next Sunday. Special Sacramento Short Line trains will leave the depot at Fortieth and Shafter streets at 8:30, 10:10, 11:50 a. m. and 1:30 p. m., and on the return to Oakland will leave the picnic grounds at Pinehurst at 4:30 and 6:30 o'clock.

AMERICAN

"The Loves of Pharaoh," a colorful picture romance of ancient Egypt in which more persons are said to appear than any other picture ever made, is attracting enormous crowds at the American Theater, where the screen masterpiece is now being shown.

The great Paramount feature has received the highest commendation of critics wherever it has been shown, particular credit being given the fine dramatic art of Emil Jannings who appears as Amenes; Dagny Servaes, a new feminine screen beauty, and Henry Leidtke. A special American musical program is offered in conjunction with the picture by John Wharry Lewis and his orchestra.

Next week the American inaugurates the opening of the new series of Paramount pictures. The initial offering will be "Her Gilded Cage," a lavish and delightful romance of Paris and New York which features Gloria Swanson.

CENTURY

"Two of a Kind," the musical comedy revue now playing at the Century Theater is drawing the regular Jack Russell kind of audiences afternoons and evenings.

The story of the two quarreling partners who endeavor to settle their difficulties over a game of cards never fails to get a "rise" out of all present. The new musical revue coming to the Century Sunday stars Jack Russell in black face.

With "False Alarm," the popular Walter Spencer returns to the Century Theater following a vacation from the footlights. With its new musical numbers arranged by Jack Joy and the specialties and costumes that are promised, "False Alarm" is likely to be alarmingly entertaining.

T. and D.

The double exposure work in "The Masquerader" at the T. & D. Theater this week is more than puzzling and mysterious, for Guy Bates Post, playing the leading dual roles, does things with himself in many of the scenes which will cause one to doubt very much that but one man plays both characters. "The Masquerader" is a tale of two men identical in appearances, whose paths cross in a strange manner.

Johnnie Becker and his Syncopationists, Shirley Mason in "The Rugged Heiress" and "Any Old Post," a Christie comedy complete the current program.

GIRL NOW WELL AND STRONG

Wauseon, Ohio.—"My daughter always had backache and leg-ache at certain periods and could not be on her feet at those times. We read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound doing girls so much good so she began to take it. That is two years ago and she is a different girl since then, able to do any work she wants to do—although she is still careful not to do heavy work—and so well and strong. We recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all mothers with ailing daughters, and I give you permission to publish this letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. A. M. BURKHOLDER, Route No. 2, Box 1, Wauseon, Ohio.

Something out of balance will affect the finest clock, causing it to gain or lose. The proper adjustment made, all is well. So it is with women. Some trouble may upset you completely.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will correct the cause of the trouble and all disagreeable symptoms will disappear.

ORPHEUM

John Drinkwater's great play "Abraham Lincoln" with Frank McGlynn and a company of some forty people, will offer one of the finest dramatic treats of the generation when it is presented by William Harris, Jr., at the Orpheum Theater under the local management of W. A. Rusco, for the week beginning next Monday night.

There are six scenes in the drama each reflecting a phase of Lincoln's life, thought and experience. When the final curtain falls on the tragic scene in Ford's Theater.

Frank McGlynn's interpretation of Lincoln does not depend solely on the fact that the player looks like Lincoln. That noble leader had characteristics which set him above the crowd and made him an idol. McGlynn had long been a student of the Great Emancipator, so that when the opportunity offered to create this part he was well equipped for the task. It is one of the historic impersonations of all American stage annals.

AUDITORIUM

Another emphatic success has been scored in the Hartman-Steindorff production of "The Mikado" at the Auditorium Theater. In this Gilbert and Sullivan classic the Hartman-Steindorff organization is seen at its best. Hartman has the famous role of Ko-Ko, the Executioner. Particularly well cast are Louis Fitz as Pish Tush; John Van as Nanki Poo; Rafael Brunetto as Pooh Bah; Nona Campbell as Katisha; Paul Hartman in another of those funny umbrella carrying parts; Lillian Glaser, Hazel Van Haliren and Edna Malone as the three wards of Ko-Ko.

Another request is issued by the management that patrons reserve their seats early. This is due to the tremendous advance sale.

FRANKLIN

Thomas Meighan in his latest Paramount production "If You Believe It It's So," now playing at the Franklin Theater, has registered a hit, so ideal is his acting of the city crook who, through a systematic training of his mind over matter, becomes worthwhile, manly and smears the world with happiness. Theodore Roberts is delightful in the part of the time-old swindler, while Pauline Stark makes a capital country girl—who answers to the name of Alva.

"Cow Pasture Pool" is the first comedy picture from the studios of Bud Pollard on Webster street and includes a bevy of pretty girls who hail from our city.

Next Saturday is the starting date for Wallace Reid, Bebe Daniels and Lila Lee in "Nice People," another Paramount feature.

FULTON

"Little Old New York," the production which first introduced Isabelle Lowe and Creighton Hale to San Francisco, at the Columbia Theater, is to be produced at the Fulton next Sunday, with the original costumes, scenery, cast, etc., that made the play a smashing success across the bay.

It will be a striking change that Miss Lowe affects, in slipping from the dainty Virginia maid, of the starry-eyed sort, to a rollicking Irish boy, in knickerbockers, whose adventures in New York, a hundred years ago, make the theme of the play, "Little Old New York."

Throughout its picturesque scenes, the boyish form of Patricia O'Day" weaves in and out, a figure of intense interest and perennial charm.

Walter Scott Weeks will have the role of "Bully-Boy Brewster," a prize-fighter, John Miljan will play "Cornelius Vanderbilt," Louis Morrison "John Jacob Ascot." Will Lloyd will be "Washington Irving." Dorothy Blackburn will rejoin the company in the role of "Ariana de Puyster," a lady of "culture." Florence Midgley will be "Rachel," the sister of "Bully-Boy Brewster." Altogether there is a cast of forty in "Little Old New York," a pretentious offering, indeed.

PANTAGES

Willard Mack, that debonair and versatile man of the stage whose histrionic abilities have served to delight hundreds of thousands, will be the stellar attraction at Pantages Theater commencing next Sunday afternoon.

Mack, with his wife and three other artists will present "Kick In," a colorful sketch from the underworld and written by Mack himself.

George Morrel appears as "Whip," a detective from headquarters and Rita Sylver as "Molly Hughes," playing opposite Mack.

In offering "Kick In" and presenting Mr. Mack and his all-star company, Alexander Pantages believes he is sending to Oakland what will be generally considered as the best vaudeville bill of the year, supported as it is by a number of acts which rank on the same plans as the leading attraction. Roe Reeves, the irrepressible comedian, with a revue of singing beauties is mentioned as a sample of the accompanying numbers.

U. S. WILL PROBE SOVIET STATUS FOR RECOGNITION

Board of Experts to Investigate Russian Conditions For That Purpose.

By A. L. BRADFORD,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Russia will be given a chance to get back into the family of nations.

This, it was understood today from high authority, is the real significance behind the State Department announcement that informal proposals had been made by the American government to the Soviet authorities looking toward sending an expert commission to investigate the economic situation in Russia.

Two things of supreme importance might result from such a study:

1—Resumption on a full scale of economic and financial relations by the United States and the rest of the world with which is now known as Soviet Russia.

2—Then, as probably a natural and logical consequence, resumption on either a full or partial scale of political relations involving some sort of recognition.

JAPAN URGED TO RECOGNIZE SOVIETS.
BY UNITED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

TOKYO, Aug. 31.—The Tokyo Mainichi, a leading newspaper of Japan, today urged that Japan recognize the soviet government of Russia regardless of the attitude of other world powers. The position of the Mainichi was considered highly significant, although the government seemed resolved not to grant recognition.

LECTURE ON PSYCHOLOGY.

The regular weekly meetings of men under the auspices of the Oakland Truth Center for the study of applied psychology and metaphysics, at Social hall, 1450B Alice street, includes a lecture tomorrow night by Charles H. Seccombe. "Know Thyself, or the Science of Being," is the subject of the lecture. The meetings deal with vital subjects relating to health, success and happiness, and are open to all men, it is announced.

CLASSES IN MILLINERY.

BERKELEY, Aug. 31.—Afternoon classes in millinery and dressmaking at the Willard school, open to the women of Berkeley, are announced. The classes are limited to 20 members each, and they will be in session from 1 to 5 o'clock on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday of each week. Enrollments will be received until the maximum of 20 members in each class has been reached.

RUSSIANS TINT HOSPITAL FOR SMALLPOX RED

MOSCOW, Aug. 31.—Red, the official color of the Soviet government, has been found by Russian scientists to have a beneficial effect upon smallpox cases. White rays are harmful to the skin lesions in this disease, they say, while red is most healing.

Consequently, the smallpox wards of the Third University hospital at Lefortavo, built 217 years ago by Peter, the Great, have been painted entirely in flaming red. The beds, bedding and equipment are also in that color.

Gift of Chair for Injured Man Asked

The Associated Charities today made an appeal to friends of the poor to assist in securing a wheel chair, or funds with which to purchase one for Auviello Simi, 1049 Alcatraz avenue, who was injured in an automobile accident in Franklin canyon last November. His back was broken.

Simi has a wife and two children and has been unable to earn anything since the accident. The Associated Charities has provided food and clothing, Simi himself has made a few dollars knitting flowers for bungalow aprons.

SPECIAL EFFORT MADE TO RAISE BOY SCOUT FUND

Two Days Remain in Which to Get $13,000 More For Quota.

Calling attention to the fact that but two days remain in the Boy Scout drive for funds, leaders today urged team workers to exert all possible efforts, and made a special appeal to the public to cooperate in raising the $25,000 quota.

At yesterday's report luncheon there was recorded $2705 for the previous 24 hours, bringing the grand total for the first three days of the drive to $11,594. It was pointed out that this is less than half the quota, and that there are but two more days in the campaign as originally planned.

"People are urged to send in their subscriptions without waiting for a solicitor to call upon them," said Scout Executive Homer Beniss. "It is impossible with any organization of workers to see every person who might wish to help along the campaign with contributions. People who sympathize with the Scout movement and are anxious to see it go forward on the same efficient basis during the coming year should come forward and support it with their contributions."

President Abe P. Leach presided at yesterday's report luncheon, and urged that all possible efforts be made to reach the quota in the required time. He said the money is urgently needed for specific purposes, and is fully accounted for in a well-planned budget for the coming year.

At today's luncheon Robert Sproule, comptroller of the University of California, was the speaker.

The Scouts are giving daily demonstrations of their work at Fourteenth and Franklin streets.

Ten More Rescued From Lost Vessel

SANTIAGO, Chile, Aug. 31.—Advices from Valparaiso state that the Chilean steamship America has picked up ten more survivors of the wreck of the steamer Itata, which sank Monday off the coast near Coquimbo. This brings the total saved to 31. The Itata carried 322 persons.

Greatest Circus Draws Many Thousands to Two Performances

Inside the "Big Top"

The Combined Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Circus has elephants, camels and zebras galore. (Above), giving elephants a drink; (middle), baby elephant and clown; (below), the big top.

Wonders of Setting Up Tented City, Vie With Acts in Interest

The Barnum & Bailey-Ringling Bros. circus came to Oakland at dawn this morning. Every youngster, age 6 to 60, is out at Forty-fifth street and San Pablo avenue this afternoon, or else plans to be there tonight. The circus fever is highly contagious, for it swept the city with the arrival of the first red and yellow special trains.

Long before noon the crowds began to gather at the circus grounds. By the time the menagerie doors were opened the throng attempted to surge through the gates at one time. But the circus people are used to crowds and the thousands were handled without delay. Judging from the size of the matinee audience, a record-breaking attendance can be expected tonight.

Hundreds of real circus fans rose at dawn and formed an unofficial welcoming committee at the railroad yards when the first of the five long special trains pulled in from Sacramento and unloaded its contents of wonders. No time was lost in transporting the massive vans, cages and wagons from the "runs" to the exhibition grounds.

Out at the circus lot additional hundreds gathered early to watch the fascinating work of building the tented city. Those who have not yet paid a visit to the showgrounds can gain no conception of the really tremendous size of the combined Ringing Brothers and Barnum and Bailey circus. Advance reports have in no way been exaggerated. The circus is really colossal. Over 30 tents dot the grounds. The largest, the "big top," is more than 700 feet in length and can accommodate close to 15,000 spectators.

Every minute of the morning hours was required to move the hundreds of wagons from the trains to the exhibition grounds, erect the many tents and get everything in order for the afternoon performance. It was for this reason that no street parade is given in any city.

This fact served to send additional thousands to the showgrounds during the early morning. The great herds of elephants, camels, zebras and other "led" animals brought forth exclamations from the youngsters as they marched to the big menagerie tent. Special interest centered around the cook-house and dining tents, where the meals are prepared for the 1500 performers and workers with the big organization. Only a short time after the first wagons arrived on the grounds a steaming hot breakfast was ready for the workmen as they reached the lot, and later for the performers and executives who travel on the last train section.

London Shows Faith in Polish Industry

WARSAW, August 31.—Lodz, the textile center of eastern Europe, has owed English exporters 2,000,000 pounds for raw materials since before the war. A committee from Lodz recently went to London to find a method of payment. It was finally agreed that the Lodz debtors are to liquidate in 20 installments, one every six months, but if conditions improve, the installments may be sent forward at shorter intervals.

The relations between Lodz and English dealers in textiles always have been close. Lodz bought its cotton and other rough materials in London. War and German occupation, followed by German requisitions and the failure to receive monies due from Russian customers, prevented the Lodz spinners from meeting their English obligations.

Women Scouts Get Record Sugar Crop

HONOLULU, August 10. (by mail)—From a crop planted during the 1920 strike by Hawaiian women and Boy Scout volunteers, Ewa plantation, on this island, has harvested the largest amount of cane sugar ever taken from the field in any country, according to an announcement by the management. The field of 146.8 acres yielded 15.31 tons of sugar to the acre, as compared with the former world's record of 15.02 tons, also established by Ewa plantation in 1902.

HARVESTING OF SUGAR BEETS TO BEGIN SEPT. 15

Notice Sent Out to Farmers Near Pleasanton So They May Meet Plans.

PLEASANTON, Aug. 31.—Announcement was made yesterday by a representative of the Spreckels Sugar Company that the beet harvest would start about the middle of next month. Official notice will be given the farmers of the district at least two weeks in advance as to the opening date in order that they may plan accordingly, it was said. The local office also has confirmed the report that only the Asco dump, on the Santa Rita road, will be operated. This point will be the main delivery station, the shipments being made to Spreckels from that centrally located dump. Work during the last two weeks has put the station in condition to receive the deliveries, as it has been overhauled so that no delays will be caused during the campaign.

Beet samples are being taken this week and will be regularly taken each week up to the opening in order to ascertain the sugar content and the advisability of harvesting. It is expected that the season will be successful as there is plenty of labor looking for jobs in the fields and the tonnage is expected to run very good.

Present plans concern keeping the dump open for about eight weeks as it is anticipated that the season will be completed within that time. The local farmers are being paid according to the selling price of sugar which at the present time is up and is expected to remain about the same.

The installation of officers of the Rebekah lodge planned for Monday evening had to be postponed at the last minute and the ceremony will take place at a future meeting. After the business session the members were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Kruse, Miss Pauline Kruse and John Kruse.

BEGIN OUTING IN SOUTH.

RICHMOND, Aug. 31.—A. C. Moorehead, foreman of the power department at the Standard Oil refinery, is now on his vacation in Los Angeles, where he plans to remain for three weeks. Mrs. Moorehead and daughter have been visiting in the south for some time. The family will tour the southern cities before returning to Richmond.

TO JOIN K. P. CIRCUS.

RICHMOND, Aug. 31. — Members of [illegible] Lodge, No. [illegible], Knights of Pythias, are taking interest in the Knights of Pythias circus which started yesterday in Oakland auditorium. A number local Pythians plan to take part in the parade at Oakland tonight.

O. E. S. TO GIVE DANCE.

RICHMOND, Aug. 31. — Miramar Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold a dance tonight in Masonic hall. Whist will be the entertainment for those who do not dance.

Candidates for U. S. Senate

Exhibit Spread Where Pines Troop Down to Sea

Exposition Emphasizes the Lure of Nature

By GOUVERNEUR MORRIS

In the forthcoming exposition, September 1, 2, 3, and 4, Monterey is showing, perhaps for the first time in its history, symptoms of the same kind of community spirit which has done so much to make less fortunate regions prosperous and populous. The merchants and leading citizens of the city have suddenly waked up to the fact that they are living and doing business in the most beautiful and advantageously situated piece of real estate on the Pacific Coast, and they wish to advertise this fact to the world at large. And they are actually doing so. But, I am happy to see, with modesty, and reticence and a due regard for truth.

In boosting certain sections of California (desert and sage brush and alkali bordered by rough, dreary beaches it has been necessary to lie on a very huge and handsome scale.

But that is not necessary here. For one artist who has gone elsewhere in California to dream and paint, a hundred have come here. Here are compositions of hills and mountains, of trees and rocks and salt water which are not to be duplicated elsewhere in the world.

Here the pine trees troop down to the sea; and here are trees which, because they grow nowhere else, are celebrated everywhere, and we have strange and lovely shells which are washed up on no beaches but ours.

As to which of many coastwise settlements a man would choose to live in, depends, in California, almost entirely upon what man himself has done to make these same settlements attractively habitable, and beautiful to the eye. But millions of men working for millions of years couldn't make a Point Lobos or a Cypress Point, or duplicate the contours of our gracious rolling live oak country, or the vast sand dunes set thick with yellow and purple lupine and white as the driven snow.

The Monterey Chamber of Commerce has a different problem from other Chambers of Commerce. It has to consider not what can be done to make Monterey attractive to the thousands who are beginning to drift in here from the outside world, but what must be done to keep from spoiling it.

It is doubtful if public sentiment will countenance the pulling down of any more of the old Spanish adobes, with their red tiled roofs, and their high walled gardens; for those old relics are a definite and charming asset, preserved by no other California city and worth anything you please as a lodestone to travelers. This same growing sentiment will, I think, in time lead to the destruction of the huge and hideous signs which now desecrate the incomparable approaches to Monterey—particularly of that one which as you drive in past Del Monte and the old graveyard, completely destroys the effect of the most superbly placed Mission church in California.

Monterey can't help growing, because once they have discovered that there is such a place, thousands and thousands of people will pull up stakes, even very old stakes, elsewhere and come here to live the year round. And Monterey's problem is not how to grow, nor how to grow beautifully, but how to grow without scotching and spoiling what is already so complete and so beautiful.

The exposition will afford many people a good excuse to come here and see for themselves a region so wholly liveable and lovely that no pen or brush will ever do it justice.

BOARDS PROJECT PAVED HIGHWAY IN CROW CANYON

Chambers of Commerce and Supervisors Interested in Proposed Road Link.

HAYWARD, Aug. 31.—A conference of the Chambers of Commerce of Martinez and Hayward and the boards of supervisors of Alameda and Contra Costa counties to discuss the possibility of paving the road leading through Crow Canyon to San Ramon and Walnut Creek is being arranged now by Charles W. Heyer, supervisor from this district, and M. A. W. Lee, secretary of the Hayward Chamber of Commerce. The proposed highway will be the last needed link in connecting Hayward by paved highway with points in the Bay District, will make more accessible one of the finest scenic drives in the country, and will provide farmers in the district with an additional outlet for marketing their crops.

Heyer said yesterday that the Alameda county supervisors plan the re-paving of East Fourteenth street this year, and that it will be impossible to do further work here now, but that the matter will be given the board's serious attention and may be included in the lists of work for the spring of 1923. Lee said that the Chamber of Commerce of both Hayward and Martinez are anxious that the work be completed at the earliest possible period, and that residents of the district are joining with them in the plea for better roads through the section.

In former days practically all of the crops of Crow Canyon and San Ramon were marketed through Hayward. The construction of the proposed highway, it is believed, will re-open trading between these points.

Scout Fund Drive Will Be Continued

HAYWARD, Aug. 31.—A continuation of the drive for $3600, which is to make possible the establishment of a Hayward Boy Scout council and to organize and equip troops here, for one week has been decided upon by the committee in charge. The drive is being given support of the townspeople, but following the decision to increase the quota from $2000 to $3600 additional help in organizing for the drive was promised by the Oakland council. The Oakland council, carrying on its drive this week, will not be able to devote any time to the drive here until next week.

Under the new proposal Hayward will be organized independent of the Oakland council, and will have its own executive, council and court of honor. At this week's Rotary club luncheon $1100 was subscribed in less than twenty minutes.

CHURCH BENEFIT ARRANGED.

RICHMOND, Aug. 31. — The ladies of the First Methodist church at Point Richmond are planning to hold a picnic-social tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. J. C. Bly, at Golden Gate and Mono avenues. The affair will be in the nature of a benefit, the money to be given to clear the church of indebtedness.

HAYWARD

COMMITTEE WILL INSPECT PLANT

HAYWARD, Aug. 31.—Interest in the proposed concrete lumber plant which seems to make its establishment probable was shown at a meeting held in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce last night at which W. J. Crego, James Willison and F. A. Hanson were appointed a committee to make a tour of inspection, with L. R. Rosenberg, local lumber dealer, of the home plant of the company, Los Angeles and working branches at Santa Ana and other Southern California cities. I. C. Woodward, representing the Concrete Lumber Company of California, advised the trip. Rosenberg will leave here with the committee on September 8.

The proposed plant here would occupy an acre of land and would require $10,000 to construct. It would have an output of 1000 feet of concrete lumber a day.

Conferences of builders and dealers with representatives of the Los Angeles company have continued here for some time, and the present indications are taken to mean that action toward establishing a branch of the company here may be expected.

Ranchers Survey Grains For Crops

HAYWARD, Aug. 31.—Investigation of various types of grains best suited to the climatic and soil conditions of the district will be started at a meeting of the Mountainhouse farm center tonight, it was announced today. Joseph Hamon, assistant agricultural agent, will aid farmers of the district in making surveys of the crops best adapted to their ranches.

Independent center will meet Friday night. R. T. Robinson, county agricultural agent, will advise farmers of the district on marketing and management of poultry ranches.

DEPARTMENT OF BUREAU FAVORED

HAYWARD, Aug. 31.—Details of arrangements for the establishment of the proposed horticultural department of the Alameda county farm bureau and the continuation of the poultry department of the bureau were gone into yesterday by J. W. Nelson, assistant state leader of farm advisors, in a conference here with Russell T. Robinson, agricultural agent, and the staff of the bureau. Nelson has given his approval of the proposed horticultural department, and is working with Robinson to bring about its early realization.

A survey of possibilities in the county for better fruit and for additional horticultural products is being started today by Robinson. On September 25 the findings of the survey will be laid before horticulturists of the county at a meeting to be held here. Control of pests, particularly of brown rot, thrips and the peach root borer, will be attempted by the proposed department. The institution of long pruning and other new horticultural methods will also be adopted.

Hotel and Theater Drive Being Planned

HAYWARD, Aug. 31.—Launching of the community hotel and theater drive planned by Charles W. Heyer is now being prepared for, it was announced today by M. A. W. Lee, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. Lee said that a final conference of the hotel committee of the chamber, headed by Martin J. Madison, with Heyer will be held before the end of the week. Heyer proposes to construct a $200,000 hotel and theater building.

The chamber's committee is carefully investigating the proposal and, it is understood, will probably endorse Heyer's proposal to make the project a community one. Community hotels in various districts have been carefully investigated by the committee, and it believes that the project here would be successful.

PETALUMA TAKES FRESH SPURT IN BUILDING WORK

New High School, Church and Silk Mills Included in Projects Under Way.

PETALUMA, August 31.—Building operations in Petaluma show no signs of abating. In fact new impetus in this direction is in evidence as the season advances. Of the larger projects under way and in course of construction here, the junior high school building takes precedence. This will be one of the finest and most costly buildings now going up and will be completed before the year wanes.

The new Christian Science church building is well under way and enclosed, with prospects of completion before winter sets in.

The foundation has been laid and work is progressing on the addition to the Belding Brothers silk factory, the only silk mills west of the Mississipi.

The Must Hatch hatchery, already the largest in the world, has just let the contract for a large addition to the present buildings. Following suit, the Pioneer hatchery adjoining, is clearing ground for a large addition to its present quarters to be constructed of brick.

Many new houses, bungalows and garages have been completed this season, and many more are now under way.

There are five applicants for the position of postmaster of Petaluma: E. E. Drees (incumbent), Assistant Postmaster Ernest Wilder, Lyman Green, W. J. Hickey and Charles H. Eagan. Charles L. Snyder, secretary of the Twelfth United States Civil Service district, and Postal Inspector W. R. Madden, were here this week and received the applications, to be reported to the civil service bureau at Washington.

Petaluma river has never shown as much activity in shipping as during the past week. Unusually heavy freight cargoes taxed the wharfage and the available boats plying between here and the bay cities. The heavy shipments of Gravenstein apples is partly responsible for the increased water traffic.

PETALUMA NOTES

PETALUMA, Aug. 31.—The LeBaron estate of Valley Ford, Sonoma county, exhibited seventeen head of Ayreshires at the San Joaquin county fair at Stockton last week and has entered the same bunch at the State Fair at Sacramento. These Ayrshires carried away many prizes from the Marin-Sonoma county fair, also the Stockton fair, and are considered the best ever exhibited from this county.

A pure-bred Holstein cow from the ranch of Charles Barboni, Sonoma county breeder, was sold this week to R. C. Rasmussen of the Castania ranch, near this city, the price paid being $750. This is the first cow produced in this county to bring so high a price. The cow, Emerald de Kol Segis, is eight years old, has a high butter fat record and was awarded first prize and also placed as senior grand champion cow by Professor Hughes of the University farm.

Mrs. William Perry of this city placed an exhibit at the dahlia show which opened at the Palace Hotel, San Francisco, today. Mrs. Perry makes a specialty of choice dahlias and her gardens contain some of the choicest of this variety of flowers.

The Cinnabar Parent-Teachers' Association will serve a chicken pie dinner on Saturday evening, September 2, from 5 to 8 p. m. The proceeds are to be used to buy playground equipment for the school, which is located on the highway just north of this city. Music and dancing will be included in the dinner program.

A quiet wedding took place in San Francisco Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Matilda Drees and Bell Gibson, both of Petaluma, took the marriage vows. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. M. Drees, and the niece of Postmaster Drees of this city, member of one of the pioneer families. Gibson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Gibson, prominent residents of Petaluma, and is engaged in business here. The young couple will reside in this city.

News Notes of Vallejo And U. S. Navy Yard

VALLEJO, Aug. 31.—Supervisor J. R. Thornton is reported well on the road to recovery from his recent attack of appendicitis. He will probably return to his home next week from the Vallejo general hospital.

Secretary E. H. Denby will arrive at San Francisco on September 1, and will visit Mare Island either Saturday or Sunday.

It was stated this afternoon that the Solano grand jury will hold its meeting at Fairfield on September 1. A number of Vallejo members are preparing to be present.

The United Construction Company of this city is to begin the laying of the bitumen on Virginia street early next week. The job will be paid for by the city of Vallejo.

A new sign is being installed in Sonoma street by the Rodeo-Vallejo Auto Ferry Company. Permission to install the sign was received from the city council on Tuesday.

The city council has accepted the invitation of the Knights of Columbus to attend the dedication of the new K. C. building on September 17.

The sum of $4850 has been requested by the yard officers for repairs to be made to the new power plant at the government establishment.

Lieutenant Jose Garcia of the Brazilian navy is to visit Mare Island next month. The officer is to be taken on a tour of the yard by the hull department officers.

According to the police report Clifton Addison is at the Vallejo general hospital under the cars of Dr. B. J. Klotz for injuries received when he crashed into the tonneau of an auto at Ohio and Tennessee streets while riding a bicycle.

Sale of Bank At Walnut Creek O. K.'d

WALNUT CREEK, Aug. 31.—The sale of the First National Bank of Walnut Creek to the San Ramon Valley Bank has been approved by the State Banking Department, according to official word received here today. This means the winding up of the affairs of the First National and the transfer of all its assets and liabilities to the San Ramon Valley Bank.

TRAIN, AUTO HIT; TWO DEAD.

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 31.—Frank Redding, 40, of Tillamook, was killed outright, and Edward Arrance was injured so seriously that he died before arriving at a hospital, when an automobile in which they were riding was struck by a north-bound freight train on the Oregon Electric railroad at a crossing about five miles south of Salem yesterday.

UNION LEADER IN SACRAMENTO FATALLY SHOT

Dynamite, Bullets and Fire Spread Rail Strike Reign of Terror.

CHICAGO, Aug. 31. — Dynamite, bullets and fire aided in the spread of the railroad reign of terror today. Plots to wreck passenger trains bearing hundreds of men, women and children, were revealed.

Police patrolled the homes of rail workers in at least one community to prevent their burning. Actual attempts to wreck several trains were made.

SACRAMENTO, Ag. 31. — William Mero, president of the Federated Shop Crafts of Sacramento, died shortly after midnight this morning at a local hospital from a pistol bullet said to have been fired by H. B. Debolt, alleged strike breaker employed at the Southern Pacific shops here. Debolt was arrested and his confessed the shooting, officers said.

Debolt declares he fired in self-defense. He told the police he was coming home from the shops this morning and that as he left the street car in a downtown district two men dropped from the rear and followed him. As he was walking along a street adjoining a park, he said, the men attacked him and that upon being attacked he fired from a revolver through his pocket. Mero fell to the ground without a word.

Pedestrians attracted by the shot, hurried to the scene and Debolt was held. Mero was taken to the hospital unconscious and died soon after. He was unable to make a statement.

Chief of Police McShane stated this morning he would make a thorough investigation of the shooting.

BRIDGE DYNAMITED AS FAST TRAIN IS DUE.

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE.

WILMINGTON, Del., Aug. 31. — The Fourteenth street bridge of the Pennsylvania railroad was dynamited early today just before a passenger express train was due to pass over it.

The police suspect railroad strikers. Search is being made for the dynamiters. So heavy was the charge that windows in houses half a mile away were shattered and the whole city was aroused.

The part of the bridge holding the northbound tracks was destroyed and the abutments were damaged. All trains were nagged and the police threw a cordon about the bridge to keep all persons away. The damage to property was heavy.

BOMB EXPLOSIONS SHAKE CLEVELAND.

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 31. — Four houses under construction were destroyed, foundations of many others were loosened and windows in houses for an area of half a mile were shattered early today as the result of four explosions in the Garfield Heights section of the city. Police say the blasts were caused by bombs and suspect labor troubles prompted their planting. Fire broke out and the shattered houses were burned to their foundations. The four houses completely destroyed were two-family buildings and were nearing completion. The damage is estimated at $40,000.

NON-UNION MEN'S HOMES STORMED.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa, Aug. 31.—Homes of two non-union railroad workers, James White and Harry Thompson, were stormed with bricks last night, according to police. Several windows were broken, but no one was hurt. When police arrived the crowd had disappeared.

One maintenance of way worker was killed, two probably fatally injured and another slightly hurt when an Illinois Central motor driven section car jumped the track near here. Officials are said to be investigating the possibility of greased rails or loose bolts.

Priority Orders Issued For Fruit, Food in West

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—(By International News Service).—The government's anti-profiteering bill for preventing extortionate coal prices during the coming winter was passed by the House late this afternoon. The measure would set up a federal coal distributor, enlarge the powers of the Interstate Commerce Commission and through the distribution of coal to place an effective check on high coal prices It now goes to the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31 (By United Press). — The Interstate Commerce Commission today declared an emergency existed on the railroads west of the Mississippi, and extended its priority orders to that vast territory.

Under a previous emergency declaration, the priority system was ordered only for territory east of the Mississippi, although all railroads were ordered to expedite shipments of essential commodities.

Declaring that "in the opinion of the commission an emergency which requires immediate action exists upon the lines of each and all the common carriers by railroads subject to the Interstate Commerce Commission act west of the Mississippi," the commission issued service order No. 24, which promulgated rules for the movement of all freight traffic in the west.

Priority in the movement of fruit, food, fuel, livestock and perishable products is ordered by the commission.

The commission's order will be effective September 1.

Priority in the movement, exchange, interchange and return of empty cars to be used for transporting these commodities also was ordered.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31. — A settlement of the railroad strike might come if the railroad labor board would rescind its decision made early in July, which virtually outlawed the striking shopmen, William H. Johnston, president of the International Association of Machinists, told the United Press today.

It was this decision that injected the seniority question into the strike, and ever since its promulgation the rail executives have steadfastly refused to restore the seniority rights of the strikers.

"It was a foolhardy ruling and has been characterized as such by every administration spokesman who had anything to do with the strike," Johnston said. "That ruling has given the railroad executives the peg on which to hang their excuses for not settling."

U. P. WAGE AGREEMENT.

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 31. — C. E. Anderson of Le Grande, Ore., general chairman of the newly organized shop employees association, Union Pacific system, today expressed confidence that the new wage and working agreement signed with Union Pacific officials yesterday would be lasting and effective. The new rates and rules are to become effective tomorrow, September 1, said Anderson, who also explained that the agreement fixes wages of 76, 80, 85 and 90 cents an hour for thoroughly skilled mechanics who formerly were paid dead level rates of 70 cents an hour, with five and ten-cent differentials in some instances. Under the new plan, the chairman declared, a progressive line of promotion is provided for with rates ranging from 54 cents an hour for the rough or slightly skilled work. A wage of 49 cents an hour is provided for helpers as against the old rate of 47 cents.

The rules relating to the handling of grievances, it was stated, will localize the consideration upon the particular unit involved.

As to seniority rights, the agreement provides that employees who remained in or returned to the service on or before July 8, 1922, and those who entered the service beginning with and since July 1, 1922, will rank first, while those who enter the service subsequent to September 1, 1922, will rank according to the date employed.

PLEA FOR LIVING WAGE

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—Jett Lauck, chief statistician for the railroad unions, today pleaded with the U. S. Railroad Labor Board to establish a living wage for workers. The living wage principle could be established in all industries of America with an increase of 22 per cent, Lauck said.

"The total additional cost to the railroads would not be much over $100,000,000 a year," the witness stated. "There can be no question as to the ability of the roads to pay this modest amount."

DISTRIBUTION LIMITED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—By a vote of 85 to 64, the House today struck out of the administration coal distribution bill the provision under which the president would have authority to again put the act into effect in any future emergency.

Amendments Vote Count Is Delayed

Official figures on the amendments to the Oakland city charter will not be available until tomorrow, according to a statement made today by City Clerk E. K. Sturgis.

Sturgis has not started to count the ballots. They will be brought from the Hall of Records this afternoon the the clerk will start counting the first thing in the morning.

According to the city officials the only amendment that carried was No. 6, which allows ex-service men to become policemen or firemen after one year of residence in Oakland. The present charter provides that a candidate for policemen or firemen must live here five years.

"I Felt Sure He Would Win," Mrs. Woolwine Says

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 31.—Mrs. Thomas Lee Woolwine, who has actively aided her husband in his campaign for the Democratic nomination for governor, was "very happy" today.

"Of course, I felt sure he would be nominated," she told the United Press. "I just came back from San Francisco with him and I had talked with people all over the state and knew that he had the support to win the nomination.

"Of course I'm very happy over it. This is the second campaign I have accompanied him and now will come the election."

Mrs. Woolwine was one of the first to predict that Richardson would be her husband's opponent.

Woolwine to Base Battle on Record

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 31.—The following statement was issued today by District Attorney Thomas Lee Woolwine, Democratic nominee for governor:

"In the final contest I intend to wage a campaign based principally on what I have accomplished in my official service and you can best judge what a man will do by what he has already done. The enormous majorities by which I have been elected district attorney of Los Angeles county, which is the banner Republican county of the state, leads me to believe that the people of the State of California will support definite and progressive policies."

ATTORNEY TAKES STAND IN MOORE WILL CONTEST

Under Cross-Examination Admits Testator Disliked Step-Children.

Relatives and friends of the late Mrs. Mary Ellen Moore, widow of Dr. George Alden Moore, a physician with a national reputation who died in Alameda in 1916, were placed on the stand today by the heirs in Judge E. C. Robinson's probate court in their effort to set aside that portion of the will which gave Harry W. Lobb approximately $50,000 in property and securities.

The heirs, children of Dr. Moore by his first wife, charge that Lobb by flattery and presents, ingratiated himself into the favor of Mrs. Moore and then induced her to draw up the will in which he was left the bequest. The petition alleges that Mrs. Moore was aged and infirm and subject to many eccentricities before her death, which enabled Lobb to secure an influence over her to the exclusion of her own attorney, Albert H. Elliott of San Francisco.

ATTORNEY IS WITNESS

Elliott was a witness yesterday, being placed on the stand to establish that, although being Mrs. Moore's attorney, he had been excluded from the drawing up of the will. Under cross-examination he admitted that Mrs. Moore disliked her husband's children during her lifetime. This was due to the fact he said that George J. Moore, a son now deceased, had made an alleged attempt upon the life of his father.

The estate of Mrs. Moore amounted to about $300,000. Of this only about $15,000 was community property, the rest being Mrs. Moore's personal estate. After making various bequests to relatives and friends, Mrs. Moore by her will, left the residue of the estate to Lobb and two of her nephews, Frank and George Brown. Lobb's portion amounted to about $50,000.

CONTESTING HEIRS.

The heirs who are petitioning to have the part of the will set aside which gave Lobb his portion of the estate are Anna B. Moore, as executrix for George J. Moore; Herbert B. and Harry T. Moore, sons, and Mrs. Herbert F. M. Fitch and Mrs. Jane W. Langley, daughters. They are represented by Attorneys Robert McWilliams and J. S. Lamson of San Francisco.

It is the contention of Lobb that the petitioners have no right to contest the will because most of the property belonged to their step-mother as her separate property and that the $15,000 which was community property was left properly to them and other relatives. Lobb is represented by Attorneys Earl Warren and Hadsell, Sweet and Ingalls, of San Francisco.

Sheriff Returned In Solano County

FAIRFIELD, Aug. 31.—Forty-seven precincts out of fifty in Solano county gave Mark Andrews 4225 votes for sheriff against 5654 for J. J. McDonald.

Walter F. Parker of Vallejo was elected tax collector, defeating A. N. Trainor of Suisun with approximately 1000 votes.

W. H. Bryan of Suisun was defeated by B. J. Klotz, present coroner and public administrator, by a vote of 5474 to 3441.

For supervisors of the third district C. E. Mayfield of Suisun, with a vote of 1037, and Elvin Bauman of Benicia, with a vote of 716, both qualified for the general election.

For justice of the peace of Suisun township M. A Maynard was elected over Ernest Crowley, Suisun, and Elwood Merril, Fairfield. Crowley, though blind, sought the office as a stepping stone toward a law career, he having graduated from the University of California last year.

A. G. Burdick, Fairfield, received 539 votes as constable of Suisun township, qualifying with George Kinlock, incumbent, who received a vote of 457.

Brantley W. Dobbins, Suisun, received the highest number of votes for district attorney with a total of 3328, Arthur Lindauer, incumbent, receiving the next highest with 2544. H. E. Manning, Vallejo, received 1479; Russell O'Hara, Vallejo, 1682, and David Williams, Vallejo, 668.

If you see it in The TRIBUNE tell them so.

None Better for Governor, Avers Mrs. Richardson

LONG BEACH, Aug. 31.—"I've believed firmly for a long time that no one could be a better governor for California than Mr. Richardson," said his wife this morning, at their summer home, 51 Lime avenue, this city. "He knows every inch of the state and he has a practical knowledge of the needs and the desires of its different sections. Mr. Richardson has lived in California since he was four or five years old. He is now 57.

"He has been absolutely sincere in his campaign in the interests of state economy and efficiency and everybody who knows him, knows he'll do all that is possible to improve conditions when he is governor.

"I have had two telegrams from Mr. Richardson since the election. The second one, late yesterday, showed he anticipated winning by a majority of 25,000. I expect he will be here in a day or so. I would like to have him rest here for a week before we return to our home in Sacramento. However, he may feel that he should spend a day or two at the state fair."

Rivals for Governorship

Veale Faces New Contest for Office

MARTINEZ, Aug. 31.—Sheriff R. R. Veale and Tony Reggiardi will be opposing candidates for the office of sheriff of Contra Costa county at the November election, neither having received a majority of the votes cast at Tuesday's primary election. With returns in from 100 out of the 101 precincts in the county the vote today stands: Veale, 5871; Reggiardi, 5734; Nixon, 2661.

EMERYVILLE, Aug. 31.—Returns from the precincts here show that Walter J. Taylor and H. T. Hempstead were renominated for office of constable. Taylor polled 429 votes and Hempstead 408. They were unopposed.

Wyoming Governor Admits His Defeat

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Aug. 31.—Nomination of John W. Hay as Republican gubernatorial candidate was conceded today by Governor Robert D. Carey, his opponent in the Wyoming primary. An unofficial count, however, may be necessary to determine the winner, it is believed.

tion. H. W. Brunk of Berkeley was unopposed for the Democratic nomination and Mrs. Elvina S. Beals of Berkeley was unopposed for the Socialist nomination.

Seventh district—H. E. Barbour, incumbent, Fresno, was unopposed for either the Democratic or Republican nominations.

Eighth district—A. M. Free, incumbent, Republican, of San Jose, will be opposed by D. M. Denegri, who won the Democratic nomination over Free in a "write in" campaign.

Ninth district—Walter F. Lineberger, Long Beach, defeated Chas. H. Randall, Pasadena, and J. R. Oasler for the Republican nomination. Randall won the Democratic and Prohibition nominations unopposed and will be a candidate at the November elections.

Tenth district—H. Z. Osborne, Los Angeles, incumbent, defeated F. A. McDonald, Los Angeles, for the Republican nomination and will be unopposed in November.

Eleventh district—Phil D. Swing of El Centro was unopposed for either the Republican or Democratic nominations.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 31.—(By International News Service).—The extent of Senator Hiram Johnson's victory in Tuesday's primaries over C. C. Moore, who was contesting the senator's re-nomination to the Senate on the Republican ticket, grew as the returns came in. It appeared today that Johnson's majority would run $5,000 to 20,000 instead of 70,000 as at first estimated. With approximately 1000 precincts yet to be heard from Johnson was today leading by slightly more than 65,000.

Senator Johnson carried every county in the state with the exception of Los Angeles, San Diego, Santa Clara and Kings. In San Diego and Santa Clara the result was so close as to be almost even.

SAN JOSE POLICE FACE WORKS ON MYSTERY DEATH

Discovery of San Francisco Man's Body in Alley Is Puzzling Affair.

SAN JOSE, Aug. 31.—An inquest into the somewhat mysterious death early yesterday afternoon of J. M. Taylor, of 1065 Larkin street, San Francisco, an employee of the Pacific Gas and Electric company there, is to be held by Coroner Amos Williams some time today, according to statements from his office. Although police and coroner's officers declared the death apparently was natural, investigation into peculiar circumstances surrounding it is to be made.

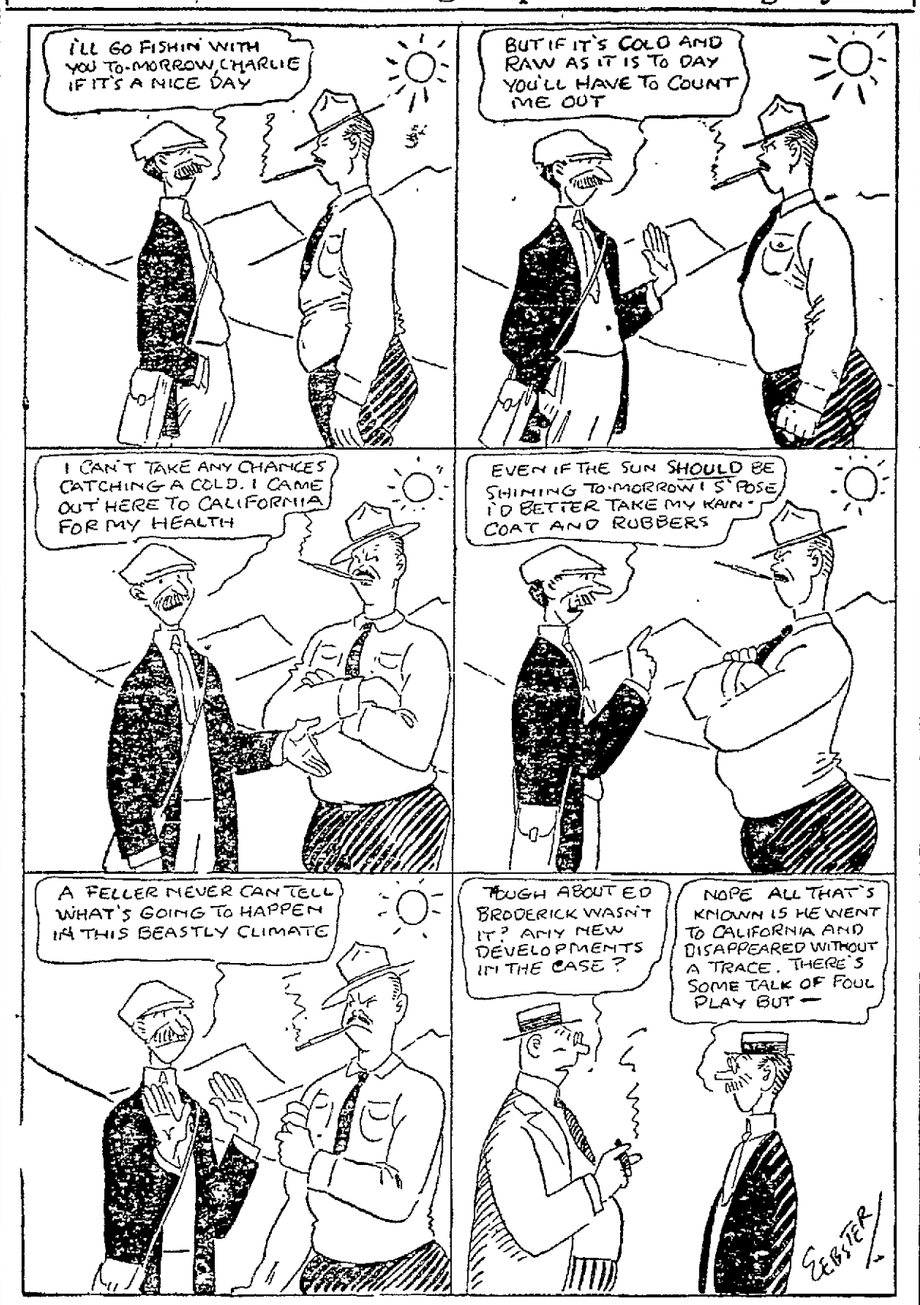

The man's body was found lying in an alley running alongside the southern end of the Hotel Vendome grounds, from First to San Pedro streets. Mrs. Herbert C. Hunn, of 143 Hawthorne way, telephoned police headquarters that her daughter had heard two men quarreling in the alley and that she noticed one of the two run up the alley. Her suspicions aroused, the girl peered over the back fence and saw a second man lying upon the ground. Thereupon she informed her mother and the police were called.

Officers Martin Harris and Frank Rogge answered the call to headquarters and on arriving on the scene found the man dead. Papers on his person revealed his identity.

Despite the peculiar circumstances under which Taylor's body was found, with no indication of what he had been doing in the alley, police declared their investigation showed no signs of a murder or other violent death.

Coroner Williams will present an autopsy report to the coroner's jury when it convenes late today, this being expected to throw some light upon the death.

The Events Leading Up to the Tragedy

Los Gatos Reports Good Prune Crop

LOS GATOS, Aug. 31.—The prune crop here this year is one of the largest in years according to reports from ranchers in this vicinity. Although the prunes are about a week late in ripening, they are unusually large and have a high sugar content. This is extremely good drying weather and according to H. C. Dunlap, secretary-treasurer of the California Prune and Apricot Growers, Incorporated, the danger to the prune crop from rain is slight this year.

Boosters Forbid Betting at Games

HAYWARD, Aug. 31.—In an ultimatum issued by the Hayward Merchants' Boosters' club today it was stated that betting at games played on the grounds of the club must be stopped at once, and that the club will prosecute any further infringements on this ruling. According to F. E. Bragg, secretary of the club, considerable betting has been carried on at previous games.

DRIVER FAILS TO GIVE VICTIM AID

SAN JOSE, Aug. 31.—His arm broken and his head and body cut and bruised, Jerome L. Lexington of San Francisco, a salesman, was brought to the local emergency hospital last night after having been struck by a strange autoist who fled in the darkness after the accident.

Lexington is the only one with first hand information on the accident which occurred on West Santa Clara street, near the Southern Pacific's West San Jose depot.

The young man was walking across Santa Clara street, headed north, he says, when the automobile, driven by a middle-aged man, portly in stature, struck him, throwing him into the gutter. Lexington insists that the driver of the car knew of the accident, he having leaned out of his car after striking his victim, whereupon he speeded up and fled up Stockton avenue. Lexington was picked up by passing autoists and brought to the hospital here.

Niles Tire Truck Answers Two Calls

NILES, Aug. 31.—Since its recent arrival the new Niles fire truck has been given a thorough breaking in. Sunday afternoon the firemen of Niles gave a demonstration with the new truck and became familiar with its apparatus.

The first fire alarm was sent in from Centerville. Joe Alves' home had caught on fire and a nearby paint house and garage were threatened. The house was completely destroyed, but the other buildings were saved. The Newark department also aided in checking the fire.

Wednesday a fire was reported from the Masonic home near Decoto. The grass near the building had caught fire and was burning rapidly. Workmen who were engaged on the new buildings there and officers of the home succeeded in putting out the fire before the truck arrived.

European Tour Concluded by San Jose Girl

SAN JOSE, Aug. 31.—Miss Augusta Corey of this city returned to her home Tuesday, following a tour of four months in various parts of continental Europe. During her travels she visited England, France, Italy, Germany, Holland and Switzerland. She was fortunate while visiting in Oberammergau, where she witnessed the famous Passion play, to have the privilege of meeting Anton Lang, who takes the part of Christ in the production. Another interesting feature of her European tour was a flight from Brussels to Paris by aeroplane, that being her first air voyage. Miss Corey is planning to enter into the fall social events with her usual interest and enthusiasm.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Aramy of Stockton are visitors in this city, the guests of Mrs. Aramy's sister, Mrs. Frieda Lesser. They are planning to return to their Stockton home the end of the present week.

Mrs. Cora Hatch Johnston, accompanied by her pretty young daughter, Miss Evelyn Johnston, is at present spending a few days in San Francisco, where she is combining business with pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sweigert have leased a home in Chapman street this city, and are planning to make their home there for the present, according to information given out by them this morning. The house is situated on Chapman near McKendrie.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Holmes are now entertaining as their house guest their daughter, Mrs. W. E. Hunt of Los Angeles, who is accompanied by her children. Yesterday marked the 29th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Holmes and the visit of their daughter at this time was in honor of the occasion.

Mrs. Robert Irving Bentley and the members of her family are to return home September 1 from Pacific Grove, where they have been occupying the pretty summer home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Clayton.

Farmers to Exhibit At Hilmar Fair

TURLOCK, Aug. 31.—Everything is in readiness for the big Hilmar fair opening today. Many of the Turlock business men have procured booths for the exhibition of their wares and practically all the nearby farm centers will have livestock, produce and poultry on exhibition. The fair will last two days and a record breaking crowd is expected.

Mrs. P. J. Hanrahan of Santa Clara Dies

SANTA CLARA, Aug. 31.—Catherine Hanrahan, 60 years old, died Wednesday in Santa Clara. She was an old resident of Santa Clara coming here from the east. She was a native of Ireland, and leaves to survive her, a husband, P. J. Hanrahan, and a daughter, Mrs. Agnes Ringrose of Santa Clara. She will be buried today from Saint Claire's church in Santa Clara.

WOMEN'S CLUB HOLDS PICNIC

SAN JOSE, Aug. 31.—Members of the local Business and Professional Women's club last night enjoyed an interesting outdoor picnic supper at Eight Oaks, on the Quito road, motoring there from this city for the occasion.

A recital of vacation experiences, many of them of a humorous vein, formed an entertaining part of the program, in which every member of the club took part. Exceptionally interesting were Miss Linda Pelton's talk on her recent trip to Honolulu and Dr. Helen Shelley's talk on her motor trip through the southern part of California. The picnic itself had been arranged for by the Misses Dierk, residents of the vicinity.

Dr. Tully C. Knowles is to be the speaker of the day at the meeting of the organization which has been planned for the night of September 11 in the local Y. W. C. A. Dr. Knowles is president of the College of Pacific here.

Contra Costa Farm Center Organized

BRENTWOOD, Aug. 31.—Last Saturday Mesdames Edna Turner and Berta Hammond attended the meeting of the organization of the poultry department of the Contra Costa Farm Bureau which has a a definite purpose the mutual aid, protection and education of its members on poultry culture. W. H. Bemiss and Dr. S. C. Patterson, of Concord and F. W. Kennedy, of Pittsburg, were placed on the by-laws committee. The officers of the organization compose the following:

David M. Berrell, Danville; J. W. Williamson, R. M. Foster and H. W. Miller, Walnut Creek; and Mrs. Edna Turner, secretary-treasurer and ex-officio of the by-laws committee.

The third Monday of each month has been set as the meeting night. Meetings will be held in the Contra Costa County Farm Building.

Mrs. George Fetters Dies at Santa Rosa

Miss Agnes Howe Defeated For School Superintendent By J. E. Hancock.

SAN JOSE, Aug. 31.—The three features of Tuesday's primaries in Santa Clara county were the election of Joseph E. Hancock to succeed the incumbent, Agnes E. Howe, as county superintendent of schools; defeat of Hiram Johnson in the county by a majority of 149 by Moore, and the granting of a heavy lead to Friend W. Richardson for governor. The voters returned Coroner Amos O. Williams to office over Chief of Police Chester Noble of Palo Alto, and re-elected John Roll and Henry Hecker to positions on the county board of supervisors.

The defeat of Agnes E. Howe by Hancock came as a blow to the supporters of the incumbent, who included David Starr Jordan and other professors of Stanford university. Hancock has been principal of the Grant grammar school here for twenty-three years, member of county board of education the State Council of Education. The final vote on the school head fight was Hancock, 13,038; Howe, 11,571. The new superintendent of schools will take office January 1. Miss Howe has no plans definitely mapped out for herself. Prior to her election four years ago she was principal of the training school of the local State Teachers' college.

Coroner Williams received 13,880 votes against Noble's 10,994. Noble made an aggressive fight, entering the San Jose district virtually unknown. His home town gave him a 900 vote lead over the incumbent.

From a 3500 majority over Herbert Hoover two years ago, Hiram Johnson dropped to the short end of a 10,001 to 9852 vote, Charles C. Moore being on the long end.

Friend Richardson received a majority of 3720 over Governor Stephens in the race for the Republican nomination for governor. The total county vote was Richardson, 11,794; Stephens, 8,065.

Young for lieutenant governor received 11,538 votes as compared to Rominger's 5,045.

For supreme court justice Lawlor received 10,058 votes and Wilbur 9,658, while in the race for associate justices the votes read: Kerrigan, 10,412; Seawell, 9,834; Sloane, 9,193; Shurtleff, 6,947. Millan ran high for state treasurer with 8,297. Johnson was second with 6,354 and Brinkop third with 1,617.

Mystery Surrounds Ring's Disappearance

SAN JOSE, Aug. 31.—As pretty a mystery as ever surrounded the disappearance of a valued gem today surrounds the strange disappearance from the home of Mrs. E. B. Haley, 454 North Fourth street, yesterday, of a $500 diamond ring.

Mrs. Haley and the police today are puzzling over the circumstances surrounding the loss or theft of the valuable diamond, set in platinum and highly valued for sentimental reasons on the part of the owner.

Mrs. Maley declares that yesterday afternoon she took her ring off and laid it carefully upon the dining room table, thereafter preparing to take an afternoon bath.

Boys in the neighborhood declare they saw a stranger enter the house and a moment later make a hurried exit. A thorough investigation is under way.

Sheriff Re-elected in Solano County

VALLEJO, Aug. 31.—Sheriff J. J. McDonald was re-elected at the polls on Tuesday by a vote of 5328 against 4083 received by M. T. Andrews also of Vallejo. Arthur Lindauer and B. W. Bobbins qualified for the coming election and will fight it out for the office of district attorney. W. F. Parker defeated A. N. Trainor for tax collector by a vote of 5022 to 4005. Dr. B. J. Klotz was re-elected over W. H. Bryan by a vote of 5262 to 3272 for the office of coroner.

PUBLIC INTEREST GROWTH IN LABOR PEACE FORESEEN

President Suzzallo of University of Washington Talks on Economic Situation.

SAN JOSE, Aug. 31.—Peace is not the immediate need of American industry, according to a statement today by Dr. Henry Suzzallo, president of the University of Washington and former resident and student of this city. The dominant need, he declared, is "a healthy condition in which production is maintained by capital and labor working co-operatively with a genuine economic knowledge of the needs and rights of each other."

"As it is today," Suzzallo declared, "there is little training in economics outside the colleges. So comparatively few are enabled to go to colleges that the American public can be said to be illiterate so far as appreciation of genuine economic values is concerned.

"Labor is ultimately paid what it produces. The maximum can never be for long above this producing capacity. That old axiom that labor is a commodity is one of those half-truths that are so numerous with us. Labor is a service just as capital is a service.

"There is too much reliance in coercion on both sides. Capital and labor are factors, but they cannot be permitted to be brutal factors. Not only is coercion valueless in settlements, but these matters can never be solved politically. Russia's example is the best proof of this fact.

"The average citizen believes he has a panacea for the correction of all industrial difficulties—some plan which would, if established, clear up the fogs immediately. We must have patience and realize that industrial settlements must come gradually. We must build up a body of successful methods of adjustment from all parts of this country as a body of common law on which to form public opinion and build a basis for the establishment of industrial courts.

"Generally speaking, such courts would not work at the present time. They have been successful in Kansas because in that state the groups concerned have been small in relation to a large, disinterested and non-partisan public and their decisions have heretofor been unbiased and in keeping with a large part of the public and therefore enforceable. In a large city, however, where the two groups concerned from the larger part of the population and are very fixed in their lines such courts would be impracticable now.

"During the past half dozen years there has been a remarkable growth of solidarity in public interest in the settlement of industrial disputes and a recognition of of public interest in the matter that was little and almost unheeded before. As this spirit grows the situation will rapidly reach a place where it can be successfully handled."

Positions Sought For Girl Students

Such was the appeal here today of Dr. W. W. Kemp, president of the college, in a statement in which he declared that San Jose must provide positions of some kind for these young women or cause the majority of them to forfeit their chances of education.

Dr. Kemp urged that all residents of the city who are able to employ young women part time during their attendance at the State Teachers' college signify their ability and willingness by communicating with his office at the earliest possible moment, and emphatically not later than Sept. 7. He declared the employment question to be "unusually acute."

Veterans' Picnic Attended By Many

SAN JOSE, Aug. 31—Alum Rock park, east of this city, is the scene today of the annual picnic and reunion of members of the Central California Veterans' association.

A large group of members was in attendance when festivities opened shortly before noon. An impromptu program of literary numbers, together with special musical features, was listed for the entertainment of the visitors, while the picnic dinner was of a dominating interest.

Colonel T. J. Sloane, president of the association, is presiding over the festivities, every kindred organization of the G. A. R. attending in a body. Spanish war veterans are also present.

Stockton Men Found Guilty of Murder

STOCKTON, Aug. 31.—Sam Tropea and John Tretta, accused of murdering Peter Secretto near Stockton on June 23, yesterday were found guilty of murder by a jury in the San Joaquin county superior court. The jury asked that Tropea be imprisoned for life, fixing his alleged offense as first degree murder. Trotta was found guilty of second degree murder, but the jury made no recommendation as to the term of imprisonment. Judge D. M. Young will pronounce sentences Saturday.

FALL INJURES CARPENTER

TURLOCK, August 31.—K. Derhagipian, carpenter, suffered injuries to the spine when he fell from a scaffolding about twenty feet above the roof of a building on which he was working.

WIFE WITHDRAWS ACTION AGAINST PHIL VALENTINE

Sympathy For Husband Held in San Jose Jail Halts Suit For Divorce.

SAN JOSE, Aug. 31. — Sympathy for her husband during the time of his incarceration in the local county jail while awaiting trial on a charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated, has caused Mrs. Joye Valentine of Oakland to withdraw from the courts of Alameda county the papers she recently filed against her husband, Phillip Valentine, seeking divorce, according to her admission to Sheriff George W. Lyle here today.

"Philip is in trouble," she said, 'and he needs me. My heart has gone out to him in his hour of need and I am going to stay resolutely by him. Sometimes it takes things just like this to pull two people together as they should be. I have instructed my attorney to check the divorce proceedings and devote his time to Philip's."

Valentine, piloting a high powered car, it is said, at a rate of 85 miles per hour, struck an automobile in which Miss Miram Donald, local school teacher, was riding, resulting in injuries which necessitated the amputation of the girl's leg.

Sheriff Defeated at Polls in Stanislaus

MODESTO, Aug. 31.—The race of W. J. Brown and R. R. Fowler for district attorney, in which Brown won by 96 votes and the result of the race for the sheriff's office provided surprises for Stanislaus county in Tuesday's primaries. R. L. Dallas, the sheriff, was defeated by Grat Hogin.

DANVILLE NOTES

DANVILLE, Aug. 31.—Mr. Maderos has received word from Manuel Rose that he had a fine trip across the Atlantic and had arrived at Fayla Agores.

Frank Rogello and sister, Mrs. Serpa, attended a show in Hayward Saturday evening—also a shower bath on way home, as it rained.

Homer Hunt of Alamo motored to Oakland bringing back with him Charles Olsen who is paper hanging for him this week in town. He also brought Mrs. Case's grandson, who started to school Monday.

SHERIFF BEGINS CLEAN-UP DRIVE OF EL CERRITO

Gamblers and Undesirables Being Arrested Under Vagrancy Act.

EL CERRITO, Aug. 31. — "El Cerrito is no longer to be the dumping ground for the scum of other cities," was the pronunciamento yesterday of Mayor Phil A. Lee, who, with the aid of the sheriff's office, is conducting a campaign to drive out gamblers and other undesirables in El Cerrito.

Yesterday Mayor Lee, Constable Conlon and Deputy Sheriffs J. W. Smiley and Al Browning notified the Chinese lottery proprietors to close up shop and get out of town, or they would be raided and jailed. About 300 hangers-on were found in the three gambling joints along San Pablo avenue. All of these were warned to get out or they would be arrested as vagrants.

Last Monday two Hawaiian musicians and two women who called themselves "entertainers" were arrested and sent to Martinez.

The drive to clean up El Cerrito came as a direct result of City Attorney Wilbur Pierce's threat to resign unless something was done to clean out the disreputables who for months have made El Cerrito their happy hunting ground.

Many People Apply As Missonaries

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—Privations suffered by missionaries to Afghanistan and the Amazon jungles apparently hold no terror for applicants, according to Paul Rader, evangelist and president of the Christian Missionary Alliance.

"Both fields are perilous spots," declares Mr. Rader. "Savages forbid Christians to enter for evangelistic work. The salary is very small, with no expenses, yet we have twenty applicants for every post. Young men alone can qualify as our missionaries."

SINGLE BOLT OF LIGHTNING DOES SEVERAL STUNTS

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 31.—Lightning played queer tricks during a storm in a Portland suburb yesterday. Residents said that no thunder accompanied the lightning and that there was but one bolt. It shivered a large tree to bits, stunned A. A. Loeb, his wife and two children in their home; knocked down John Anderson, who was shaving in his room nearby and picked up six lids from the cook stove in another residence, hurling them with great force against the kitchen ceiling.

James Strand, standing beside the tree which was blasted, became temporarily paralyzed and could not move his legs for several minutes.

EAST SIDE PROSPERITY CONTINUE

Spirit of Service Builds Up East Side Industry

The spirit of service is the foundation of the business built up by the Mulkey Mattress company, according to its proprietor and active manager, V. D. Mulkey. Mulkey holds that a business built upon the desire to render service must inevitably bring lasting recognition and support from those who require the character of service under consideration of goods manufactured on that principle.

A visit to the Mulkey factory with a survey of the manufacturing processes and the character of personnel of that institution indicates a practical application of Mulkey's theory in the work performed as well as in selection of those who are intrusted with that work.

The Mulkey Mattress company manufactures mattresses and pillows in its East Oakland factory. It also does considerable work in renovating and cleaning, for which work it has special machinery so that the two departments of the business will not in any way conflict with each other.

For mattress manufacture, the main materials used are kapok or silk floss, a product of the rando tree imported from Java, and for covering an eight ounce sateen ticking which is pleasant to the touch and so tight in texture as to hold the finest feathers. The same covering is used for pillows which are filled with duck and goose feathers making them very light and cool with an ideal combination of resiliency and softness.

In applying the ideal of service, Mulkey has installed in his factory a number of special machines designed to produce a quality of goods almost impossible to obtain without them. Far sewing covers an electric machine is used which makes 2600 stitches a minute covering a distance of about twenty-five feet. Each stitch is a strong lock stitch and mattresses and pillows thus sewed are proof against the most severe strains they encounter in use.

While the Mulkey service has built up a large market for goods of this brand among home-owners of Oakland and surrounding cities, a great many are also manufactured for the trade. Mulkey mattresses are ordered by many merchants who find they best satisfy demands of the most exacting customers. Mulkey quality has become so recognized that some merchants insist on the Mulkey brand as a guaranty of quality.

While mattress and pillow renovating is not the main business of the Mulkey plant, just as careful attention to the spirit of service is given here as in the main business of manufacturing. Hair mattresses are placed in a machine which thoroughly picks the hair without tearing it, then separates and fluffs it driving all dirt through an eight inch exhaust pipe into a bag which covers the pipe end outside of the building. Cotton mattresses and pillows are similarly treated.

For new cotton mattresses the Mulkey plant uses cotton linters as filler as this type of filling best conforms to the Mulkey ideal of service. Mattresses are made for beds of all sizes. Box mattresses are made with imperial and rolled edges. Boat cushions are also made of hair with Fabrikoid covers.

Mulkey moved his business from San Jose to Oakland two years ago and since that time it has developed fast. A delivery service is maintained to all points in Oakland and surrounding cities and many orders are shipped to remote points in Alameda county and throughout Central California, the territory covered increasing as Mulkey service becomes more and more recognized and appreciated.

FINE HOMES SURROUNDING HOPKINSTOWN

Among those who have purchased lots at Hopkinstown, a considerable number have already taken steps toward immediate erection of homes on their lots, showing that homeseekers are prominent in this movement of lot buying. The attitude expressed by many is that the neighborhood is already established by the fine character of homes surrounding Hopkinstown and that the convenience of this location warrants immediate building of homes.

It is thought by California Subdivision company officials that the rapid sale of Hopkinstown property will continue through the coming week and that this opportunity to secure valuable home-sites at bargain prices will be concluded soon.

Need Protection in Heavy Auto Traffic

Automobile traffic on east Fourteenth street has developed to proportions which are attracting attention of many public spirited citizens to the question of devising means to protect the lives of those desiring to embark on street cars. Many suggestions have been made and a number of local improvement clubs, and merchants' associations are considering the best manner in which to proceed. It is probable that the directors of the East Side Board of Trade will discuss this question at their next meeting, with a view to active steps looking toward a remedy.

Population Center Going East Fast

Brown, the grocer of Fruitvale, has studied statistics of population to the end that he is convinced that the exact center of Oakland population lies somewhere about halfway between Fruitvale and Lake Merritt. From this, Brown reasons, that as the population is fast growing to the east and the preponderance of home building in Oakland is in the outlying East Side districts, the center of city population will gradually move eastward until it reaches Fruitvale which in his opinion is the logical center of future Oakland activity.

ACTIVE BUYING OF LOTS REPORTED IN HOPKINSTOWN

Speedy Rise in Values Is Predicted in Tract East of Dimond.

Active buying of lots in Hopkinstown, to the East of Diamond, during the past three weeks, indicates that the attention of investors and home seekers is definitely turned toward East Oakland property, according to officials of California Subdivision company who have been giving special attention to property in that locality.

The subdivision of the Josiah Rose farm by the Muirooneys, who own what is left of this historic place, has offered an opportunity for the California Subdivision company to put before the local residents a chance to enlarge their holdings in their neighborhood at prices that are below anything offered during recent years. A number of the neighbors have been glad to obtain these lots for investment. In addition, the attention of people who want homes well located with respect to city car service has been drawn to the sightly lots in Hopkinstown, only twenty-two minutes from the business center of Oakland by the G or Hopkins street electric car, which runs through the center of Hopkinstown.

Lawrence Block, manager of sales for the Hopkinstown property, who is a man of extensive experience in the sale of East Oakland tracts, expresses the opinion that Hopkinstown property will soon see a distinct advance in price because of the fact that circumstances forced the sale of this property at very low prices, and its ideal location, together with rapid increase in values due to increased population and industry on the East Side, has caused actual value to increase at the very time when these low prices were made possible. As soon as the pressure of low price offerings is removed, Block states that the inevitable tendency will be for values to assert themselves, and the property recently purchased will sell readily at higher prices.

West Oakland Buys From Fruitvale

Charles H. Herrmann, Fruitvale hardware merchant and proprietor of the Reliance Hardware and Furniture company, has received recent orders for Spark ranges from West Oakland, indicating the fact that Fruitvale is becoming generally known as a buying center.

Remodeling the Calendar

August Winestopper ran a family liquor store in the day when there were family liquor stores. His establishment stood on a corner in a populous district of the Bronx. Mr. Winestopper's knowledge of English was somewhat circumscribed but, as events were to prove, his business sagacity was profound. He usually thought over a proposition a long time, but when finally he did make up his mind he made it up for keeps, and found words in which to express his decision so that there was no possible ground for misunderstanding on the part of anyone.

In the early part of the summer business, for some reason or other, fell off considerably. While Mr. Winestopper, somewhat depressed, was canvassing in his own mind the possible causes for this shrinkage in normal neighborhood consumption of wet goods other discomforting things began to occur in rapid succession. The agent for the owner of the premises he occupied waited upon him and told him that beginning the following month, the rent would be advanced $600 per anum. The two barkeepers notified him that the barkeepers' union had passed a rule calling for a considerable increase in the wage scale. He got summons for an alleged violation of the Sunday closing law and was confronted by the prospect that, if found guilty, he would pay a heavy fine. The brewery sent him word that the price of beer shortly would go up.

For some days Mr. Winestopper considered the situation in all of its various and disturbing phases. Then he took a piece of chalk and on the mirror behind the bar he wrote, where all might read, the following ultimatum:

"The first of July will be the last of August!"

Uncle Wiggily Stories

by Howard R. Garis

UNCLE WIGGILY AND LAPPIE'S DRESS.

Once upon a time there was a cat lady who was very poor. She had a little girl named Lappie, who was called that because she used her red tongue so prettily in lapping up the milk. One day another pussy girl, who was not so poor as Lappie, came over the fields to the poor cat lady's house.

"Good morning, Mrs. Mew," purred the not-so-poor-pussy girl. "Where is Lappie?"

"She has just gone to the store for me," answered Mrs. Mew, who was rather surprised to get a visit from this pussy girl, whose father had quite a lot of money, for he worked in a cheese factody. "But Lappie will soon be coming home, Fluffy." The name of the other pussy girl was Fluffy.

"Well, I'll not wait to see Lappie," mewed Fluffy, "but I called to ask her to come to a little party I am giving day after tomorrow. Mother said I might have a little party before school begins, and daddy told me to come and invite Lappie. I don't know her very well, but I hope to have lots of fun with her at the party and afterward."

"It is very kind of you," said Mrs. Mew, "and I'm sure Lappie will be delighted to attend the party. I'll tell her as soon as she comes home." Then Fluffy went back to her house across the field, and Mrs. Mew thought how kind it was of the rich cats to invite poor pussies to their party.

When Lappie came back from the store her mother told her about the invitation to the party, and she thought her little daughter would flip her tail for joy. But instead, Lappie gave a sad sigh and mewed:

"Oh, mother dear! it was lovely of Fluffy to ask me, but I can't go to her party!"

"Why not?" asked Mrs. Mew.

"What nonsense!" laughed Mrs. Mew. "There is your blue dress, the best one you have."

"Yes, it is the best one I have," sighed Lappie sadly, "but it is not nice enough to wear to a party. I have worn it so many times that it isn't at all new, and all the other animal girls would laugh at me if I came in that old blue dress.

"Don't look sad, mother," begged Lappie. "I know it isn't your fault that we are poor, and Oh, how I wish I had one! I don't mind wearing old dresses—only I do not want to go to a party with them."

"Oh, I'm so sorry!" softly said Mrs. Mew. "I did hope you could go to the party Fluffy is going to give. Well, I know what it is to want to look nice in a new dress, an dto be able to. I am sorry, Lappie. Perhaps something may happen so you may get a new dress for the party."

"Oh, if it only would," exclaimed Lappie.

And from then on all she thought of was getting a new dress.

But new dresses, even for pussy girls, do not grow on bushes, and Lappie's father was too poor to buy her one at the five-and-ten-cent store. So, though every time she walked through the woods or over the fields Lappie would say "Oh, I wish I had one! I wish I had one!" no new dress came.

She was saying this out loud the day the party was to be held when Uncle Wiggily happened to be hopping through the woods close to where Lappie was sitting under a tree. The bunny rabbit gentleman heard Lappie sighing.

"Oh, I wish I had a new one! How I wish I had one!"

"Dear me!" thought Uncle Wiggily. "I wonder what it is Lappie wants?" He knew the little pussy girl; so, going up to her, he asked: "What is it you are wishing for, Lappie? Is it a lollypop or an ice cream cone?"

"Neither one! It's a new dress so I may go to Fluffy's party," answered Lappie.

"Hum!" said Uncle Wiggily, with a twinkle of his pink nose. "A lollypop or an ice cream cone I could buy for you, but I know nothing about new dresses." Lappie, who had begun to be hopeful, looked sad again, but Uncle Wiggily went on: "However. Nurse Jane knows all about getting new dresses, so please come with me to her and we will see what she says."

Lappie's heart fluttered with happiness, and when Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy was told of the trouble the muskrat lady housekeeper said:

"Quick, Wiggily, my dear, gnaw me some strips of white birch bark from the tree. And when the bunny had done this Nurse Jane said: "And break me off some stalks of the red sumach." And when the bunny had done this Nurse Jane said: "Now bring me in some bluebell flowers from the meadow."

And when Nurse Jane had all these things she made a white dress of the shimmering birch bark, trimmed with red sumach and blue flowers, and put it on Lappie.

"Oh, you look just like Fourth of July!" laughed Uncle Wiggily in his jolly fashion "All red, white and blue!" And truly Lappie did And so she had her new dress for the party.

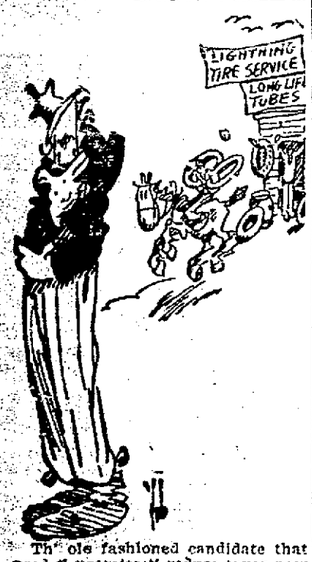

Right gaily she went to Fluffy's house, and of all the girl animals at the party none had a dress any prettier than Lappie's. Uncle Wiggily said so himself, and he ought to know, for he was at the party. And in the middle of it, when the boys and girls were playing spin the eggbeater, the Woozie Wolf poked his head in the door, howling:

"I want ears to nibble!"

But Uncle Wiggily quickly caught up the eggbeater and whirled it so fast and furiously on the wolf's nose that it made tears come into the eyes of the bad chap, and with a loud "Wow!" away he ran.

So everything ended happily, and if the poker doesn't push the coffee pot off the stove to let the tea kettle play tag with the fire shovel I shall have the pleasure of telling you about Uncle Wiggily and the four-leaf clover.

HAIR-WASHING WAYS TO WOO EVERY GLEAM OF REAL BEAUTY.

LUCREZIA BORI

How often shall I wash my hair? This question is asked by many women who realize the paramount importance of cleanliness in considering the beauty of their hair.

No real beauty can exist without cleanliness. This is the inevitable answer regarding the hair as well as any part of your body.

Knowing this, it is more or less up to you to decide whether you will wash your hair every two weeks or every three weeks. You know to what treatment it responds most readily by that glossy beauty which all women want and admire.

But above all, cleanliness is the first requirement in the proper care of your hair. Wash it as often as necessary. If you are in the country, where you get plenty of sunshine and fresh air, your hair may not need soap and water as often as it will if you are living in town and are subject to the dust and dirt which are part of town life.

Knowing how to wash your hair to get it really clean is as much a part of your struggle for beautiful locks as is knowing when to wash it.

You should choose a good, pure soap, and when you have rubbed it in thoroughly, so that your scalp as well as your hair is cleansed, you should rinse your hair until every particle of soap is removed.

A very efficient method of applying the soap is by using a sponge. Dampen your hair first, then soap your sponge thoroughly and rub it into your scalp. Draw your hair aside so that every portion of your scalp is covered with soap.

Now, use your fingers to work the soap in and to wiggle your scalp back and forth so that it benefits from the massage as well as from the soap and water. It will give you great satisfaction to see the good, warm suds absorb the dirt which was in your scalp.

When you are sure that it is clean, rinse your hair through several waters, removing every atom of soapsuds. Spare yourself no pains in this, for if any soap remains it will make your hair dull, and bits of dried soap particles will sift out later and make you very uncomfortable. This rinsing need not be laborious, however, for it is better to do it quickly and briskly than to make it a long and painful process.

The rinsing over, squeeze your hair through your hands once to remove as much water as you can, wrap a towel about your head and go to some sunny window or to the back yard—if you have one, and the weather is warm and sunny. Your hair will respond to sunshine more quickly than to any other beautifying agent.

Be careful, if you dry it out-of-doors, not to stand where the wind is too strong or where you are in a draft. This might give you unpleasant consequences in the form of a cold or an earache.

Continue massaging your scalp and running your fingers through your hair out to the ends while it is drying. It is well to begin combing your hair gently before it is quite dry, for in this way you can make it suit the contour of your face. If your hair is curly you can arrange waves with your comb and coax them along while they are drying, so it is easy to arrange your hair as you wish.

Another item of beauty importance—never forget to wash your comb and brush before every shampoo. Your brush should be washed even oftener if it needs it, for a dusty brush will dull the lovely gloss of your hair.

Argentine Journeys

Where the President of a Republic Has Dozens of Godsons.

The custom of naming a child in honor of a great man or a man conspicuous for some deed which catches the fancy of the moment, is as old as time itself. Indeed, we have only to turn back the pages of history far enough to realize that hundreds of years before the birth of Christ men and women named their children for important personages, perhaps hoping—just as parents do now—that the important man would send a gift to his namesake or "look out for him" when he grew to man's estate.

Also from time immemorial large families have been considered the best gift a citizen and his wife could make to the nation. In our own time may be remembered the congratulations Theodore Roosevelt, when president, used to send to the parents of the largest families in this country when a new baby came to make the family even larger.

But it was reserved for the republic of Argentine to hit upon a way of giving distinction to the large families of that nation. When a seventh son is born to any one of the families in that nation's close upon one million twelve hundred thousand square miles, the president of Argentina takes special notice of the event.

Considering it of great importance to the welfare of Argentine that there are seven sons in one family to take care of its land and work it and to defend the country in time of war, the president of Argentine stands as godfather to the child.

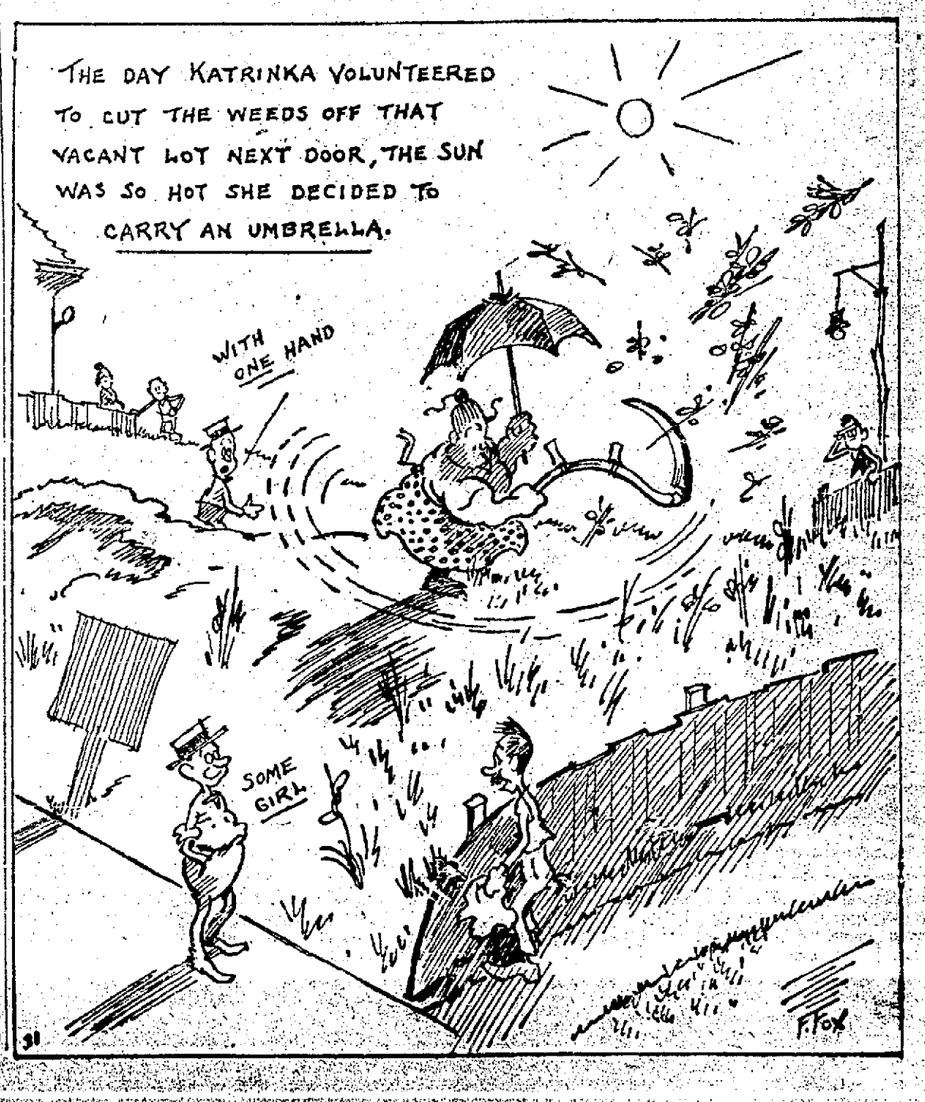

No matter how humble or how poor may be the parents of the seventh son, the president of the republic, according to custom, takes upon himself the duties of godfather to the boy. There are, of course, certain privileges which are granted the boy because his godfather is the president of the republic. Not the least of these is the privilege of calling upon his godfather—in the arms of his proud mother or father—and cooing at him.

Sometimes, of course, the emoluments of the office of godson to the president are far more substantial. But none brings greater pleasure to the baby's parents than this official call.

THE ELECTION RESULTS.

Tuesday's slowly tabulated election furnished many surprises Latest returns indicate Senator Johnson's majority is at least 50,000. While this is smaller than some may have expected it is nevertheless a substantial and determining majority. Senator Johnson may return to his seat in the Upper House with the feeling he has received the emphatic endorsement of the people of his own state and will be in better position to continue to render service to California.

The gubernatorial fight presented the greatest surprise of any contest which has taken place in California in many years. Anyone given to wagering on the results could have obtained odds probably as high as ten to one that Stephens would be re-elected and yet there was practically no betting. The Richardson people claimed the victory but not with sufficient certainty to take advantage of the tempting odds

Governor Stephens was over confident of the result while, on the other hand, Senator Johnson scented the danger from Washington came to California, and by his aggressive leadership rallied his friends to his support. Had he followed the policy of Senator McCumber and remained in Washington the result might have been different.

A careful analysis of the many elements entering into the contest explains some of the strength of the successful candidate In the first place Richardson, in a statement, guaranteed to save the state $115,000,000 in his first term of office if elected. In these days of high taxes such a promise is alluring.

A governor, in discharge of his duties, necessarily makes enemies. No small number of these are made by the distribution of patronage, and these were arrayed against Stephens All of the opponents of the King Tax Bill which created no end of feeling at the last legislative session, stood solidly behind Richardson and, naturally, this carried with it very substantial support It must also be remembered Richardson as president of the California Press Association had the active support of a majority of the country press and in Southern California his fight was led by the Los Angeles Times.

By failing to pardon Thomas Mooney Governor Stephens won the hostility of a rather large element in organized labor, and all over the state the word was passed to vote against the governor on this issue.

Hundreds of thousands of circulars were sent out by the Southern California Automobile Association seeking votes against Governor Stephens on the grounds that the state highways had broken down and that the repair bills made necessary represent a large sum which, otherwise, could have been used for the building of new highways. Another factor, fully as important as any mentioned above, was the issue between wets and drys In previous campaigns Stephens has received almost the solid support of the drys and, during his term, has stood loyally by that cause. Richardson, too, has always been a dry. In this campaign the Anti-Saloon League adopted a policy of "hands off," with the result that Stephens, having in his official capacity stood by the drys, met the opposition of the wets who, unquestionably voted for Richardson. In November, no doubt, this issue will enter into the contest.

In addition to this, in Alameda county and other sections, spurious "white tickets" were circulated on which appeared the names of Moore and Richardson. It is claimed in some quarters these circulars represented a certain powerful secret organization. Whether this organization backed Moore and Richardson with their consent will no doubt develop later.

It may be seen, therefore, when the situation is fully analyzed, the result was not so surprising as it may have appeared when the first returns were received. At the November election the contest will be between Richardson and Woolwine, the Democratic candidate, who no doubt will make his chief issue opposition to the Ku Klux Klan and against the bone dry state.

[illegible]ET EXAMPLE.

[illegible] can find time in the [illegible]s to devote a large [illegible]work, it is proving the wisdom and foresight of its directing force. The laundrymen of the nation, through their association, are spending a half million dollars on a building in which experiments are to be made to "standardize throughout the country those methods, practices and materials which are demonstrated to be soundest and best."

The point which has caused comment in this, is not the fact the laundry industry is awake to its own interests. To be sure the expenditure of this sum will benefit the business but it will also protect the public from practices which are unsound and unacceptable.

Here is a business which is designed to remove a load from shoulders of the women of the country, one which has to do with cleanliness and health, expending more than a half million of dollars for the plant in which it will study how to improve its service.

NEW HONOR FOR BAY REGION.

The San Francisco Bay region is designated by the National Geographic Society for new honors, for here there are fewer thunder-storms than any place in the United States. Tampa, Florida, with an average of ninety thunderstorms a year heads the list in number of storms and this area on the Pacific coast, around San Francisco Bay, enjoys the greatest immunity with an average of one such storm a year.

The humid regions of the tropics are the real home of the lightning Since the beginning of time the region around the Mediterranean has seen and heard the bolts of Zeus and Europe's literature is filled with references to thunder and lightning, donner and blitzen. It may not be generally known that the Eskimo never heard thunder and would regard it with the same awe with which a savage of the Tropics might look upon a piece of ice.

For ages man has speculated concerning the rumbling of the skies and tongues of fire which are thrust from the black to lick the earth. Scandinavians said Thor was hammering in the heavens and the Hindus heard in the sound the clatter of horses' hoofs on the hard pavement of the sky. It was not so long ago men said thunder was caused by the bumping together of clouds and lightning was the sparks which flew out of the contact. Then science said it was the discharge of "normal atmospheric electricity" which exists in the air, becomes concentrated in clouds, and finally reaches such a high potential that it breaks a path to a neighboring cloud of opposite potential or to the earth. This seemed to satisfy and this is what most people believe today.

Recent laboratory experiments upset this common view. To the mysterious ion is given blame for the flash and roar of the storm. According to this theory air, rising rapidly through falling rain, breaks the drops into small particles, a process which sets free an excess of negative ions. These are carried aloft with the finest spray while the positive ions are left below. Eventually the accumulated negative charge in the upper portion of the clouds breaks its way to the positively charged lower cloud or the tension of positive electricity of the lower clouds breaks a path to the earth

Whether it be ions, discharge of atmospheric electricity, Thor's hammer or the clattering hoofs, the fact remains no less an authority than the National Geographic Society has told the world through its bulletins that the San Francisco Bay region is that section in the United States which is most free of these terrifying storms. To many persons this will be not the least of our attractions.

GREED AT OBERAMMERGAU.

Travelers are returning from Oberammergau with a story which robs the Passion Play of its unique and endearing distinction. The village which for years had dedicated its citizens and its efforts to the production of a religious pageant has felt the love of gold. It is greedy, say these travelers, and is profiteering.

If ever there was a place where avarice had no proper role to play, it is at Oberammergau. The world has been trained to think of this small community as one of devoted and simple souls, men and women who accept as a high responsibility the opportunity to live and perform the story of the Bible. One reads of the nobility and sweetness of Anton Lang and of refusal by the Passion players to allow their pageant to become commercialized by motion pictures.

In Europe currency has depreciated to the lowest level To the foreigners the merchants and hucksters look for wealth. It is known over there a man may come from America and for a few of his dollars be given great quantities of the native coin. Is it unnatural that prices, for these rich visitors, should be boosted?

American tourists have come to expect that merchants and landlords of Europe will profiteer to the limits of daring. Many who have visited Paris recently have cut their stays short with discovery that they were being robbed. It was not expected, though, greed would move into Oberammergau. If it is not dispelled the Passion Play, built by years of devoted work and hallowed by tradition, will cease to interest the world.

After waiting thirty-five years for a man to whom she was engaged to set the date for the wedding an Illinois woman read of his marriage to another. Are there not some old lines about everything coming to her who waits, and patience has its reward?

DOG DAYS

What does it matter—the presses must grind,
The news must be set in type?
An indolent zephyr steals from behind
To play with the smoke of a pipe
Hills to the east stretch out in the sun
And snooze 'til the stars appear,
The drowsy drum of the city's streets
Falls faint on a heedless ear.

We'd sing a bit, if we had the time,
We'd pipe us a peaceful lay,
Were it not for the effort to find the rhyme
We'd sing to the lazy day.

Who does not feel the warm fall spell
Which hangs in the smoke-blue air?
Who does not dream when he knows full well
There is work for his hands to share?
In distant places curlews sing
And rivers are humming gay
What does it matter—anything?
There's peace on a lazy day!

We'll sing a bit—the job is here
And it's one which must be done,
A lazy day and a lazy lay
And at last the song is sung.

This is the first time we have ever come to the defense of the nobility—or a Pekinese pup Truth is, we cannot reconcile this new spirit of furthering Northern California's interests with the manner Count Helie de Something is being treated The old hospitality for which the state has been known is being sadly strained

If Count Helie and his countess and his pup, in their travels around the world, decide they wish to see the San Francisco Bay region, why is not that a compliment to the attractions of the place So long as they behave they should be given the same courtesies which are extended the convention delegate or other visitor Helie, perhaps, cannot help it because he is a count. The Pekinese cannot change his puphood If we are going to exclaim, declaim and deride every time a titled visitor responds to our publicity literature and visits us we are going to kill the egg which brings the golden geese

ALL THE NEWS

(From Yreka News)

Charlie Yates went to Yreka last Tuesday to have a tooth pulled His jaw was dislocated in extracting the lower molar on the right side of the lower jaw.

"The thing most needed in politics," said Parfinkle on the day after election, "is better clerks in the polling places"

'Take this primary, for instance I made it a point to visit most of the precincts to see how the count was coming and I may say, I never saw such incompetence.

'In one Berkeley tent there was a large woman who held all the ballots under her arm as one might carry in the wash. With the grip of her elbow she held them, a wudgy heap, folded and straight. one side out or another It was her job to reach into the heap, pull one out and read the count"

"Here's a vote for Slim Perkuss," she would say, "who do you suppose wrote that gink's name in What should be done is eddicate a few of these here voters." Then everybody would laugh An elderly party with his feet on the table checked off everything with a nod of his head. He checked the giggles of the fat woman, the count of votes, and the toots of a nearby police siren.

Another thing, in seven or eight booths I visited the clerks listed all of the Non-Partisan offices under each party. Thus a vote for a judge on a ballot which carried also the Republican candidates was listed in one place and another vote for the same man on a Democratic ticket, listed again. In the back of the tally book was one printed list of these non partisan candidates and the instructions were plain, yet judges and clerks grumbled because they had to write in the names in three places.

We had never seen Parfinkle so angry As a rule he is able to smoke a cigar for an hour or more. The ashes on this one moved toward his mouth in record time.

"How come," we asked, "you were not a clerk of election?"

"How come?" he repeated, "I was not appointed That's how come If I had been named things would have been different. It is time something were done."

NOTES and COMMENT

From the veracious Los Angeles Times "Sailors report sighting a mermaid two miles off Redondo It rode the waves within a few feet of their vessel and looked upon them with sad and sunken eyes This mermaid was different from the [illegible] a child at its bosom It resembled a well-developed human babe of three months old In this respect the Redondo mermaid is far in advance of any Ocean Park or Venice mermaid ever seen No Venice mermaid would think of wheeling a baby cab They spend all their time brushing their hair."

New York Herald: "Union Hill, New Jersey, has decreed that soap box oratory within its corporate limits must cease at 10 p m. This action is likely to be questioned by some constitutional student as an invasion of the rights of free speech, but as the lid is to be put on at the demand of mothers whose babies have been kept awake nights the constitutional question will not cut much of a figure in the dispute. Babyhood recognizes no constitutional obligations will not count"

Stockton Record. "Italy is making warlike gestures at Austria; France wants to march into Germany and help herself; Valera is raising an army to march on Ireland No wonder the East Indians believe that 'Christianity, cannon balls, submarines and gas masks go together,' as a returned missionary is quoted as saying. After the holocaust which swept the world recently, one would think its nearest neighbors would be less quick on the trigger with renewed war talk"

The Oregonian on the primary: "Out of the confusion of thought produced by the direct primaries, with their blurring of party distinctions and clouding of party principles by giving every crank and demagogue opportunity to exploit his particular ism, stand out certain facts Indiana, Pennsylvania and Minnesota have declared for Progressive Republicans who have been sobered by experience since 1912 and who proclaim their loyalty to the party chief Maine upholds the traditional New England Republicanism which was never known to bolt. Ohio now declares for the sterling Republicanism which has always spelt progress"

Kansas City Star: "Apparently New Jersey is fighting the Newberry battle over in its senatorial campaign, and Secretary Hughes is out with a blast on the subject For heaven's sake! Aren't there bigger issues before the country today, liver issues, than whether the Newberry committee spent more money than it should in advertising and organizing? Just how much money the Newberry people were justified in spending to offset the money that had been spent by Henry Ford in making himself known, would be difficult to say. The Michigan voters, in full possession of the facts, decided that Mr. Newberry was the man to represent them in the Senate."

Chicago News: "If there is such a thing as ostentatious self-effacement we should say it was to be found in the eleemosynary descents upon needy churches so much in vogue just now with the Ku Klux Klan. The klan does not exactly hide its light under a bushel, and yet it certainly does conceal its talent under a napkin, or, if you insist upon it, a sheet. There is nothing secret about these benefactions, but they are not exactly open, either. Klandestine, perhaps, is the word for such errands of mercy"

SPIRIT of the STATE PRESS

Dr. A. C Matthews, superintendent of the State Hospital at Imola, will leave in September for a tour of the east, going primarily to inspect methods of operation of similar institutions in large cities Chicago, Cleveland, Toledo and Boston will be visited, while a trip will be made to manufacturing centers to determine upon equipment for the industrial department soon.—Vallejo Chronicle.

The I. W. W prisoners in San Quentin have yielded to disciplinary measures and now say they are willing to work and obey the rules of the prison. Their refusal to labor was based on their idea that they are not criminals, and that they should not be treated as such The I. W. W. are the worst criminals in San Quentin.—Sacramento Bee.

Long Beach has four women of the same name, Viola Brown, and the way their mails gets mixed up and probably their bills makes it necessary for them to call a conference from time to time to disentagle and redistribute their correspondence. Good Bill Shakespeare would have enjoyed writing a comedy around that.—Stockton Record.

The much heralded Duke Perigord has at last arrived in San Francisco with his "ten thousand dollar" Pekinese dog "Tanky." From some of the stories that have been taking up columns regarding the duke and his canine, one would judge that some sort of "Tanky" wrote them.—Hanford Sentinel.

On the island of Yap the women are said to do all the work. That good old system prevailed here among the Indians until the pioneers came in an distroduced decadent customs.—Watsonville Pajaronian.

If every reckless speeder were sent to jail and were kept there for at least thirty days, there would be a very noteworthy decrease in the number of cases of speeding.—Long Beach Press.

The world may progress a little now and then. And the world may slip back a notch or two now and then. But mark this well: The world never will be perfect so long as people think they can change human nature by passing a law about it.—San Diego Union.

Now that the primary campaign is over, Sacramento can give all of its attention to the State Fair. Preparations thus far indicate that it will be one of the most successful ever held.—Sacramento Bee.

Mr. Bryan probably finds it difficult to understand why Mr. Ford, when asked if he would accept the presidency, doesn't come right out and say, "Yes," in a loud, firm voice.—San Jose Mercury-Herald.

JUST FOLKS

By EDGAR A. GUEST

THE OLD-FASHIONED FATHER

They tell me I'm old-fashioned,
And I fancy that I am,
But when meals are four-hour rationed
And the baby wants to cram
Just a little in between 'em,
And declares it with a cry
Then I want to contravene 'em,
"Let her eat her fill," say I.

Oh, I know the rules of science,
And its edicts just and terse,
And I bow in meek compliance
To the doctor and the nurse.
It is wise, there's no denying,
To be thoughtful in her care;
But when hunger starts her crying
I would feed her, then and there.

Now they tell me that a baby
Cries to get her exercise,
And I must admit that maybe
Infant science very wise,
But when she is exercising
For a full straight hour or more,
And her yells are louder rising,
Then it's time to walk the floor

Oh, they tell me I must never
Swing her gently to and fro,
Or I'll be her slave forever
And she'll keep me on the go,
Now they seldom let me hold her,
For they're fearful as can be
That I'll ride her on my shoulder
Or will bounce her on my knee

I'm an old floor-walking father,
And a bouncing dad am I,
I'm old-fashioned, and I'd rather
Take her up than let her cry.
And I feel an urge compelling
Though they tell me it's unwise,
To do something when she's yelling
And to feed her when she cries

About YOUR HEALTH

What to Do If a Shock Causes "Angina Pectoris"

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D.
Commissioner of Health, New York City.

When I was in my first month of medical practice I was called in the middle of the night to attend a sick fellow-doctor. He was a bachelor, and lived in his office on the upper floor of an office building. The elevator was not running, and my footsteps on the seemingly endless stairs made a dreadful clatter in the dark and ghostly building.

I felt my way to the sixth floor, and finally found the gloomy abiding place of my patient. In a disturbed state of mind I entered the room.

The patient was on the floor of his office, writhing and groaning in agony. To my inexperienced eyes the man seemed to be dying.

I pictured to myself the death of the doctor and the discovery of his body. I could imagine the glee of the police as they fixed blame for a mysterious murder on the head of a young doctor, a comparative stranger in the town, and undoubtedly jealous of the dead man, a rival practitioner.

Certainly the stage was set for a terrible tragedy.

It was a case of "angina pectoris," or "breast-pang," as it is called sometimes.

This is a disease of the heart and of the blood-vessels of the heart and its immediate neighborhood. Paroxysms of pain and a feeling of constriction are the symptoms. It feels as if the heart were being squeezed in a vice. The pain extends to the left arm and shoulder.

The spasms are periodical, and are brought on by mental excitement, too great muscular effort, dyspepsia, over-eating, exposure to cold and any sudden shock. Excessive use of coffee or tobacco or over-indulgence in liquor may precipitate an attack

Angina pectoris follows various acute infections, like rheumatic fever, influenza, scarlet fever, diphtheria, typhoid and other similar diseases Disease of the blood is a common cause.

Death sometimes occurs during the attack By the way, my patient didn't die that time, but I heard years later that he passed away during a similar experience

There is a drug called nitrite of amyl which is put up in glass capsules One of these capsules broken in a handkerchief and breathed by the patient will usually relieve the immediate symptoms.

Needless to say, the doctor is needed during the attacks and between them The underlying condition must be corrected

ON EARLY PHONE.

To the Editor of The Tribune:

I inclose clipping from yesterday's TRIBUNE that greatly interested me as I was present at the store of Turner & Byrne in Musingee, when the phone at that terminus was installed. My first talk over a phone was at that time, and I use talk advisedly, as I was too excited over the event to know what the other end was saying.

Among others present at that time was F. M Lyon, whose brother is the Mr. Lyon of Chancellor & Lyon, who have a business in your city.

A few days after the phone was installed Mr Turner conceived the idea of getting a full-blood Indian on the line One was found who could not speak English and his brother at Tahlequah was brought to the office there I can still remember the queer look that came over the stolid face as he heard and recognized his brother's voice; how he took the receiver from his ear and looked around the room to see if he was being tricked before he finished the conversation.

After the talk Mr. Turner, who could speak Cherokee, asked him what he thought of it, and he replied: "I'm not surprised at the thing talking English, but how did it learn Cherokee so quick"

Incidentally, a couple of years before this, when the first telegraph line was being built from Parsons, Kan., to Denison, Tex., the whole affair was way beyond the comprehension of the natives, but to see a man walk up a pole was so wonderful to them they walked from pole to mile for miles to see the linemen go up. This was something they could understand.

R M. ROBERTS.

HER GARDEN.

(A little tribute of love and appreciation for my friend and neighbor Mrs J P Turner, whose short time among us brought a wealth of sunshine)

Pause, neighbor,
To view the beauties she has wrought
In just ten months among us.
Her earnest, loving labor
Has left a glorious sight
Of stately dahlias—red, yellow, pink and white;
With here and there the flaming orientals—
Her favorite type, and mine.
Note the sweet-peas! towering back-ground
Of an exhilarating bower
Of such hollyhocks and sun flowers
Didst ever see the like?
Rare roses! begonias! gladiolus!
They came upon her tulips and white lilies.
Come! help me name the others, so numerous and sweet,
Or help describe the feeling
That swells within us
As we pause on moonlit street
To breathe the fragrance
Of her labors,
For her neighbors—
You and me!

NAVY SECRETARY TO REMAIN FOUR DAYS ON COAST

Secretary of the Navy Edwin Denby will remain in the bay district about four days, arriving here tomorrow noon and leaving for the east by Monday night or Tuesday morning, according to a radiogram received from the transport Henderson from Honolulu, on which he is a passenger.

The message from Secretary Denby advising of his short stay in the bay section cause abandonment of the plans for a review of the Pacific fleet in the bay, word having been received that the fleet, now maneuvering at Port Angeles, would not arrive in San Francisco bay until September 5.

While no definite plans for the entertainment of Secretary Denby have been made, representatives of 139 civic organizations have extended to Secretary Denby by radio a request for at least fifteen minutes of his time. It is known that an effort will be made to have Secretary Denby insure the presence of the Pacific fleet in these waters for greater periods than has been the custom in the past.

Study of Concrete Construction Begun

Engineers and other technical men are interested in courses given by the extension division of the University of California in reinforced concrete construction. The classes are conducted by Harry W. Bolin, of the office of H. J. Brunnier, prominent San Francisco engineer. An advanced class is now being organized which will take up the actual design of beams, columns, retaining walls and other simple reinforced concrete structures. Members of the class will work out all of the necessary formulas for the design of these members and will then make the preliminary drawings. The class meets in room 237, Pacific building, San Francisco, on Mondays and Fridays.

An elementary class is scheduled to begin September 8, in the same place, at 8 p. m. Instruction in this class will include lectures, and discussion of the application of mechanics to concrete structures. Formulas will be derived which are constantly made use of by the architect and structural engineer whenever concrete is employed as a material of construction.

Enrollments for both elementary and advanced reinforced concrete courses are now being received at the office of University Extension, 140 Kearny street, San Francisco.

Delegates' Return Marked by Smoker

ALAMEDA, Aug. 31.—Derby Lodge, Sons of S. George, will welcome the return of its delegates to the state convention home this evening. The welcome will take the form of a big smoker and entertainment. An interesting vaudeville program has been prepared for the occasion. This will be followed by refreshments. The affair which will be the largest smoker that Derby Lodge has ever held, will take place in Odd Fellows hall, Santa Clara avenue and Park street.

The delegates to the convention included T. C. West, grand president; W. F. Rieland, L. Cook, A. W. Cook, Harry Russell, A. C. Evans and W. H. Ives.

Bail Forfeited By Accused Autoists

BERKELEY, Aug. 31.—One hundred persons arrested for various minor offenses against state motor vehicle laws forfeited $2 bail each today when their cases were called before Judge Robert Edgar.

Arrests were made by State Traffic Officer Lester Manning and were principally for faulty headlights. This was the largest number of cases ever called by Judge Edgar on one day in the Berkeley justice court.

BACCUS AND EDWARDS TO BE SWITCHED

Commissioners of Revenue and Streets Will Be Transferred According to Council Vote; Tilt With Mayor

William J. Baccus, commissioner of revenue and finance and ex-officio member of the board of education, will be transferred to the street department, and Commissioner W. H. Edwards will be transferred to the finance department in eight days. The preliminary ordinance making the change was passed to print by the city council today.

Baccus was sent to the finance and school department several months ago by the administration, when affairs in the board of education were held to be so turbulent that administration action was necessary. At that time Mayor Davie and the other administration heads promised Baccus that he would return to the street department when matters in the school department were "straightened out." Edwards had little to do with it, he being the lone minority member of the city council.

EDWARDS PROTESTS

Edwards today commented as follows when the vote for the transfer was taken:

"I wish to voice my protest over the mayor making a political plaything of the school department. Two days ago the people voted against allowing the mayor to take charge of the schools, and I protest against the present procedure."

Mayor Davie did not retort until after council adjourned, and then a verbal tilt between the mayor and Edwards started.

"For your information," said the mayor, "I had nothing to do with those school amendments. I kept hands off."

"But you issued a public statement in favor of all the amendments," charged Edwards.

"Oh, well," said the mayor, "We're putting you back in the school department. If you can't behave yourself we'll transfer you again."

"You have demonstrated that you do not care for the people," said Edwards. "For instance, you've bought $280,000 worth of public property without asking the people about it."

"Then you don't believe in museums?" asked the mayor.

"I believe in museums but not in you," said Edwards.

DISCUSSION PROLONGED.

The discussion continued at intervals till nearly noon, when bids for street work were received.

At the start of the council session the bid of John R. Maxwell was the only one submitted for the privilege of constructing and operating a traction line to the Maxwell Park tract, to connect with the traction company lines in East Oakland. Maxwell's bid offered the city 55 per cent of the net annual revenue. There being no other bidders, he was granted the franchise.

The improvement of One Hundred and First avenue from East Fourteenth to Sunnyside was ordered by the council.

EDITOR REBUKES U. C. PROFESSORS FOR INSULARITY

BERKELEY, Aug. 31.—Professors who crawl into an "academic shell" and refuse to become acquainted with student customs and traditions come in for arraignment today at the hands of Robert B. Coons, editor of the "Daily Californian."

"We met an instructor on the campus the other day who did not know the significance of such traditions as the senior sombrero, or 'cords' or the senior bench," says Coons. "And what is more, he did not care to know! California traditions or the meaning of certain customs. We ostracise such an attitude. Imagine the faculty composed entirely of such men. We should as soon have the lecturers behind a wall with an incision made, through which he could talk, or better yet, lectures could be made in record form and run off on phonographs."

Coons challenges the faculty members on the campus to make known their attitude on college traditions and customs.

BIBLE STUDY BEGUN.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 31.—A course of Bible study was started at the First Presbyterian church, Chestnut street and Santa Clara avenue, this morning. J. Overholtzer is in charge of the class. Anyone interested is invited to attend. The classes are interdenominational.

Students Without Sorority Will Have Society of Their Own.

BERKELEY, Aug. 31.—The girl without a sorority on the University of California campus will have a society of her own in the future.

The first move toward organizing girls who live in boarding houses as a means of affording them personal conduct with each other and a closer association with campus affairs has been made with the naming of Miss Mary Anne Eames as chairman of a special committee to consider the problem of the non-organization student.

Boarding houses will be placed on a plane similar to sororities with the scholarship of each group of students published on the campus as is that of Greek Letter Societies. Assisting Miss Eames on her committee are: Penelope Boden, Janet Brown, Marie Carlin, Dorothy Cooper, Mae French, Lucy Gambetta, Pauline Hughes, Helen Maher Catherine McEneary Mercy Meyer, Helen Rogers, Rita Benedict, Elizabeth Reed, Helen Beach, Elizabeth Geen, Marcella Murdock, Dorothy Weed, and Bess Wilkins.

BALL BREAKS WINDSHIELD; HURTS ACTRESS

BERKELEY, Aug. 31. — Rose Brown, well known college actress, will be forced to take a vacation from campus theatricals as the result of an accident yesterday in which she received cuts about the face which caused her treatment at the university infirmary.

Miss Brown was driving her automobile along Bancroft Way below College avenue in front of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity house, when a baseball hit her windshield, shattering the glass and small pieces flying into her face. According to an investigation made by the police, Walton Hildebrand, member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity, admitted throwing the ball which accidentally hit Miss Brown.

Miss Brown, who is prominent in the Mask and Dagger Little Theater, and University Players' Club, resides at 647 Baker street, San Francisco.

Alameda C. of C. to Discuss Highway

ALAMEDA, Aug. 31.—The directors of the Alameda Chamber of Commerce are to meet this evening in a restaurant to discuss the construction of the highway across Bay Farm Island to San Leandro. The Alameda City Council will be present and the county board of supervisors has also been asked to attend.

This highway is one of the objectives which the chamber has set for securing. It will connect Alameda directly with San Leandro and the Southbay district and will furnish a shorter outlet from Oakland south.

Great Britain Withdraws Powers of Americans On Charge of Coercing English Subjects on Passport Vise

BY UNITED PRESS,
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—American Consul Slater and Vice-Consul Brooks at Newcastle, England, have been ordered transferred from their post as a result of the British government's action in refusing to grant them official recognition. It was learned at the state department today.

Formal notification of the action of the British government already has been made through official channels to the state department and the British embassy here. It is understood several communications already have been exchanged on the subject.

The state department is preparing an official statement on the action.

BY UNITED PRESS,
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

LONDON, Aug. 31. — Great Britain has withdrawn official recognition of American Consul Slater and Vice-Consul Russell Brooks, stationed at Newcastle, for attempting to coerce British subjects who applied for vise of passports to sail to the United States into traveling on American vessels, it was reliably reported here today.

NEWCASTLE, England, Aug. 31.—The United States consulate here was closed today and a notice was posted announcing that the British government had withdrawn consular powers from it.

BETTERMENT IN STREET IS ASKED

At a meeting of citizens of the Courtland avenue district last night, held at Jefferson school, a resolution urging the street car company to make several improvements in the district was adopted. At the same meeting the Steinway Terrace Improvement Club was organized, with 180 charter members. The resolution follows:

"Whereas, Courtland avenue, between Foothill boulevard and High streetfi is in a very unsightly condition and can not be used as a public thoroughfare, due to the lack of street improvement and the street car track conditions, be it

"Resolved, that it is the sense of the Steinway Terrace Improvement Club that steps should at once be taken to cause the removal of the third track of the street car company in this street, track connections for the Leona Heights "K" car being made at Foothill boulevard and High street so that this car may operate over the track now used by the East Sixteenth street car, No. 7, and the street improvement work on Courtland avenue be put in promptly to clear up the present conditions, and be it

"Further Resolved, that a committee be appointed to carry the intent of this resolution into effect."

Another resolution was adopted by the body, urging the improvement of the street car service on East Sixteenth street. A committee was appointed to investigate.

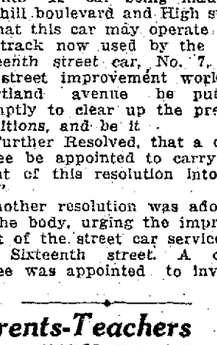

Parents-Teachers Will Give Party

ALAMEDA, Aug. 31.—The High School Parent-Teacher Association will give a theater party Wednesday evening, September 6, at the Oakland Auditorium. The committee which will have charge of the affair consists of Mrs. Sidney Haslett, chairman; Mrs. Lillian Finlay, Mrs. D. A. Dickie, Mrs. W. E Onions, Mrs. J. A. Powell, Mrs O. H. Fuscher, Mrs. N. B. Reynolds, Mrs. Jennie Payne, Mrs. P. A. Mulcahy, E. O. Schetter, Mrs. Fred Benson, Mrs. Oswald Lubbock, and Mrs. M. McCulloch.

Reclassification of Forest Ave. Denied

BERKELEY, Aug. 31.—Forest avenue between College and Piedmont avenues will remain strictly residential in type as the result of action taken by the city council yesterday in denying a petition for reclassification to allow apartment houses and college clubs. Ralph Eltse appeared to urge the change in classification, while residents in the vicinity voiced protests.

Oakland Dredges Making Records For Rapid Work

Going after all the dredging records for the Pacific Coast, the municipal dredgers at Lake Merritt and the western front are now scooping up something like 200,000 cubic yards a month, with some days reaching a 300,000 yard gait. The Oakland records for a continuous run are all being broken, according to Harbor Engineer Ralph Beebee.

The dredgers now scrape up about 8,000 cubic yards a day. The amount of mud and water in these 8,000 cubic yards would form a structure as large as the Plaza building at Fifteenth and Washington, according to computations by the harbor department.

One day's work would throw up a barrier across San Pablo avenue, as high as the Kahn store and 50 feet thick.

The dirt and water would fill 10 freight trains daily, of 20 cars each, or 200 freight cars.

"Since the big municipal dredge was rebuilt," says Harbor Engineer Beebee, "it has shown an efficiency never before seen in the bay region. Much of its value is due to its type, as a hydraulic dredge gives better results than any other kind. I would pit our dredge against anything in the bay."

As soon as the quay wall work is finished on the western front, the big city dredge will work on the West Fourteenth street fill.

S. O. S. LEADERS WILL CONTINUE TO URGE PARK

"The people of Oakland have spoken. They demand more parks and it is up to this committee to continue its efforts to carry out the voice of more than 25,000 electors who voted for the Sequoia Mountain Park Bond issue Tuesday."

In these words, Ernest J. Engler, chairman of the Save Oakland's Sequoias Committee, spoke at a meeting of the committee in the Bacon building last night.

As Marston Campbell, past president of the Park Board and chairman of the advisory committee of the Contra Costa Hills club, put it:

"This is time for rejoicing. The victory at the polls Tuesday was so complete that it leaves no doubt as to whether the citizens of Oakland demand the purchase of Sequoia Mountain Park. They do demand more parks."

With this in mind, the "S.O.S." committee has made plans to carry on the work in which more than 145 civic, commercial, organized labor, and various women's clubs, were actively identified.

That the bond issue will be resubmitted to the people at the spring election is certain, if other steps to acquire the Sequoia Mountain Park are not taken in the meantime."

Meanwhile it is proposed to stage "Ersa of the Red Trees," an allegorical play carrying out the plea "save the redwoods", in Dimond Canyon with the next few weeks, to raise funds to wipe out a campaign deficit.

"Ersa of the Red Trees", is produced by the Mountain, Forest and Desert Players, directed by Garnet Holme, co-author of the play. It was recently produced to a great audience in the Big Basin and later at the Grant National Park.

Rudolph Spreckels to Talk For Act

BERKELEY, Aug. 31.—Rudolph Spreckels is announced as the principal speaker for a "dollar dinner" of the Berkeley City Club to be held at Unity Hall on Thursday evening of next week. He will speak in favor of the California water and power act. Tickets to the dinner, which is open to the public, may be obtained from B. F. Lynip at the College National Bank.

CLAIBOURNE ARRAIGNED FOR FELONY

Prisoner Brought Back From Texas Knows Nothing of Shouse Murder, Declares Inspector W. J. Petersen

W. D. Claibourne, former pal of Edward A. "Deacon" Shouse, who was found murdered August 5, knows nothing about the murder of his friend, according to Captain of Inspectors Walter J. Petersen.

According to Captain Petersen, Claibourne was in jail in San Antonio, Texas, when Shouse was murdered. Petersen says that he was unable to get any information from Claibourne that might help to clean up the murder.

Claibourne was back to this city to face a charge of embezzlement which was the result of an automobile deal in which he and Shouse were involved. Claibourne had been sought by the police for the last two years as a fugitive from justice.

He was arraigned today before Police Judge Edward J. Tyrrell on the felony charge. The preliminary examination was set for September 7.

SPEEDER JAILED AFTER RESPITE TO FIND HOME

BERKELEY, Aug. 31.—Jedediah Grant, salesman, 601 25th street, Oakland, found an apartment for his wife yesterday and today he went to jail for three days.

Grant was sentenced by Judge Robert Edgar to serve three days for speeding. He asked a respite until he could locate his wife in comfortable lodgings, following her arrival from Salt Lake City. The judge met the request.

Grant was arrested two weeks ago by State Traffic Officer Lester Manning for making a 50-mile clip along San Pablo avenue in Albany.

WORKERS TO HOLD FETE LABOR DAY

A Labor Day celebration, under the auspices of the Central Labor Council and the Building Trades Council of Alameda County, will be held at Idora Park, Monday.

For weeks plans for the event have been under way by the two official bodies of organized labor in Alameda county.

Being a holiday, labor has arranged to be hosts to all Eastbay citizens.

Special events, special music, and a brief program of liberary exercises has been arranged.

There will be games for the grown-ups and children, swimming races, foot races and comedy races. Fat men and stout women, thin men and slender women, will vie for prizes in a series of foot races.

Free boxing matches, introducing the Pacific Fleet champions, as well as those of Goat Island and Mare Island, will be staged in the stadium, beginning at 2o'clock sharp.

WILL SPEAK AT LUNCHEON.

The Oakland Assembly No. 1, International Association of Specialty Salesmen will hold its weekly luncheon tomorrow noon at the Puritas Cafe, 429 Fifteenth street. Grover O'Connor of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company will speak on the water power question.

Missing Girls Found 'Flapping' With Nature

"Nature flappers" are the latest. Two young Emeryville girls who had foresworn the ease and luxury of civilization to lead the wild, free life of the open were found today in Crow Canyon, above Camp Rest by Constable Albert Le Cunha.

They are Anita Schneidor, 15, of 1273 Eighty-second avenue, and Leona Peterson, 16, of 1365 Eighty-second avenue, Elmhurst.

The girls disappeared from their homes several days ago, and their parents reported them missing and enlisted the aid of the authorities in locating them. Today's find in Crow Canyon was the result of a search throughout this section of the State.

The girls told the officer that they were tired of school and wanted to lead a free and easy life in the out-of-doors.

They are said to have foraged in the neighboring fields to provide themselves with food. Deputy Sheriff Soares took the young back-to-nature enthusiasts into custody. They are being held at the Alameda County Detention home, awaiting the arrival of their parents.

253 ELECTRICAL PERMITS ISSUED

More electrical permits were issued during the past week than in any week during the history of Oakland.

This was cited today by the city electrical department as another evidence of the extraordinary building boom in Oakland, as new structures must secure permits for wiring and old structures must get permits for repairs.

Last week there were 253 permits issued in Oakland.

The year's total, according to City Electrician Carl seems well on the way toward doubling the total of the year before. For the first seven months in 1920, 1921 and 1922 the following comparisons are shown:

1920, 3305 permits.
1922, 5371 permits.

"By the end of 1922," says Commissioner Frank Colbourn, "we expect the records of building construction in Oakland to startle even the oldest residents."

Autoists Asked to Shun Mountain Roads

Autoists are requested by the street department to use the mountain roads as little as possible next week.

Commencing Monday, a force of workmen with rollers and scarifiers will start to smooth out and repair the mountain highways, and iron out the bumps caused by the enormous summer traffic. The force of workmen will start at Claremont on the minor road, which runs from Claremont Manor to the Moraga road. This road, being steep, has a rutted pavement.

Further attention will be given the Skyline boulevard and the tunnel road. On the latter, workmen will start from the Berkeley line.

"It's all repair work," says Street Superintendent W. W. Harmon, "but it's all badly needed. These roads have never had such traffic as this year."

AQUATIC SUIT CUTS RISKS OF DROWNING

Eastbay Safety Council At Lake Merritt Successfully Tests and Endorses Invention for Saving of Life

Loss of life by drowning will be materially lessened as the result of the invention of a new aquatic suit, designed for saving life at sea, according to H. C. Quick, safety engineer with the Eastbay Safety Council, local branch of the National Safety Council. Quick today announced the result of rigid tests to which the suit was put yesterday.

The tests took place in Lake Merritt. Miss Florence Booth, formerly of London, and Miss Ruby Cole, secretary of the International Health and Safety Exposition to be held in Oakland, and Sergeant Driscoll of the U. S. Marine Corps, submitted to the test.

After eating a hearty meal they donned the suits and jumped overboard from a launch. They remained in the water for three hours. Their heart action and respiration were tested by Dr. John T. Kergan before and after the test. Dr. Kergan stated that there were no symptoms of exposure on the part of any of the participants in the test.

A feature of the test was the serving of a lunch on a floating table, while Sergeant Driscoll and the two young women were in the water.

The safety council endorsed the new device, which is already being extensively used by seagoing vessels. Quick said today that President Harding's yacht, The Mayflower, was being equipped with 75 of the suits for the President's trip to Alaska.

The suit is made of rubberized canvas padded on the inside with silk floss, especially treated to increase its buoyancy and to eliminate cold and dampness. The silk floss, by test, has been shown to have six times the buoyancy of cork.

IRA COLWELL LOOKS GOOD IN SIX FRAMES AGAINST BEES, ALLOWING BUT ONE LONE SINGLE

Local Fans Witnessing Fine Games

Colwell, Brubaker, Brown, Chavez Star For the Oaks.

By EDDIE MURPHY

With chances of winning the pennant gone a long time ago, Manager Ivan Howard of the Oaks is making use of every opportunity to look over new talent and outline plans for next season's club, and things are working out so well for the leader of the local athletes, that he hopes there will be some more players looking for jobs who will pay him a visit. Yesterday afternoon the Oaks scored their second win in a row over the Salt Lake Bees and are now within a game and a half of the fourth rung. It was another of those games which remained in doubt until the last man was out. The score was 2 to 1, and thanks to Ira Colwell and Gordon Jones for some wonderful pitching, and to Ray Brubaker on third and Percy Chavez at short, and also to Don Brown who clicked a ball over the left field wall to tie the score.

Brubaker and Chavez gave the two Oak pitchers some more of that fine support of the day before, and between them they handled nineteen chances. Brubaker looks far better around the third bag than he did at short, and with all credit to Bill Mariott, it must be said that Brubaker looks like an improvement around the third corner. Will Kamm never looked after the third bag any better than did Brubaker yesterday. In the fourth and fifth inning, he handled all assists for six successive putouts, making five of his throws to second base to retire runners. That is a record in itself. In the ninth inning, Ray brought the game to a close by making a one-handed stab of Lewis' mean bounder in back of third and throwing the Bee manager out.

CHAVEZ CUTS OFF RUN

The Bees had Siglin on third and Strand on first in the eighth inning and needed one run to tie the score, so they started out on a double steal. Strand was trapped with Knight and Cather chasing him around. A throw from Knight got away from Cather, but Chavez was right behind Cather and grabbed the ball as it bounced out of Ted's glove and tagged Strand out. Few fans noticed how Chavez got hold of the ball.

BROWN HITS HOME RUN

Ira Colwell looked like a million dollar heaver on the hill and for six innings allowed the Bees one scratch hit. After errors by Knight and Cather, and Vitt's sacrifice gave the Bees one in their half of the sixth, the Oaks got men on first and second in the seventh when Knight and Mitze got hits, so Howard yanked Colwell to let Arlett bat for him, and Jones, who finished the pitching, got credit for the win, as the Oaks scored their two runs in the seventh when Brown hit the first ball offered by Betts in the eighth for a homer over the left field fence. The Oaks got but two hits off Betts in the first six frames. Brubaker followed Brown with a single to left, so Lewis sent Blaeholder to relieve Betts. The relief hurler made Mariott force Brubaker, but then he made a wild pitch that put Mariott on second. Cather got a single, and Gould replaced Blaeholder. Jack Knight then won the game by bunting a ball over Gould's head, as Mariott scored while Knight was being thrown out.

The Oaks and Bees play two games today, and the Bees must win one of them to stay in fourth place. Another fair crowd was out to see the teams yesterday, and if they can continue dishing up the same brand of ball as the first two games, they will play to bigger crowds. Del Howard announced last evening that he is on the trail of a couple of more good youngsters who have been tipped off to him. The score:

New Stanford Coach Arrives Here Tomorrow

Andy Kerr, on First Trip West, Will Report For Work.

Andy Kerr, who will be in charge of the Stanford football team as head coach this year, is due to arrive from Pittsburgh tomorrow morning and will proceed directly to Stanford where he will prepare to assume his coaching duties on September 15, the first date allowed by the rules of the Pacific Coast Conference for football practice. Kerr is making his first trip to the west and will see the scene of his future activity tomorrow for the first time.

Kerr will be met in San Francisco by Leland Cutler, head of the Stanford Board of Athletic Control and will be taken to Stanford where he will be installed as lord over all that appertains to football and its activities for the coming four months.

Kerr is to act in the capacity of head coach due to the fact that Glenn Warner is still at the University of Pittsburgh under a contract which does not expire until 1924. Kerr received his training under Warner and has been assistant coach to the veteran at the eastern institution where he has met with repeated successes.

Assisting Kerr throughout the 1922 season will be another of Warner's pupils, Thornhill, who is at Los Angeles at the present time and who will not report at Stanford for at least another week.

With the coming of a new coach Stanford's permanent athletic policy is instituted and the Cardinal with a veteran aggregation of pigskin chasers, may be expected to move rapidly to the front in Pacific Coast Conference football circles. This year it will be but a process of installing the Warner system but once installed it will be able to bring Stanford onto equal terms with California, Washington and the other Conference institutions.

Frank Moran Displaced as Ring Favorite

By SPARROW McGANN.
Consolidated Press.
(Copyright, 1922.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Frank Moran has been displaced in the minds of the British fight public as a great prize ring character. His place has been taken by Soldier Jones, the Canadian heavyweight champion, who has been spreading broad smiles all over England in the past few months.

Jones is a humorist who evidently values the laughter of the ringside crowd more highly than the applause that follows the knockout wallop. Americans will remember Jones as an opponent of Gene Tunney the afternoon that Dempsey fought Carpentier in the arena on Boyle's Thirty Acres. Upon that occasion Jones came into the ring with complacent smiles and amused the spectators by sitting between rounds with one leg thrown over the other knee—a fine, comfortable position in a chair around the village stove, but warranted to shut off circulation and otherwise hogtie a prize fighter. Tunney beat him up so badly that he had neither chance nor inclination to reveal his clownish tendencies, but over in England he has given them full play.

In his most recent battle against George Cook, the Australian, in the Holland park rink, Jones started off with a clear lead and was punching the Antipodean all over the ring when he decided to inject humor into the proceedings. Grimacing at the crowd, he would point to a certain spot with his gloves and then tell Cook to stand there a second and look pleasant while he took one on the beak.

JONES NOT FUNNY.

The crowd laughed for a while, but finally, in the British way, decided that Jones was not funny but impertinent. Then began the boos. Whether this threw Jones off or whether his mood of lightness prevented him from ever attaining a fighting pace, the fact remains that in the final rounds Cook took a big lead on points, and Jones' only hope of winning was by a knockout. This he found he could not administer and Cook took the decision.

Now Jones' only hope of a British engagement lies in his attraction as a funny man. This might be more of an attraction here than in London. As to that, we shall see.

The present heavyweight situation in London finds Joe Beckett as the only pugilist who could meet Carpentier with any hope of a big gate. Had Jones beaten Cook—as most Englishmen thought would be the case—a Beckett-Jones scrap, preceding a battle between the winner and Carpentier, would have been regarded as offering good business prospects for any promoter. But now nothing looms financially promising in the heavyweight field save a return Beckett-Carpentier engagement, and not even the most patriotic Englishman can work up a lot of enthusiasm over that.

The next sensation in Europe will be the Carpentier-Battling Siki in the fall. Siki is a Senegalese negro and is a real bad actor. When he is not fighting in the ring he is very likely to start something outside of the squared ring and the cabarets have known him to their disadvantage. Every Frenchman will breathe easier when Carpentier knocks him for a row of shanties.

San Franciscan Is Well Up in Tourney

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 31.—All records of the Western Chess Association for long game have been broken in the present tournament by the contest between H. Hahlbohm, Chicago, and Samuel Factor, Chicago, which has gone 56 moves and was adjourned again last night until Friday.

The standing of the leaders at the end of the fourth round follows: J. W. Showalter, Georgetown, Ky., won 4 lost 0; N. T. Whitaker, Washington, D. C., won 4, lost 0; Factor, won 2, lost 0; Ed Laskar, Chicago, won 2, lost 1; and E. W. Gruer, San Francisco, won 2, lost 1.

Smoker to be Given by St. Leo's Parish

A boxing smoker will be given at St. Leo's hall, Piedmont and Ridgeway, Friday evening, September 8. Tommy Simpson has promised to provide the box-fighters. The men of the neighborhood are invited to attend.

MARINES VS. CAMDEN.

VALLEJO, Aug. 31.—The Marines and Camden football elevens will hold a practice game at Beach Park on Saturday afternoon. Both teams have been practicing for two weeks and are in pretty fair shape.

These Bees Have Stung Many Runners

Here are a couple of the Salt Lake Bee players who are playing in the series on the local diamond this week. Manager Duffy Lewis has them to receive the shoots of his pitchers and also catch would-be base-stealers. On the left is shown EDDIE (FAT) ANFINSON, San Francisco boy, and the other fellow is JOE JENKINS. Duffy Lewis thinks they are handy men for nabbing base-stealers.

Automobiles Ready For Pilke Peak Race

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Aug. 31.—With the date of the annual running of the Pikes Peak automobile races set for September 4, more than a score of the country's best known hill climbing pilots and their mechanicians are on the ground for final tests up the mountain.

Most of the drivers established camps at Cascade, at the foot of the big hill, and up until August 28, when they were permitted to send their entries over the course in time trials, they made the trip in leisurely fashion to familiarize themselves with the hairpin highway and its stiff grades.

The record over the 12½-mile course was made in 1916 by Ralph Mulford when he shot across the tip of the peak in 18 minutes 24 seconds, after starting far below the summit. Last year the fastest time was made by King Rhiley, Denver driver, whose time was 19 minutes 16 1-5 seconds.

Twenty-seven cars had been entered last week, divided into three classes.

Taussig and Tabor Form a Partnership

Moose Taussig and Frank Tabor have opened offices in San Francisco and will give a clever imitation of Leo . Flynn handling a string of boxers. Here's the first tumble from the new firm:

Steve Dalton, the "Iron Man" from Los Angeles, after cleaning up most of the welterweights and middleweights in the South and scoring many knockouts, has arrived in San Francisco and will endeavor to get on around here.

Dalton has placed his business into the hands of "Moose" Taussig and Frank Tabor, who will jointly handle fighters, and who have opened an office on Market street to transact their business.

The managers are willing to let Dalton step in and fight the best of 'em on a minute's notice, for the Southern boy reported to them in tip top shape.

"Tut" Jackson's Manager Will Be Investigated

New York Boxing Commission Not Satisfied With Recent Fight.

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—New York State has had a great plenty of being a happy hunting ground for fly-by-night fistic enterprises.

They may be conducted on a small, piffling scale, in some of the minor clubs where the bill for damages is never great, but gone are the days when a fifth class push-over can be ballyhooed into a match that will draw upward of 20,000 customers.

The poor dear public was badly spoofed out of many thousands of good dollars when Tut Jackson was dropped for the full count by a severe push on the chest in the third round of his bout with Harry Wills. The weight and measurements of "Tut" were juggled in order to make him appear a real man-eater and reports of his fighting ability were distorted out of all reason.

Two days before the bout McCarney released a list of Jackson's measurements. They were grossly out of proportion to the facts, Jackson being twelve pounds less than the weight and two inches shorter than the height given in the specifications.

Tabloid Sports

NEW YORK, Aug. 31. — (United Press).—Tennis has made such remarkable advancement among American boys that European experts predict the United States will have to work almost on a handicap basis in the international tournament in 1930.

While the boys of the United States are far more advanced in the game than the youngsters of other countries, the tennis governing body here is doing more and more to promote a development of the "kid's game."

William M. Kunklin, a tennis enthusiast of Forest Hills has offered a $250 challenged cup for the New York boys championships and he is willing to offer another cup for the national championship and one for a world's international championship.

Through the interest taken by George Agutter, its professional instructor the West Side Tennis club of Forest Hills is leading the way in the development of boy players.

Four boys now playing at the club—Johnny Millen, 14; Stewart Gayness, 13; Ogden Phipps, 13 and Johnny Pittman, 14, are so good that Agutter says he will match them against any four boy players in the world.

Through an intersectional, intercity or inter-state boys match, Agutter hopes to be able to start an annual tournament that will class with the All-Comers championship in the men's class.

Big League Stars Coming to Coast

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 31. — Baseball fans of Spokane were called to meet this noon to make plans for the visit here of the All-Star American and National League ball teams which will barnstorm their way West at the close of the present season.

The tour, it is understood here, starts October 1. The tentative itinerary includes Milwaukee, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Aberdeen, S. D.; Butte, Missoula, Spokane, Tacoma, and Portland, thence to California, where the major leaguers will play winter ball.

Richmond Athlete in Annual Marathon

RICHMOND, Aug. 31. — "Gas" Gadberry of this city has entered for the Tribune Lake Merritt Marathon to be held on admission day, September 9. Gadberry has made a fine showing in distance runs for the past two years and was a member of the freshman track team at the U. of C.

In February, Gadberry took sixth place in the P. A. A. cross country run held in Golden Gate Park, San Francisco. He is also training hard for the Dipsea Run in Marin county to be held in October.

ZENITHS WIN 18 TO 5

The Zenith Mill and Lumber Company team defeated the Calatone Water team at Lockwood school grounds to the tune of 18 to 5. The only features of an otherwise uninteresting game was the errorless fielding and heavy hitting of the Zeniths, every man getting one or more hits. Nielsen starred with a single and a home run. McElroy and Daley each secured 3 hits, the latter also securing three stolen bases.

The visitors found little trouble in piling up 19 runs and 15 hits, while the best the country boys could do was to spike the platter five times. Every member of the Hayward club with the exception of Richmond, got one or more hits. Nevis, with a pair of doubles and a single, was a feature.

REPRESENTATIVE LIST OF ENTRIES IS RECEIVED FOR RACE

St. Mary's College Will Have Strong Team in Lake Merritt Race, Says Madigan.

By DOUG. MONTELL.

With but three more days remaining before the entry list for the Tenth Annual TRIBUNE Lake Merritt Marathon closes this morning's mail brought entries from three more Eastbay organizations, swelling the already large entry list to the eighty mark. This is a far better list than was represented in the 1921 Marathon, even after the entries closed, for while the present figures of the blanks received do not total as many numerically as did the list this time last year, it is a far more representative list and is strictly an Eastbay race, with but one exception, the entry of one runner from Crockett high school. In this respect the TRIBUNE considers that the 1922 Merritt Marathon is proving to be the greatest success of any year since the race was inaugurated.

It was our contention at the time the distance was shortened and relations with the P. A. severed that these two moves would bring forward a greater number of the young runners of the bay region than ever before. It was more or less in the nature of an experiment for after running the race as a six and a quarter mile contest for nine years it was a matter of conjecture whether the shorter distance would prove as popular. The hearty response of the Eastbay runners, particularly from Eastbay high schools, has shown that the move has met with the approval of the younger runners.

St. Mary's College Will Have a Team

Among the new organizations represented in the race through entries received this morning comes St. Mary's College, the first runner from the Broadway institution being Jerome Rosefield. Graduate Manager Louis LeFevre has been so busy of late in attempting to to straighten out matters appertaining to the college football schedule that he has been hard pressed for time to line up the St. Mary's team and these entries will probably be among those received on the last day. Coach Edward P. Madigan assured us last week that he considered the race an excellent opportunity to develop wind among the men of the Red and Blue football squad and that he would urge all grid candidates to enter the race for the value received in training for it. The St. Mary's football squad reports for duty on the field tomorrow afternoon for the first workout and at that time it is probable that Madigan will line up his entire aggregation for The TRIBUNE race.

City of Oakland Has Man in Race

The City of Oakland will be officially represented in the race, a member of the Fire Department having signed up. The police figure that they will be too busy the day of the race patrolling the course and keeping it clear for the runners to allow any of their men to don running togs and get in the swim so it fell to the Fire Department to uphold municipal honors. Jack Weimers of the engine house at Sixth and Washington was the fire fighter to sign up for the race this morning and he assured us that he has kept in condition for the big race and the only thing that will prevent his being among the first to finish would be a general alarm during the race. Even then, should the fire be in the direction in which he was running at the time it is probable that he would sprint across the finish in record time.

Industrial Runners Continue to Enter

The industrial entry list received additional competition with the arrival of the blank of W. B. Skowran of the S. & D. Mill and Cabinet Company of Oakland. With the Sunset Lumber Company, the Western Electrics and Eastbay Enameling Works, from the last named came another entry today, William Guidici, the industrial field will be the best that has ever entered a TRIBUNE race.

The unattached runners continue to send in their entry blanks and there are many dark horses who will run in the race for the first time who are to be closely watched by the older and more experienced veterans of the running game, who thus far have not considered the new talent to be formidable. The increasing number of names in the unattached list, added to today by Turk McCarty, Barney Chalmers, Robert Gracey and Swede Johnson gives warning to the runners of organizations entered that they will have to be on their toes from start to finish in order to grab off the prizes.

High School List Is Growing Daily

Golden Gate Junior high sent in their seventh entry this morning, William Dimbitsky making the seventh of the team that now holds third place among the Eastbay high schools. Technical continues to hold the lead, Harold Lion making the eleventh of the Purple and Gold runners to sign up. This gives the Broadway high school a lead of one over Oakland with but two days after today in which to sign up. Berkeley high also added another name to their list, James Sutton, unknown as a distance runner, but ambitious to be up among the leaders of the high school field, sending in his entry.

GOLF FACTS worth knowing

by INNIS BROWN

Q. Is a player allowed to ground his club in addressing his ball where it stops on one of the small mounds that are sometimes called "chocolate drops"?

A. If these mounds are covered with grass, the player can ground his club without penalty.

Q. In playing from the rough a player slices his ball, it strikes a tree, bounds back, and hits the opponent's caddie and is deflected into a trap. Is the player forced to play it from this trap?

A. He is not forced to play it any more at all on that hole. His opponent loses the ball because his caddie interfered with the ball.

Q. In a medal qualifying round, two players who are not familiar with the course, drive from a certain tee, then play their second shots for the putting green of another hole. On reaching the green, they discovered from the number of the flag that they have made a mistake. They then go back and drop as near as they can tell to where their balls lay and finish playing the hole. Do they incur any penalty?

A. They are disqualified for not playing the stipulated round.

Q. In a medal qualifying round, if a player drives his ball out of bounds, can he tee up on the fairway opposite where the ball landed with a penalty of two strokes, as he can with an unplayable lie?

A. No. There is only one procedure for a ball played out of bounds. Play another from where it was played with a penalty of one stroke, unless the penalty stroke is remitted by local rule.

Q. In a three ball match between A, B and C, A's caddie is flagging the hole. B putts and the ball hits the flagstick, which the caddie fails to remove from the hole. How does this effect the match?

A. A loses the hole to B. As regards the matches between A and C and C and B, the incident is treated as a rub of the green, there being no penalty, and the ball being played from where it stops.

If any golf rules puzzle you, write Innis Brown, care of our sporting editor, enclosing stamped, return envelope.

PARIS FEELING BADLY ABOUT OLYMPIC GAMES

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE.

PARIS, Aug. 31.—France has taken responsibility for the 1924 Olympic games. Now that she has them, what is she going to do with them?

Will the money she has voted be enough to give the world an international athletic contest that is worthy of France and the Olympics of past years?

Will French ingenuity and the love of sports that has had a rebirth in France since the war come to the rescue of a slim pocketbook?

A member of the French Olympic Games Committee was interviewed on these subjects by the morning newspaper Excelsior the very day that the law granting the credits for the games was promulgated.

"How is France going to put it over?" was the substance of the question put to him. The amount voted was less than $600,000, with an additional $400,000 guaranteed if the gate receipts failed to reimburse the Racing Club for that sum advanced.

"We are going to work," was the reply of the committee member. "First we must find offices of our own which will not be too costly. Then we must choose our administrative personnel carefully, so that it will not have to be too large.

"The Racing Club has granted the use of its stadium. We have no [illegible] will not cover the cost of this. At Antwerp just after the war the receipts equaled a million and a half francs and there were only seventeen nations in the games. In Paris, with forty-two nations participating and better times approaching, we are confident that we shall go over the top.

"Having the Olympics at Paris will give tourists a wonderful opportunity to include them in their usual continental itinerary — and that should have its reaction on our box office."

Round the Sport Circle

BY HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—(United Press.)—England feels that she has reached a point of national disgrace in sports. The loss of the British tennis championships, the British open golf title, the rowing classics and the international polo matches were considered terrible blows to national prestige.

The greatest howl has been made against the governing bodies of tennis, golf and polo. Particular distress was felt over the decline in polo made evident when the Argentine team cleaned up all over England.

Criticism was voiced that the game had "been nursed too long by men grown obsolete who were maintained because they owned the best ponies."

Everyone admits that England suffered terribly from the war, but the critics point out that in most of the major sports, English style is following obsolete form and is making no effort to modernize their methods of training.

WANT BALLPLAYERS!

VALLEJO, Aug. 31.—Olson, Austin, Whiteman, McCurdie and Hzrisko, crack marine baseball players, are said to be looking for berths on round the bay clubs for the remainder of the season.

OFFER IS DENIED.

NEW YORK.—Jack Kearns, manager of Jack Dempsey, denied that he had received an offer of $500,000 to put the champion in the ring with Jack Johnson in Mexico City.

Gamblers Are Accused of Wrecking Club

DES MOINES, Iowa, Aug. 31.—Gamblers here have wrecked the Des Moines baseball club in order to realize on wagers, it was charged by police investigators today following a probe of baseball pools.

Abe Zelcer, sportsman, said to have been involved in the "Black Sox" scandal, got players drunk so that they would be out of condition for the next day's game, according to charges by investigators.

Bets were then placed on the opposing team, it is said.

There are smiles that make you happy,
There are smiles that make you glad,
There are smiles that get you all riled up and make you fighting mad.

It was the latter brand of smile that was used exclusively in the James Duffy-Gene Cline welterweight bout at the Auditorium last night. Smiles of the tantalizing kind, dusted off frequently with snappy right crosses, well meant right swings and crushing straight lefts. But the smile factory never quit. The harder the young men belted the more they smiled and a good time was had by all. Duffy romped off with the decision because even his opponent remarked in the fourth round during a desperate rally "You're too fast for me, Jimmy." That's the way they boxed. They put everything they had into their work but they still chattered and smiled and there was not the slightest trace of meanness. It was a great fight but Cline told the whole story when he admitted that Jimmy was a bit too speedy for him. Duffy does not belong with the Mahoneys nor the Soules. That's the difference.

Duffy's right was working nicely in the first round and on two occasions he came close to rocking young Mr. Cline to sleep. However, Gene is as game a catcher as he is a pitcher. He laughed his way to victory over Mahoney and Soules and he laughed in the face of certain defeat last night. But while Duffy was winning that fight Cline was not idle. He nailed the Broom entry with many a well meant clout and Broom swallowed eight cents worth of the finest brand of West Oakland cut plug in the second round when his little Jimmy got his chin dusted off with a right that had everything behind it.

It was a tough night for Duffy even if he did win as his other little playmate, Johnny Cline, was held even by the veteran Joe Azevedo and now Johnny is not so much of a card. After holding Duffy to a draw three weeks ago Johnny looked in line for a return match, but when Azevedo held him fifty-fifty last evening they'll have to toss Joe and Johnny back in the ring again. Azevedo was the surprise of the night. For a boy who is supposed to have been punched out when Ad Wolgast and Freddie Welsh were at their best Joe's performance was nothing short of sensational. He knew he had everything to gain and nothing to lose so he took chances—and everything that his heavier and rangier opponent had to offer. Perhaps Cline had a shade on his work in the first three rounds but Azevedo finished like a stakehorse and deserved to share the honors. For a "bush" fighter Joe did well on his return to the big city.

The customers clamored for a Macey verdict in the special event but when Eddie got a draw with Joe Lynch he got all he was entitled to. Had a decision been absolutely necessary Lynch might have received it but there never was a chance of Macey getting that verdict on his boxing last night. Either Lynch has him buffaloed or Macey is stale. Eddie did not put up his usual fight and he let Lynch beat him to practically everything. Macey can probably beat many boys who can beat Lynch but the Mission boy is his Nemesis—or something equally pestiferous.

Harry Pelsinger put up the best fight he has shown since he tried to come back and Harry earned the draw he got with Joe Leopold. After Leopold took the first two rounds Pelsinger clearly outboxed him in the last two sessions and the further it went the better he looked. Had he started a bit sooner Harry would have scampered off with the decision.

Pat Walsh, who said he gave Jock Malone a tough fight, looked worse last night than he did in his first start. Pat's leads were all short and he was continually starting things without finishing them. Sailor Ritter, the young man on the other end of the bout, started nothing he could not finish so Pat was flattened in the second inning with a right-hander that grazed the point of his chin. Ninety per cent of the customers thought Pat flopped as they saw the punch start and also saw it finish on the other side of Pat's head. But en route that glove dusted the extreme point of the Walsh chin and did the trick. Pat was OUT.

Billy Wallace boxed rings around Cap Nelson and won far enough to entitle him to three or four decisions. Cap kept coming all the time and deserved something for that. Wallace knew they couldn't give Cap the medal so he gave him a whole flock of belts—placed where they did the most good.

Pete Woods made Al Crisp curl up like an accordion in the curtain-raiser and won when Crisp came to the conclusion that Old Man Woods' son was too rough to play with. Crisp lasted the limit but he was pulling hard for Louie Bernstein to ring that old gong.

The large delegation of customers had the sides of the building bulging. They couldn't resist these three main events for the price of one and none of them had any regrets for being among those present.

'Unsatisfactory End' to Wrestling Bout

There was the usual "unsatisfactory" finish to the wrestling match in San Francisco last night. Waldek byszko had Renato Gardini in jeopardy a score of times and after an hour and a half of tugging and pulling he lifted his opponent, spun him a few times and then slammed him on the mat. Waldek fell with the momentum of the swing and Gardini tagged his shoulders to the mat for a flying fall.

They'll meet again, of course.

SALMON ARE RUNNING.

VALLEJO, Aug. 31. — Samuel Chollar, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., landed an 8-pound salmon in the Mare Island channel on Tuesday. A number of local fishermen were out today and hope to land the limit of salmon.

YOUNGSTERS TO MEET FOR GOLFING TITLE

TOLEDO, O., Aug. 31.—Two 19-year-old lads, one from New York and one from St. Louis, will fight it out today over the Ottawa Park course for the public links golf championship of the United States.

Eddie Held, the slim little 110-pound St. Louisan, will be the west's representative in the 36-hole finals, while Dick Walsh, a former caddy at Van Cortland Park, New York, will carry the east's chances. Each shot his way into the finals through brilliant twin victories today in the third round and in the semi-finals.

Held, after eliminating J. F. Christie of Toronto, Canada, in the morning 4 and 2, triumphed in the afternoon over George Aulbach of Boston, medalist in the qualifying rounds, in a wonderful 20-hole match. Walsh proved the upset of the tournament in the morning by putting out Bill Quinlan of Boston, New England public links champion, 2 and 1, and then came right back in the afternoon and defeated Henry Decker of Kansas City, by the same margin.

Sydney Will Boast Large Tennis Courts

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Aug. 31.—The new grounds of the New South Wales Lawn Tennis association, comprising ninety courts ultimately at Rushcutter's Bay, less than ten minutes from the heart of Sydney, will be among the largest in the world when completed. Ten courts [illegible] within a few months, between fifty and sixty more will be available. The site was purchased by the association from the government in September and the clubhouse and grandstands are nearing completion.

Pacific Fleet Will Have Veteran Team

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 31 — The Pacific fleet football squad will enter the coming season with two players of the 1921 team missing. Bill Ingram, captain and half-back and Edward E. Wilkie, guard, are both out of the navy and will not play with the fleet team this fall. According to present plans the Pacific fleet squad will train here.

GOLF

By W. D. McNICOLL.

Among the gallery of golfers following Dave Trufelli and Bob Black and Harold Sampson and Bill McEwen at Claremont last Sunday was Willie Lock, who is constructing the Oakland Municipal Links. Willie is satisfied with the way the work is progressing, and has everything in order, pipes laid, greens constructed, fairways graded and only awaits the turning on of a generous supply of water. Oakland's Municipal course is going to be one of the severest tests of golf to be had in Northern California. Players who develop their game over the Lake Chabot Links will be able to negotiate the best championship courses in the country.

Besides Dr. C. H. Walter, the Northern Amateur Champion, who has already had several practice rounds at Del Monte, Sequoyah will be represented in the California championships by C. M. Putnam, Dr. J. H. Stineman, Lee Dunham, Dr. H. G. Meek and T. Harry Smith, all able and anxious to make a good showing in the various flights during the championship week. Yesterday at Claremont and Sequoyah players entered for the tournament wisely abstained from strenuous match or medal play, but put in some useful practice at driving, pitching and putting. Cecil Putnam is playing right at the top of his game at present, and should make the championship flight with ordinary luck. Dr. H. G. Meek is also showing considerable improvement in his game of late, his tee shots have improved and his short game is now very reliable. T. Harry Smith has always been a good tournament player, and will give many of the fanciest players a hard run for victory. Dr. Stineman was at the top of his game about three weeks ago, but has not been playing so brilliantly of late. His play at Sequoyah yesterday would indicate that he will be up with the leaders when scores are turned in on the twin courses ne[illegible] week.

Claremont players never fail to do well at Del Monte, and will have a good representation in the championship flight when match play begins. Finals and semi-finals usually have representatives from the Claremont Club playing brilliant golf.

Carpentier Plans To Quit the R

PARIS, Aug. 31.—(By The ciated Press.) — Announ comes from London that C Carpentier, European heavy champion, will retire de from the ring within six or months. This has created mild interest in Paris wher pentier is not the idol of old the fight fans, who charg with snobbishness and exagg ego.

One caustic newspaper hints that Georges may be matically retired before months, referring to his c bouts with Battling Siki an winner of the Joe Beckett-Moran bout.

S. S. S. Thoroughly Rids the Body of Rheumatism Impurities.

Somebody's mother is suffering tonight! The scourge of rheumatism has wrecked her body; limping and suffering, bent forward, she sees but the common ground, but her aged heart still belongs to the stars! Does anybody care? S. S. S. is one of the greatest blood-purifiers known, and it helps build more blood cells. Its medicinal ingredients are purely vegetable. It never disarranges the stomach. It is, in fact, a splendid tonic, a blood maker, a blood enricher. It banishes rheumatism from joints, muscles and the entire body. It builds firm flesh. It is what somebody's mother needs tonight! Mother, if you can not go out to get a bottle of S. S. S. yourself, surely somebody in your family will. Somebody, get a bottle of S. S. S. now! Let somebody's mother begin to feel joyful again tonight. Maybe, maybe it's your mother! S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size is the more economical.

one you will find, mother, sometimes is all gone. Let it will build you up, too!

The tallest skyscraper as well as a humble cottage must first be planned before i can be built. The plan holds almost the same relation to the structure as a mol holds to the substance it shapes, for just as the finished product can be no better tha the mold in which it was formed so can the building be no better than the plan ac cording to which it was built.

That home you are figuring on will depend entirely on the plan you select for it comfort and beauty.

Both principal and interest of said bonds shall be paid when due upon warrants duly drawn against said appropriation, from the general fund by the controller of the state in favor of the state treasurer upon or in favor of any duly authorized agent of the state treasurer, upon demands audited by the state board of control, and the moneys to be returned into the general fund in the state treasury pursuant to the provisions of this section shall likewise be paid as herein provided, upon warrants duly drawn by the controller of the state upon demands duly audited by the state board of control.

Sec. 6. The sum of fifteen thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated to pay the expenses that may be incurred by the state treasurer in having said bonds prepared and in advertising their sale. Said amount shall be refunded to the general fund in the state treasury out of the specific funds into which the proceeds from the sale of said bonds shall be respectively covered in accordance with the provisions of this act on controller's warrant duly drawn for that purpose.

Sec. 7. When the bonds authorized to be issued under this act shall be duly executed, they shall be by the state treasurer sold at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in such parcels and numbers as the said treasurer shall be directed by the governor of the state, under seal thereof, after a resolution requesting such sale shall have been adopted by the veterans' welfare board and approved by the governor of the state; but said treasurer must reject any and all bids for said bonds, or for any of them, which shall be below the par value of said bonds so offered plus the interest which has accrued thereon between the date of sale and the last preceding interest maturity date; and with the approval of the governor, he may from time to time, by public announcement at the place and time fixed for the sale, continue such sale, as to the whole of the bonds offered, or any part thereof offered, to such time and place as he may select. Before offering any of said bonds for sale the said treasurer shall detach therefrom all coupons which have matured or will mature before the day fixed for such sale.

Sec. 8. Due notice of the time and place of sale of all bonds must be given by said treasurer by publication in one newspaper published in the city and county of San Francisco and also by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Oakland and by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Los Angeles and by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Sacramento once a week during four weeks prior to such sale. In addition to the notice last above provided for, the state treasurer may give such further notice as he may deem advisable, but the expense and cost of such additional notice shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars for each sale so advertised. The proceeds of the sale of such bonds and such amount as may have been paid as accrued interest thereon shall be forthwith paid over by said treasurer into the veterans' welfare fund for land settlement, or into the veterans farm and home building fund, as the case may be, in accordance with the resolution of the veterans' welfare finance committee, provided for in section eleven of this act, by virtue of which resolution the said bonds shall have been issued, and must be used exclusively to provide useful employment and the opportunity to acquire farm homes with profitable livelihood on the land for veterans and to provide for cooperation of the state with the agencies of the United States engaged in work of similar character, and to furnish to veterans the opportunity to purchase farms, homes and home sites, in accordance with the provisions of the California veterans' welfare act and of the veterans' farm and home purchase act, or either of them, and of any and all acts amendatory or supplemental to said acts, or either of them; provided, that the said veterans' welfare board must pay over to the general fund of the state from the proceeds of the sale of the bonds all money which has been heretofore or may be hereafter appropriated and advanced out of the general fund in the state treasury for the use of the said veterans' welfare board on condition that it shall be so paid over; provided, further, that the said veterans' welfare board may, out of the proceeds from the sale of said bonds, pay all or any part of any indebtedness heretofore by it incurred in accordance with law and remaining unpaid, including the interest accrued thereon, unless the rate of interest applying to such indebtedness is less than the rate of interest applying to the said bonds; and provided, further, that the proceeds from the sale of said bonds may be used to pay the debt created by the issuance and sale thereof.

Sec. 9. The veterans' welfare board shall be and hereby is authorized, with the approval of the state board of control, to invest any surplus moneys in any of the funds subject to or appropriated for its use in bonds of the United States, or of the State of California, or of the several counties or municipalities or other political subdivisions of the State of California, and to sell such bonds, or any of them, at the governing market rates, upon approval of the state board of control.

Sec. 10.—There is hereby created a veterans' welfare finance committee composed of the governor, state controller, state treasurer, chairman of the state board of control, and chairman of the veterans' welfare board, all of whom shall serve thereon without compensation and a majority of whom shall be empowered to act for said committee. The attorney general of the state shall be the legal advisor of the veterans' welfare finance committee.

Upon request of the veterans' welfare board, supported by a statement of the plans and projects of the veterans' welfare board with respect thereto, which statement shall designate the specific fund to which such plans and projects relate, the veterans' welfare finance committee shall determine whether or not a bond issue under this act is necessary or desirable to carry such plans and projects into execution.

Sec. 11. Wherever the said veterans' welfare finance committee shall have determined that a bond issue under this act is necessary or desirable to carry such plans and projects into execution, it shall adopt a resolution to this effect. The said resolution shall authorize and direct the state treasurer to prepare the requisite number of suitable bonds and shall specify:

1. The aggregate number, aggregate par value, and the date of issuance of the bonds to be issued.
2. The date or dates of maturity of the bonds to be issued and the number and numerical sequence of the bonds maturing at each date of maturity.
3. The annual rate of interest which the bonds to be issued shall bear.
4. The number, numerical sequence, amount or amounts, and the dates of maturity of the interest coupons to be attached to the said bonds.
5. The specific fund into which the proceeds from the sale of the bonds to be issued shall be placed and from which disbursements thereof shall be made in accordance with this act.
6. The technical form and language of the bonds to be issued and of the interest coupons to be attached thereto.

In determining the date or dates of maturity of the said bonds and the amount of bonds maturing at each date of maturity, the veterans' welfare finance committee shall be guided by the amounts and dates of maturity of the revenues estimated to accrue to the veterans' welfare board from the project or projects to be financed by each issue, and shall fix and determine said dates and amounts in such manner that, together with the dates and amounts of interest payments on the said bond issue, they shall coincide, as nearly as practicable, and be commensurate, as nearly as practicable, with the dates and amounts of such estimated revenues; provided, that the bonds first to mature in each issue, shall mature not later than five years from the date of issuance thereof; provided, further, that specified numbers of bonds of specified numerical sequence shall thereafter mature at annual intervals; and provided, further, that the bonds last to mature in each issue shall mature not later than forty-five years from the date of issuance thereof.

The rate of interest to be borne by the said bonds shall be uniform for all the bonds of the same issue and shall be determined and fixed by the veterans' welfare finance committee according to the then prevailing market conditions, but shall in no case exceed six per cent per annum, and the determination of said committee as to the rate of interest shall be conclusive as to the then prevailing market conditions. The interest coupons to be attached to the said bonds shall be payable at semi-annual intervals from the date of issuance of said bonds; provided, that the interest coupon first payable may, if the veterans' welfare finance committee shall so determine and specify, be payable one year after the date of issuance of said bonds.

Sec. 12. All actual and necessary expenses of the veterans' welfare finance committee and of the members thereof shall be paid out of the fund into which the proceeds from the sale of said bonds shall be covered, upon approval of the state board of control and on controller's warrant duly drawn for that purpose, and shall constitute expenses of the veterans' welfare board.

Sec. 13. The state controller, the state treasurer, and the veterans' welfare finance committee shall keep full and particular account and record of all their proceedings under this act, and they shall transmit to the governor an abstract of all such proceedings thereunder, with an annual report, to be by the governor laid before the legislature biennially; and all books and papers pertaining to the matter provided for in this act shall at all times be open to the inspection of any party interested, or the governor, or the attorney general, or a committee of either branch of the legislature, or a joint committee of both, or any citizen of the state.

Sec. 14. This act, if adopted by the people, shall take effect on the fifteenth day of November, 1922, as to all its provisions except those relating to and necessary for its submission to the people, and for returning, canvassing, and proclaiming the votes, and as to said excepted provisions this act shall take effect immediately.

Sec. 15. This act shall be submitted to the people of the State of California for their ratification at the next general election, to be held in the month of November, 1922, and all ballots at said election shall have printed thereon and in a square thereof, the words: "For the veterans' welfare bond act of 1921," and in the same square under said words the following in brevier type: "This act provides for a bond issue of ten million dollars to be used by the veterans' welfare board in assisting California war veterans to acquire farms or homes." In the square immediately below the square containing such words, there shall be printed on said ballot the words: "Against the veterans' welfare bond act of 1921," and in the same square immediately below said words "Against the veterans' welfare bond act of 1921" in brevier type shall be printed "This act provides for a bond issue of ten million dollars to be used by the veterans' welfare board in assisting California war veterans to acquire farms or homes." Opposite the words "For the veterans' welfare bond act of 1921" and "Against the veterans' welfare bond act of 1921," there shall be left spaces in which the voters may place a cross in the manner required by law to indicate whether they vote for or against said act, and those voting for said act shall do so by placing a cross opposite the words "For the veterans' welfare bond act of 1921" and those voting against the said act shall do so by placing a cross opposite the words "Against the veterans' welfare bond act of 1921." The governor of this state shall include the submission of this act to the people, as aforesaid, in his proclamation calling for said general election.

Sec. 16. The votes cast for or against this act shall be counted, returned and canvassed and declared in the same manner and subject to the same rules as votes cast for state officers; and if it appear that said act shall have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at said election as aforesaid, then the same shall have effect as hereinbefore provided, and shall be irrepealable until the principal and interest of the liabilities herein created shall be paid and discharged, and the governor shall make proclamation thereof; but if a majority of the votes cast as aforesaid are against this act then the same shall be and become void.

Sec. 17. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state in accordance with law to have this act published in at least one newspaper in each county, or city and county, if one be published therein, throughout this state, for three months next preceding the general election to be holden in the month of November, 1922; the costs of publication shall be paid out of the general fund, on controller's warrants duly drawn for that purpose and shall be refunded to the general fund out of the veterans' welfare fund for land settlement and the veterans' farm and home building fund jointly, each of said funds bearing one-half of said costs. Said refund shall be made upon controller's warrants duly drawn against said funds for said purpose upon demands audited by the state board of control.

Sec. 18. This act may be known and cited as the "veterans' welfare bond act of 1921."

Sec. 19. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

NOTICE TO VOTERS

Notice is hereby given to the electors of the State of California that the following Bond Act will be submitted to the people of the State of California for their ratification at the next general election, to be holden on the seventh day of November, A. D. 1922.

FRANK C. JORDAN,

CHAPTER 733, STATUTES OF 1921.

An act to authorize the creation of a debt or debts, liability or liabilities, through the issuance and sale of state bonds, for the single object of creating a fund to carry out the provisions of the land settlement act, approved June 1, 1917, and of any and all acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto; to provide ways and means, exclusive of loans, for the payment of the interest of such debt or debts, liability or liabilities, as such interest falls due, and also for the payment and discharge of the principal of such debt or debts, liability or liabilities, as such principal matures; to create a state land settlement finance committee, the members of which are to serve without compensation; to define the powers and duties of said state land settlement finance committee and of other state officers in relation to this act; to appropriate money for the expense of preparing and of advertising the sale of the bonds herein authorized to be issued; and to provide for the submission of this act to a vote of the people at the general election to be holden in the month of November, 1922.

[Approved June 3, 1921.]

Section 1. For the purpose of creating a fund to carry out the provisions of the land settlement act, approved June 1, 1917, and of any and all acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, the object of which acts is to provide employment and rural homes for soldiers, sailors, marines and others who have served with the armed forces of the United States in the European war or other wars of the United States, including former American citizens who served in allied armies against the central powers and have been repatriated, and who have been honorably discharged, to promote closer agricultural settlement, to assist deserving and qualified persons to acquire small improved farms, to demonstrate the value of adequate capital and organized direction in subdividing and preparing agricultural land for settlement, and to provide homes for farm laborers, the state land settlement finance committee created by this act, to wit, in section ten hereof, shall be and it hereby is authorized and empowered to create a debt or debts, liability or liabilities, of the State of California, in the manner and to the extent hereinafter provided, but not otherwise, nor in excess thereof.

Sec. 2. After the issuance of the proclamaion of the governor provided for in section sixteen of this act, and immediately after adoption of any resolution by the state land settlement committee hereby created, provided for in section eleven of this act, the state treasurer shall prepare the requisite number of suitable bonds of the denomination of one thousand dollars in accordance with the specifications contained in such resolution. The aggregate par value of all bonds issued under this act shall not exceed the sum of three million dollars, and the bonds issued under any such resolution shall bear interest from the date of issuance of said bonds to the date of maturity thereof, at a rate to be determined by the said state land settlement finance committee and specified in such resolution, but in no case exceeding six per cent per annum. Both principal and interest shall be payable in gold coin of the United States, of the present standard of value, at the office of the state treasurer, or at the office of any duly authorized agent of the state treasurer, and shall be so payable at the times specified in said resolution or resolutions.

All bonds issued under this act shall bear the signature of the governor and the facsimile countersignature of the controller and shall be endorsed by the state treasurer either by original signature or by signature stamp adopted for each particular bond issue under this act, and the said bonds shall be signed, countersigned and endorsed by the officers who shall be in office on the date of issuance thereof, and each of said bonds shall bear an impress of the great seal of the State of California. The said bonds so signed, countersigned, endorsed and sealed, when sold, shall be and constitute a valid and binding obligation upon the State of California, although the sale thereof be made at a date or dates upon which the officers have signed, countersigned and endorsed said bonds, or any or either of said officers, shall have ceased to be the incumbents of the offices held by them at the time of signing, countersigning, or endorsing said bonds. Each bond issued under this act shall contain a clause or clauses stating that interest shall cease to accrue thereon from and after the date of maturity thereof, and referring to this act and to the resolution of the state land settlement finance board hereunder by virtue of which said bond is issued.

Sec. 3. The requisite number of suitable interest coupons, appropriately numbered, shall be attached to each bond issued under this act. Said interest coupons shall bear the facsimile signature of the state treasurer who shall be in office on the date of issuance of the bond to which said coupons pertain.

Sec. 4. All bonds issued under this act and sold shall be deemed to have been called in at their respective dates of maturity and the state treasurer shall, on the respective dates of maturity of said bonds, or as soon thereafter as said matured bonds are surrendered to him, pay the same out of the proceeds of the controller's warrants drawn in his favor as provided in section five hereof and perforate the bonds so paid with a suitable device in a manner to indicate such payment and the date thereof. He shall also, on the said respective dates of maturity, cancel all bonds bearing said dates of maturity and remaining unsold, by perforation with a suitable device in a manner to indicate such cancellation and the date thereof. The provisions of this section shall be applicable also to the interest coupons pertaining to the bonds authorized by this act to be issued, and shall be applicable, as far as practicable, to any duly authorized agent of the state treasurer.

Sec. 5. There is hereby appropriated from the general fund in the state treasury such sums annually as will be necessary to pay the principal of and the interest on the bonds issued and sold pursuant to the provisions of this act, as said principal and interest becomes due and payable.

There shall be collected annually in the same manner and at the same time as other state revenue is collected such a sum, in addition to the ordinary revenues of the state, as shall be required to pay the principal and interest on said bonds as herein provided, and it is hereby made the duty of all officers charged by law with any duty in regard to the collection of said revenue, to do and perform each and every act which shall be necessary to collect such additional sum.

On the several dates of maturity of said principal and interest in each fiscal year, there shall be returned into the general fund in the state treasury, all of the moneys subject to and available for the use of the state land settlement board not in excess of the principal of and interest on the bonds, then due and payable and, in the event of such moneys so returned on said dates of maturity being less than the said principal and interest then due and payable, then the balance remaining unpaid shall be returned into the general fund in the state treasury as soon thereafter as it shall become available, together with interest thereon, from such dates of maturity until so returned, at the rate of five per cent per annum, compounded semi-annually.

Both principal and interest of said bonds shall be paid when due upon warrants duly drawn by the controller of the state in favor of the state treasurer or in favor of any duly authorized agent of the state treasurer, upon demands audited by the state board of control, and the moneys to be returned into the general fund in the state treasury pursuant to the provisions of this section shall likewise be paid as herein provided upon warrants duly drawn by the controller of the state upon demands duly audited by the state board of control,

Sec. 8. The sum of ten thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated to pay the expenses that may be incurred by the state treasurer in having said bonds prepared and advertising their sale. Said amount shall be refunded to the general fund of the state treasury out of the land settlement fund in accordance with the provisions of this act on controller's warrant duly drawn for that purpose.

Sec. 7. When the bonds authorized to be issued under this act shall be duly executed, they shall be by the state treasurer sold at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in such parcels and numbers as the said treasurer shall be directed by the governor of the state, under seal thereof, after a resolution requesting such sale shall have been adopted by the state land settlement board and approved by the governor of the state; but said treasurer must reject any and all bids for said bonds, or for any of them, which shall be below the par value of said bonds so offered plus the interest which has accrued thereon between the date of sale and the last preceding interest maturity date; and with the approval of the governor, he may from time to time, by public announcement at the place and time fixed for the sale, continue such sale, as to the whole of the bonds offered, or any part thereof offered, to such time and place as he may select. Before offering any of said bonds for sale the said treasurer shall detach therefrom all coupons which have matured or will mature before the day fixed for such sale.

Sec. 8. Due notice of the time and place of sale of all bonds must be given by said treasurer by publication in one newspaper published in the city and county of San Francisco and also by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Oakland and by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Los Angeles and by publication in one newspaper published in the city of Sacramento once a week during four weeks prior to such sale. In addition to the notice last above provided for, the state treasurer may give such further notice as he may deem advisable, but the expense and cost of such additional notice shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars for each sale so advertised. The proceeds of the sale of such bonds and such amount as may have been paid as accrued interest thercon shall be forthwith paid over by said treasurer into the land settlement fund in the state treasury and must be used exclusively to provide employment and rural homes for soldiers, sailors, marines and others who have served with the armed forces of the United States in the European war or other wars of the United States, including former American citizens who served in allied armies against the central powers and have been repatriated, and who have been honorably discharged, to promote closer agricultural settlement, to assist deserving and qualified persons to acquire small improved farms, to demonstrate the value of adequate capital and organized direction in subdividing and preparing agricultural land for settlement, and to provide homes for farm laborers, in accordance with the provisions of the land settlement act, approved June 1, 1917, and of any and all acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto; provided, that the said land settlement board must pay over to the general fund of the state from the proceeds of the sale of bonds all money which has been heretofore or may be hereafter appropriated and advanced out of the general fund of the state treasury for the use of the state land settlement board on condition that it shall be so paid over; provided, further, that the said state land settlement board may, out of the proceeds from the sale of said bonds, pay all or any part of any indebtedness heretofore by it incurred in accordance with law and remaining unpaid, including the interest accrued thereon, unless the rate of interest applying to such indebtedness is less than the rate of interest applying to the said bonds; and provided, further, that the proceeds from the sale of said bonds may be used to pay the debt created by the issuance and sale thereof.

Sec. 9. The state land settlement board shall be and hereby is authorized, with the approval of the state board of control, to invest any surplus moneys in any of the funds subject to or appropriated for its use in bonds of the United States, or of the State of California, or of the several counties or municipalities or other political subdivisions of the State of California, and to sell such bonds, or any of them, at the governing market rates, upon approval of the state board of control.

Sec. 10. There is hereby created a state land settlement finance committee composed of the governor, state controller, state treasurer, chairman of the state board of control, and chairman of the state land settlement board, all of whom shall serve thereon without compensation and a majority of whom shall be empowered to act for said committee. The attorney-general of the state shall be the legal advisor of the state land settlement finance committee.

Upon request of the state land settlement board, supported by a statement of the plans and projects of the state land settlement board with respect thereto, the state land settlement finance committee shall determine whether or not a bond issue under this act is necessary or desirable to carry such plans and projects into execution.

Sec. 11. Whenever the said state land settlement finance committee shall have determined that a bond issue under this act is necessary or desirable to carry such plans and projects into execution, it shall adopt a resolution to this effect. The said resolution shall authorize and direct the state treasurer to prepare the requisite number of suitable bonds and shall specify:

1. The aggregate number, aggregate par value, and the date of issuance of the bonds to be issued.
2. The date or dates of maturity of the bonds to be issued and the number and numerical sequence of the bonds maturing at each date of maturity.
3. The annual rate of interest which the bonds to be issued shall bear.
4. The number, numerical sequence, amount or amounts, and the dates of maturity of the interest coupons to be attached to the said bonds.
5. The technical form and language of the bonds to be issued and of the interest coupons to be attached thereto.

In determining the date or dates of maturity of the said bonds and the amount of bonds maturing at each date of maturity, the state land settlement finance committee shall be guided by the amounts and dates of maturity of the revenues estimated to accrue to the state land settlement board from the project or projects to be financed by each issue, and shall fix and determine said dates and amounts in such manner that, together with the dates and amounts of interest payments on the said bond issue, they shall coincide, as nearly as practicable, and be commensurate as nearly as practicable with the dates and amounts of such estimated revenues; provided, that the bonds first to mature in each issue, shall mature not later than five years from the date of issuance thereof; provided, further, that specified numbers of bonds of specified numerical sequence shall thereafter mature at annual intervals; and provided, further, that the bonds last to mature in each issue shall mature not later than forty-five years from the date of issuance thereof.

The rate of interest to be borne by the said bonds shall be uniform for all the bonds of the same issue and shall be determined and fixed by the state land settlement finance committee according to the then prevailing market conditions, but shall in no case exceed six per cent per annum, and the determination of said committee as to the rate of interest shall be conclusive as to the then prevailing market conditions. The interest coupons to be attached to the said bonds shall be payable at semi-annual intervals from the date of issuance of said bonds; provided, that the interest coupon first payable may, if the state land settlement finance committee shall so determine and specify, be payable one year after the date of issuance of said bonds.

Sec. 12. All actual and necessary expenses of the state land settlement finance committee and of the members thereof shall be paid out of the land settlement fund, upon approval of the state board of control and on controller's warrant duly drawn for that purpose, and shall constitute expenses of the state land settlement board.

Sec. 13. The state controller, the state treasurer, and the state land settlement finance committee shall keep full and particular account and record of all their proceedings under this act, and they shall transmit to the governor an abstract of all such proceedings thereunder, with an annual report, to be by the governor laid before the legislature biennially; and all books and papers pertaining to the matter provided for in this act shall at all times be open to the inspection of any party interested, or the governor, or the attorney-general, or a committee of either branch of the legislature, or a joint committee of both, or any citizen of the state.

Sec. 14. This act, if adopted by the people, shall take effect on the fifteenth day of November, 1922, as to all its provisions except those relating to and necessary for its submission to the people, and for returning, canvassing, and proclaiming the votes, and as to said excepted provisions this act shall take effect immediately.

Sec. 15. This act shall be submitted to the people of the State of California for their ratification at the next general election, to be holden in the month of November, 1922, and all ballots at said election shall have printed thereon and in a square thereof, the words: "For the land settlement bond act of 1921," and in the same square under said words the following in brevier type: "This act provides for a bond issue of three million dollars to carry out the purposes of the land settlement act." In the square immediately below the square containing such words, there shall be printed, on said ballot the words: "Against the land settlement bond act of 1921" and in the same square immediately below said words "Against the land settlement bond act of 1921" in brevier type shall be printed "This act provides for a bond issue of three million dollars to carry out the purposes of the land settlement act." Opposite the words "For the land settlement bond act of 1921" and "Against the land settlement bond act of 1921," there shall be left spaces in which the voters may place a cross in the manner required by law to indicate whether they vote for or against said act, and those voting for said act shall do so by placing a cross opposite the words "For the land settlement bond act of 1921" and those voting against the said act shall do so by placing a cross opposite the words "Against the land settlement bond act of 1921." The governor of this state shall include the submission of this act to the people, as aforesaid, in his proclamation calling for said general election.

Sec. 16. The votes cast for or against this act shall be counted, returned and canvassed and declared in the same manner and subject to the same rules as votes cast for state officers; and if it appear that said act shall have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at said election as aforesaid, then the same shall have effect as hereinbefore provided, and shall be irrepealable until the principal and interest of the liabilities herein created shall be paid and discharged, and the governor shall make proclamation thereof; but if a majority of the votes cast as aforesaid are against this act then the same shall be and become void.

Sec. 17. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state in accordance with law to have this act published in at least one newspaper in each county, or city and county, if one be published therein, throughout this state, for three months next preceding the general election to be holden in the month of November, 1922; the costs of publication shall be paid out of the general fund, on controller's warrants duly drawn for that purpose and shall be refunded to the general fund out of the land settlement fund in accordance with this act.

Sec. 18. This act may be known and cited as the "Land settlement bond act of 1921."

Sec. 19. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

DOCTOR SLAIN BY HOSPITAL NURSE

FLORENCE, Ariz., Aug. 31.—Dr. W. G. Randall, 46, was shot and killed here yesterday by Miss Katherine Encinas, 26, a nurse at the Florence hospital. Miss Encinas after the shooting walked across the street to the courthouse and surrendered herself to the sheriff. She is being held in jail pending a hearing.

According to the story Miss Encinas told the officers, she telephoned Dr. Randall and asked him to call at her home. When he arrived he seated himself in a chair in the living room. Then Miss Encinas said, she drew a revolver and shot him. The bullet penetrated the doctor's heart and he was killed instantly.

Sheriff Thurman last night removed Miss Encinas to the state prison for safe keeping when excited crowds began to gather on the downtown streets to discuss the killing of Dr. Randall. Miss Encinas, in a statement to officials, said she shot Dr. Randall in revenge for remarks she claimed had been made about her by Dr. Randall's wife.

Fire Prvention Cup Is Lost to Piedmont

PIEDMONT, Aug. 31.—The loss entailed in a fire in Wildwood Gardens during the fiscal year ending this month caused the Piedmont Fire Department to lose the Ince cup at the Pacific Coast Fire Convention. Piedmont won the cup last year. The trophy is awarded to the city having the smallest fire loss in proportion to its population. The fire loss in Piedmont for the fiscal year just ended was $6000, as against $747 for the previous year. Piedmont won second place this year. Seattle won first place.

S. F. Newspaperman Killed in Air Crash

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 31.—C. Borst, formerly a newspaperman of San Francisco was killed in an airplane accident in Batavia on July 3. Another newspaperman and the pilot were also killed. The plane fell 3,000. The flight they were taking marked the inauguration of an airplane service between Batavia and Sourabaya.

Cotton Acreage in Turkestan Increases

The acreage planted in cotton this year in Turkestan is 63,557 dessiatins (one dessiatin equals 2.7 acres). It is estimated that the coming yield will be about 40 to 50 poods (one pood equals 36.07 lbs.) against 10 to 15 poods last year per dessiatin. This will give a total yeld of about 2,000,000 poods of raw cotton.

City Treasurer Reports Balances

The city of Oakland has $148,198 as an unencumbered balance in the treasury August 1, according to a report submitted by City Treasurer Bert Anderson today. This applies to the reserve fund. Of moneys set aside for appropriation, $163,031 constitutes the amount still unspent.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT

The steamer Nika, which went aground on the rocks at Vancouver Island last Sunday, was pulled into deep water yesterday by the tug Sea Monarch and the coast guard Cutter Snohomish. She was towed to Seattle, where a survey showed that her hull was badly damaged, and she was leaking badly. She struck eight miles north of Owens Point at the southwest end of Vancouver Island, which is known by navigators of those waters as the graveyard of the north Pacific.

The Nika is the first vessel to be saved from that point, as the others which have struck there have resulted in total loses with a heavy loss of lives. Among the vessels lost there were the steamer Valencia, with her captain and part of her crew and passengers from this port enroute to Seattle. The steamer Michigan, barkentine Skagit and the British Bark Pass of Melford, also left their remains near the spot where the Nika struck. The damaged craft will drydock today for repairs and will then reload her cargo of lumber for this port.

A heavy rain with thunder on Puget Sound yesterday cleared the sky from the heavy fog that has caused many vessels to run ashore with heavy damages. This is the first heavy shower this season and as the atmosphere is now clear vessels are again able to travel on their regular schedule in these waters.

Capt. E. P. Bartlett, who was master of the steamer H. F. Alexander when she struck Cake Rock, and caused considerable damages, has been suspended for four months by the United States inspectors of hulls and boilers, Capts. Fisher and Lord, at their headquarters at Seattle

Bartlett will appeal the case. The steamer has been repaired, and arrived at this port today under command of Capt. Zeh.

The steamer Wabash, which went ashore eight miles west of Race Rock, at Vancouver Island on Tuesday, was floated today and proceeded on her journey It is thought that she escaped damage, but will drydock for a survey by the marine underwriter when she reaches port.

The J. J Moore Company has chartered the British steamer Clan Macvicar, 3621 tons register, to take a cargo of lumber at a North Pacific port to Australia. The rate of charter was not stated This craft will carry over 3 000,000 feet of lumber.

Change of masters registered at the United States Customs House: Capt. L. C. Drewsen — steamer Dilworth

Capt F. J. Larkin—gas yacht Evaline.

The six masted barkentine E. R Sterling has been chartered by the Rolph Navigation and Coal Company to bring a cargo of coal to this port from Australia. This vessel has had some great experiences since she was launched at Belfast, Ireland, in 1883. She was then known as the bark Lord Wolsley under the British flag. Later she was named the Columbia and then renamed the Lord Wolsley. In 1904 she was then under the British flag, and was tied [illegible] harbor for many months owing to the slack times in the shipping business. She was in need of repairs, so she was sold to Everett G. Griggs of Seattle, who converted her into a six masted barkentine and renamed her Everett G. Griggs. She was the first vessel to be rigged that way and much interest was paid to her when she left Puget Sound. When she departed on her first voyage under her new rig and flying the American flag, she loaded 2,500,000 feet of lumber for Australia, upon her return in first-class condition she was purchased by E R Sterling, also of Seattle, who changed her name to his and as master of the craft made another voyage to Australia. Since that time she has made several very successful voyages to off shore posts, and has been away from this coast for over two years. She is a steel craft of 2351 tons net register. Since her success several other vessels have been rigged likewise and all have proven successful. The latest was the steamer City of Sydney, reconstructed into a six masted barkentine at Oakland harbor and after making several successful voyages in the lumber and coal trade has been sent to Alaska as a cannery tender. She is now enroute to Oakland from Bristol bay with a cargo of salmon.

Note—In the above tabulation of tides the daily tides are given in the order of their occurrence, commencing with the early morning tide in the left hand column and the succeeding tides as they occur. On some days but three tides occur, the fourth occurring the following morning

WEATHER FORECAST

Nevada: Tonight and Friday fair.

CONDITIONS.

A moderate low pressure area is general north of British Columbia and the barometer is rising rapidly over Oregon. Showers have occurred quite generally in the North Pacific states and rain has fallen in the upper Mississippi valley. It is much cooler in northern Nevada, eastern Oregon, eastern Washington and southeastern Idaho

The outlook is for fair weather in the San Francisco forecast district tonight and Friday, except in Washington and northern Idaho, where showery conditions will continue.

WIRE SUMMARY

E. F. HUTTON & CO. WIRE.

The Canadian dollar achieved a small premium in Toronto today for buyers of United States dollars had to pay par and commission of 1-64 of one per cent. Some $350,000 changed hands at this figure.

Postal Telegraph Commercial Cable system and the All-American Cable, Inc., have entered into an alliance involving 50,000 miles of submarine cables.

Pennsylvania railroad reports decrease of 1556 in number of stockholders during July. From peak reached on March 1 last, there has been a decrease of 3646, which indicates, company says, that shares are being accumulated by larger investors.

Armour Leather Company reports for the three months ended July 31 an operating income of only $38,-133, but for the nine months ended on the same date the operating income was $801,153. These last figures compare with a deficit during the corresponding months last year of $7,564,196.

Freight loadings for the week aggregated 85,219 cars, an increase above the figures for the preceding week of 3,69 cars, and a gain above the total for the corresponding week last year of 41,073 cars. Car loadings are now within 50,000 cars of the record attained during the summer of 1920.

Atlas Powder Company for first half of year reports net income of $711,974, net operating profit of $858,391 and surplus of $11,542. Gross sales were $7,439,217, against expenses of 6,580,826.

Jordan Valley Cattle Co.

First Mortgage ½% Serial Gold Bonds

Dated July 1, 1922 Due Serially July 1, 1924-32

Interest payable semi-annually January 1st and July 1st at the office of the Trustee, Portland, Oregon, or at any of the offices of G. E. Miller & Company. Bonds registerable as to principal. Redeemable as a whole or in part on July 1, 1923, or on any interest date thereafter upon 60 days' notice at 102 and interest.

Coupon Bonds $100, $500, $1000 Denomination

Interest payable without deduction for the normal federal income tax not in excess of 4%. A legal investment for Trust Funds and Savings Banks in Oregon.

(Legality: Subject to approval by Dey, Hampson & Nelson, Attorneys, Portland, Oregon)

PROPERTIES—These Bonds are a first mortgage on 3747 acres of fertile, producing land of the Jordan Valley Cattle Co. in Malheur County, Oregon—which includes the home ranch and 160 acres of valuable irrigated hay land. Malheur County stands first among Oregon counties in the raising of corn, alfalfa, sheep and wool; second in the raising of hay, forage and shipments of beef. The fertility of the deep volcanic ash, the abundant water supply and moderate climate, make Jordan Valley the garden spot of the county.

PURPOSE—These Bonds are part of an issue of $105,000, authorized for purpose of paying present indebtedness, furnishing working capital and to provide funds for the purchase of sheep. The remaining $35,000 bonds will be issued to purchase sheep at the first favorable market.

SECURITY—The value of the land, conservatively estimated at $170,000—and, in addition, the present livestock, together with all buildings, improvements, equipment and miscellaneous chattels, are valued at $60,000. The Bonds are further secured by the assignment to the Trustee, for the benefit of bondholders, of a contract of sale of 3560 acres of land; for a consideration of $90,000 with interest payable at 6% per annum, and this alone is more than sufficient to meet the interest on these Bonds. The face value of the contract is 128% of the bonds now issued. All proceeds from the sale of sheep or any other property must pass through the hands of the Trustee—to be used in the retirement of these Bonds or increasing the security thereof.

The amount of this issue is only 42% of the appraised value of the Security.

INCOME—The income from the sale of hay alone over a period of years—has averaged over $24,000; income derived from interest on contracts and rentals $6,630 per year—or nearly five times the interest requirements of these Bonds, after all expenses have been deducted. When sheep are purchased, the income from the sale of wool and normal increase will greatly add to their already sufficient earning capacity.

5400 CARLOADS ESTIMATED STATE CROP OF APPLES

Watsonville District Expected to Yield Greatest Output in Its History.

"Crop conditions in the apple districts of California and the Pacific Northwest are unusually encouraging," says W. C. Fitch, freight claim agent for the Southern Pacific Company, who has just returned from an extended trip through all the principal apple districts of Oregon, Washington and California.

"This year's output, both in quantity and quality," said Fitch, "probably exceeds any previous year, and there is a feeling of optimism on the part of shippers as to market conditions.

"The apple situation in California looks exceptionally good." Fitch continued, "and according to latest reports approximately 5400 carloads of apples will be shipped from the apple districts of the state. This is about 2400 cars more than the 1921 apple crop in California.

"The Watsonville district is expected to yield the greatest crop in its history and the Sebastopol district crop will also be very heavy.

"An interesting fact regarding the Watsonville crop is that the Newton Pippins, the principal shipping apple of the district, is fast becoming the most popular apple in London and other English markets. No doubt this is due to the fact that this apple is very sound and ships well."

For the first time in many months sugar changed its price downwards today. The level of $7.30 per hundred which has been in effect for the past three weeks went back to $7.15 for cane and $7.10 base for beet dropped to $6.95.

In a circular today to the members of the California Producers of Central California, Inc., General Manager H. J. Barbour says:

"Our receipts during the month averaged 12,022 cases per week, which was 18 per cent less than in June. This year's July receipts were practically the same as last year's being only 3 per cent less.

"The total quantity of eggs handled by the association for the first seven months of this year (January to July, inclusive) was 433,104 cases, as compared with 469,352 cases in the same period last year, that is 5½ per cent less this year than last.

"The total egg production in Central California for these seven months this year is estimated to be a little less than for the same months last year."

Dry feed is beginning to become scarce in portions of the Sacramento valley, and it is very poor in the extreme southern counties, where stock have to be fed hay to keep them alive. There is still plenty of feed in the mountains and most of the range stock are there and doing well. The fourth crop of alfalfa is being cut in the central portion of the state and the yields are satisfactory, according to the United States Weather Bureau.

BUSINESS and FINANCE

Three thousand shares of preferred stock of the Chicago & Alton Railroad, now in the hands of a receiver, were sold at 4, off 5½, at the opening of the New York stock exchange today. Five thousand shares of common were sold at 3, off 2¾.

The unexpected receivership proceedings against the Alton took the edge off the recent bullish enthusiasm and there was an inclination to take profits in spots. However, the advancing movement was not definitely checked, some of the oils, public utilities and miscellaneous industrials rising strongly. California Petroleum advanced 2 points and Famous Players, Dupont Powder, United Retail Stores, Twin City Rapid Transit and Mexican Petroleum 1 to 1⅛.

Professional pressure was applied more or less persistently to the Mexican oils, equipments, motors, marine preferred and some of the high grade railroad shares. Independent upward movement continued in many of the domestic oils, food textile and express issues. The decline in the more popular speculative stocks was a strain on the general list. The market felt also the lack of encouraging news, the confused status of the steel mergers, and the complex foreign situation restricting confident operations on the long side. Quite a number of new and high records were again established including Canadian Pacific at 151¾ and Deleware, Lackawanna and Western, American Brakeshoe, Pressed Steel car, National Biscuit, Famous Players, American Radiator, American Waterworks, Electric preferred, Twin City Rapid Transit and Pittsburgh Coal, advanced one to four points. Chicago and Alton three per cent 8% prents. Call money opened at 4½%.

New England fuel was the strong feature of the trading on the curb exchange today, going up 5 points to a new high of 77. Southern States Oil, another strong feature, also established a new high of 20. Standard Oil issues, which showed firmness early in the trading were in moderate supply, Kentucky ranging from 106½ to 105¾ and Indiana from 114¼ to 113¾. Southern Petroleum and refining was in increased demand and was one of the strongest of the low priced issues. International Petroleum ranged from 22½ to 32¼. Carib Syndicate sold at 7 to 6⅞.

Durant Motors was a feature of the industrial group, being in vigorous demand and advancing ⅜ to 40⅜, a new high.

Mining stocks were again actively traded in with some issues making substantial gains.

INDUSTRIAL SITUATION SHOWS GREAT RECOVERY.

On the whole, the industrial situation records a remarkable recovery for the first six months of the year, says the Monthly Review of the Oakland bank. Balance sheets for the first half of the year now being published make very encouraging showing as compared with the last half of 1921, although many of the largest and most prosperous concerns are yet compelled to draw from their surplus funds in order to continue dividend disbursements. The outlook for the fall is full of promise. Crops are on the whole satisfactory, and most of them are better than the ten years' average. Railroad traffic [illegible]

tion, according to the report of President John Barneson. This amount includes an appreciation charge of $4,536,933 added to the property valuation of the company's holdings at Signal Hill and Santa Fe Springs.

The total current assets at the close of the fiscal year were $14,526,105.77, or nearly 3¼ times the current liabilities.

The common capital stock outstanding on June 30, 1922, was $22,716,996, including $250,000 deposited in trust for delivery under employes stock subscription plans. Subscriptions to capital stock by employes now total over $800,000, payments on which aggregate over $223,000.

The increase in the combined surplus account for the year was $3,420,806.27.

The production of oil from the properties of the company, including 958,773 barrels in Mexico and 42,391 barrels in Wyoming, was 5,918,820 barrels, an increase of 591,493 barrels over the preceding year.

DEAL FOR EUREKA RAILWAY SALE IS CLOSED.

The deal for the sale of the Eureka Nevada Railway, which connects the historic mining camp of Eureka with Palisade on the Western Pacific and Southern Pacific in eastern Nevada, was closed yesterday in San Francisco by John E. Sexton, president of the railway company. The consideration is reported at $750,000.

Title to the road, under the terms of sale, will pass to the Torres Syndicate's subsidiary, the Eureka-Croesus Mining Company. Sexton is acting as agent in the transaction for Odgen Mills of New York and the estate of the late George Wittell of San Francisco.

The mining company is one unit in the $10,000,000 mining properties of the Eureka district which are held by the Eureka Smelting and Mining Company, which planes to build a $500,000 smelter at Eureka.

SOUTHERN EDISON COMPANY INCREASES ITS SUPPLIES.

Southern California Edison Company set aside $3,590,952 for depreciation and surplus during the seven months ended July 31, as against $3,551,299 for the corresponding seven months last year, according to a statement of earnings and expenses by Blyth, Witter & Co.

For the first seven months of this year, compared with the first seven months of 1921, gross operating revenue increased to $8,701,163 from $8,329,059; operating expenses totaled $3,540,372, as against $3,540,515 leaving $5,160,791 net, as against $4,788,544. Net non-operating revenue totaled $647,757, as against $856,958.

The net income for the period was $5,808,548, as against $5,645,502 for the first seven months of last year. Total interest amortization, etc., increased to $2,217,596 from $2,094,203, leaving $3,590,952 as a balance of $3,590,952 as against $3,551,299 for the first seven months of 1921.

BANK OF ITALY BUYS CHULA VISTA BONDS.

The Bank of Italy bond department has purchased an issue of $45,000 Chula Vista Union School District, San Diego county, 5½ per cent bonds due serially 1923 to 1942. The bonds are legal investments for California savings banks and are exempt from state and federal income taxes.

An offering of $4,000,000 D. G. Derry Corporation first mortgage 7 per cent 20 year gold bonds was made today by Redmond & Co.

The issue of $1,500,000 Oregon State Highway, 4½ per cent bonds, due 1927 to 1947, was awarded to a syndicate composed of Baillargeon Winslow, H. L. Allen & Co., Keane Highee & Co., and Dair Brothers for a premium of $34,650.

THIRD QUARTER INCOME TAX DUE SEPT. 15.

Third quarterly installment payments of Federal Income taxes are due and payable Friday, September 15. Collector of Internal Revenue John P. McLaughlin announced today that statements of accounts of all taxpayers carried in the office by serial numbers are now being prepared and will be in the mail by Saturday of this week.

Taxpayers who have quarterly installments to make are urged to await receipt of their bills before making remittances. If, however, they fail to receive a statement before the due date they should send in their checks for the amount due, which reckoned with the first and second payments made, should equal three-quarters of the full amount of their income and profits taxes for 1922.

Collector McLaughlin says that all who have failed to pay the full three-quarters of their taxes due by September 15 will, under the law, be classified as delinquents, and the unpaid balance of the total tax will be subject to immediate demand, upon which penalties and interest will apply.

CRUDE OIL CONSUMPTION REACHES NEW LEVEL.

Consumption of crude petroleum in July was the highest on record for any months, having increased more than 51,000 barrels, as compared with June, while the daily average production decreased 15,655 barrels, the geological survey announced today in its monthly report.

Domestic production in July aggregated 46,593,000 barrels, an average of 1,503,000 daily, compared with 45,559,000 barrels, an average of 364,773 daily, compared with 12,182,000, and average of 406,062 barrels daily.

Exports were estimated at $53,000 barrels, compared with 825,000 in June.

ALBERS TO RESUME PREFERRED DIVIDEND.

Preferred stockholders of the Albers Brothers Milling Company have been advised in a circular by President George Albers that dividends on the company's 7 per cent cumulative preferred stock may be resumed November 15.

The letter says the directorate is committed to the policy of resuming dividends as soon as possible. It added that if, as anticipated, the business of the company prospers during the next three months, as in the past, the company will be able to pay the quarterly dividend in November.

IDLE SHIPPING SHOWS DECLINE SINCE JAN. 1

American Tonnage Shows Increased Activity; Construction Falling Off.

There was a reduction in the amount of tonnage laid up in the first half of 1922, but otherwise no decisive change occurred in the shipping situation, according to a survey by E. S. Gregg, chief of the Transportation Division, Department of Commerce. Entirely comparable data for all maritime countries are not available, but the total tonnage tied up on July 1 was approximately 8,100,000 gross tons. On the whole, Scandinavian shipping shows the greatest percentage increase in employment, particularly Denmark, whose idle tonnage on January 1 amounted to 161,000 gross tons and on July 1 to 33,000 tons. Norwegian tonnage tied up declined in the same period from 207,000 gross tons to 112,000 tons, and Swedish from 204,466 tons to 114,000 tons, according to the Swedish Shipowners' Association, controlling about two-thirds of the Swedish merchant marine. The tendency of the freight market at the end of June was such, however, that there was talk of a renewal of the laying up of tonnage, particularly in Norway.

ENGLISH FIGURES.

The tonnage of ships tied up in United Kingdom ports declined from 1,961,000 gross tons at the beginning of the year to 1,667,000 tons on January 1 and 79,000 tons on June 15. The tonnage of French ships laid up was 1,200,000 gross tons on July 1 as compared with 1,085,337 tons on March 1. The tonnage laid up in Rotterdam and Amsterdam increased from 327,000 tons on January 15 to 330,000 tons on July 15, and that in Greek ports from 69,814 on October 1, 1921, to 100,425 on July 1, 1922. Italian Shipping Board vessels declined 585,336 tons, figures for the beginning of the year are not available.

Tonnage flying the American flag also showed more employment on July 1 than on January 1. Idle Sshipping Board vessels declined from over 4,300,000 gross tons to 3,977,755 tons during the six months under review. Data for the privately owned American fleet are not available.

VOLUME OF TRADE.

It is not possible to determine accurately the increase or diminution in the volume of ocean borne trade, since some of the leading commercial nations do not publish their foreign trade statistics in terms of weight exclusively.

As far as the United States is concerned, there has been a decided increase in the volume of overseas shipments, the monthly tonnage or both imports and exports being appreciably larger at the end of the first half of the year than they were at the beginning. Combined exports and imports, excluding oil and Great Lakes cargoes, amounted to over 5,400,000 long tons in June, 1922, and as compared with only 3,200,000 long tons in June, 1921.

NEW LAUNCHINGS.

More indicative of the decline in shipbuilding than the amount of work under construction, are the figures for work commenced as compared with launchings. During the first quarter of 1922 more than a half million gross tons of shipping were launched while less than 120,000 tons were commenced. During the second quarter about 390,000 tons of shipping were launched, while new work aggregated only 150,000 tons. This means that during the first half of the year ways capable of accommodating approximately 650,000 tons of new ships became vacant.

The world's merchant marine as of June 30, 1919, registered an increase of 2,396,133 tons over the amount recorded for the same date last year. Nearly half of this increase appears in the German fleet, which jumped from about 654,000 tons in 1921 to 1,783,000 tons in 1922. Taking steel, steam, and motor ships as representing seagoing tonnage, the increase is still greater, amounting to approximately 2,644,000 tons.

New Texas Well Flows 12,000 Bls

New Kosse Pool Gives Promise of Going Ahead of Mexia Field.

Pure Oil Company reports the discovery well in the new oil field at Kosse, Texas, flowing to tanks at the rate of 12,000 barrels a day. The well actually put 56* barrels of oil into tanks the first hour after being connected up and allowed to flow.

After its first spectacular blowing in, the hole became clogged with oil sand and the well was shut in to await the erection of tanks. When storage was provided, the baler was run in the well twice and it began flowing steadily at a rate of 13,500 barrels a day. After being connected into a tank, this rate of flow was slowed down slightly under the back pressure from the tank but gauged in excess of 12,000 barrels.

Representatives of the larger oil producing companies operating in the Texas fields have visited the discovery well and the expression is general that it opens a new pool that may be even more prolific than Mexia, twenty miles to the north.

The Humphreys Oil Company, in which the Pure Oil Company owns a 25 per cent interest, control roughly 6200 acres of leases in all directions from the discovery well. The nearest unleased acreage is probably half a mile distant. A mile north of the well leases are reported to have been sold at $1000 an acre. The Humphreys well is on the Jones tract in the Manuel Flippen survey and approximately a mile north of the town of Kosse. This tract is owned in fee by the company having been purchased becaue its owners preferred sale rather than lease.

The probable extent of the new Kosse pool cannot be told until future drilling operations can establish the trend of the underground structure. The discovery well, however, in its performance has left no doubt but that another oil pool has been opened and that it has possibilities of duplicating the Mexic field.

Dutch Guiana Will Try Experiment

Extensive experiments with the growing of Sea Island cotton, recently conducted in Dutch Guiana, show that this variety of cotton yields more per acre in that region of South America than in the United States, according to a recent despatch received at the Department of Commerce from Consul Davis, Georgeton. Advantages which Sea Island cotton cultivation in Dutch Guiana claim over the Sea Island cotton regions of this country are: (1) cheap land; (2) cheap labor; (3) no fertilizer needed because of natural richness of the soil; (4) no boll worms or boll weevils; (5) two harvests can be had each year; (6) cheap water transportation to the harbor.

Tonopah Co. Gets Cripple Creek Mine

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Aug. 31.—The sale of the Ajax goldmine in the Cripple Creek district to the Tonopah Gold Mining Company of Nevada, was announced yesterday. The consideration was placed at approximately $200,000. The Ajax, which was owned principally by Denver people, is at Victor and has been a big producer for years.

MILLIONS ADDED TO PURCHASING POWER OF PUBLIC

BY CONSOLIDATED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE
By J. C. ROYLE.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Purchasing power of the public, the dominant factor in the merchandising and business situation of the United States, has increased by millions of dollars within the last week and can be counted on to increase still further. To begin with hundreds of thousands of miners have gone back to the stopes and the tipples of the soft coal fields at wages which satisfy them and with which they can purchase the necessities and some of the comforts of life.

The 20 per cent increase granted to the employes of the United States Steel Corporation alone added over $50,000,000 a year to the purchasing power of the country, and the jump of one-fifth in the payrolls of the independent steel companies added more than as many millions.

Furthermore, many of the textile workers of New England are returning to work, not at the reduction of 20 per cent against which they struck, but under an agreement which makes the old wage scale operative from September 1 on.

FARMERS GETTING CASH.

Finally, the farmers of the country are being paid cash for their crops and while their complaints are loud in the ears of every agricultural community, the fact remains that they can buy and are buying and are paying cash. There is every evidence, from reports received from all sections within the last 12 hours, that the farmers of the country not only will be amply supplied with funds for the necessities but will complete the year with a fair average of profit.

For these increases in income and in purchasing power, the tremendous developments of building operations throughout the country is largely responsible. Building trades have absorbed the surplus labor of the other industries and the disappearance of unemployment has created a demand and it has required wage advances to fill.

These increases in buying power can be counted on to empty shelves of the retail store, to crowd the order books of the jobbers and manufacturers and to increase the pace of the producers of raw materials. The factors which produced them can also be counted on to increase costs of production and a general, although not excessive, increase in prices may be expected.

STEEL PRICES ADVANCE.

Such advances have already begun to make their appearance. Steel prices have shown advances this week and those advances have by no means reached the top of their swing. However, a condition exists which makes deliveries for the moment of equal importance with price, and additional furnaces are going into commission as coal production makes it possible.

Industrial plants all over the country are clamoring for power to enable them to meet requirements. A dozen representatives of even the hydro-electric plants, independent of either coal or oil for fuel, were scurrying around New York today begging and buying current from each other to supply customers at points all the way from the Missouri river eastward where streams and water reserves are at their lowest at this season of the year.

Automobile factories continue to turn out cars at top speed, although some of the smaller makers, lacking quantity production, are being hard put to it to meet recent price cuts by the quantity producers and still maintain a margin of profit.

COTTON PROSPECTS.

Tire manufacturers and parts makers are having difficulty in moving their products into the auto factories fast enough. Cotton deterioration in the fields is stiffening the market for the raw staple and this condition has reflected in some degree in the prices of cotton goods. The wool markets still are marking time until the result of the house and senate conferences on the tariff bill are determined, but the woollen manufacturers are selling goods fast enough so that a score of lines have been withdrawn from the market in the last week by the leading producers.

Lumber production is being shoved up as fast as men and machinery will permit, but shipments still are behind new orders and the trend of prices is upward. The enormous home building program has resulted in a brisk demand for furniture, floor coverings, plumbers' supplies, hardware and kitchen utensils.

Price advances, however, are amply guarded against excess by the determined attitude of buyers who manifest universally a determination to do without rather than pay what they consider excessive figures.

BUSINESS TOPICS

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.—One wholesome indication of the business situation in Philadelphia is seen in the falling off of business litigation. Innumerable small bankruptcies are being cleared up and few new cases are arising. There also has been a decided decrease in the number of other civil cases docketed for trial.

TULSA, Okla., Aug. 31.—Unemployment in Oklahoma has increased 10 per cent in the last 30 days. This is attributed partly to the rail and coal strike and partly to the curtailment of drilling operations in the oil fields.

COMMODITY NEWS

MACHINERY.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.—The Baldwin Locomotive plant, which did a business of approximately $24,000,000 last year, has unfilled orders on its books for $16,000,000 and has just added 500 men to its working force, which now totals 9,000 men.

FRUIT.

SEATTLE, Aug. 31.—A big movement of apples from Seattle through the Panama Canal to Europe by refrigerator ships is predicted because of engagements made by the Apple Growers' Association for storage of Washington fruit this fall at this port. Present bookings at local warehouses amount to 1,000,000 boxes, nearly three times the amount moved through the Seattle terminals last year.

No. 3---Present Business Conditions

Pacific Gas and Electric Company on July 31st, 1922, was serving 616,737 customers, a net increase within twelve months of 34,367.

Electric sales in July, 1922, were the largest in the history of the Company. Last year it was the largest producer of hydro-electric energy in California, and the second largest in the United States. With 93,800 horsepower coming into operation at its Pit River Plant No. 1 next month, it will have taken another step towards becoming the greatest producer of hydro-electric energy in America.

The Comany's gas business (also one of the largest in the country) is likewise exceeding all previous records of growth, a net total of 13,174 new customers having been connected in the last twelve months. Many people are preparing to heat their homes with gas next winter. Here is one fuel at least that is down practically to a pre-war basis of cost, and we anticipate a constantly growing demand for gas for house heating and industrial purposes.

It is desirable that you make your purchase now as the trend of the investment market is unmistakably upward.

PIANO, VIOLIN MUSIC FORMS CONCERT IN AIR

Dean S. Donaldson and Miss Helen Merchant to Put on Tribune Program.

Piano and violin music will compose the program to be broadcast tomorrow evening from KLX. The artists for the evening will be Dean S. Donaldson, violin, and Miss Helen Merchant, pianist. Miss Merchant will play three solos on the piano, and will accompany Donaldson in four violin numbers.

Miss Merchant has appeared in concert at the Twentieth Century club and at the Berkeley Piano club. She also played at the Greek theater last July.

Donaldson did extensive work for the Y. M. C. A. and other organizations during the war. Locally he has played before the San Francisco Society at the Hotel Oakland and Hotel San Rafael, and has given several musicals down the peninsula. Miss Merchant and Donaldson recently gave a musical on Russian Hill, to which the musical headlights were invited.

The radio broadcast tomorrow from The TRIBUNE'S station, KLX, will be between 8:15 and 9 o'clock.

Here's Program For Inland and Bay Broadcasting

Following is the daily radio broadcasting schedule for both inland and bay stations: (All stations not otherwise designated are local.)

Factory Officials San Leandro Guests

SAN LEANDRO, Aug. 31.—Officials and heads of departments of the Durant Motor Company were today guests of the San Leandro Chamber of Commerce at a luncheon in one of the local restaurants. The affair was in the form of an expression of friendship and gratification at the establishment of the factory adjoining the city. J. Allen Bruner, city attorney, acted as chairman of the occasion. Impromptu speeches were made by the guests when called upon.

Radio Operators Who Made Radio Test Success

Here are some of the operators in Sunday's radio test which resulted in furthering plans for the equipping of two police departments with radio. They are (top row, left to right), FRED AUBERT, NELS BORCH, E. W. RADFORD, EDWARD SARGENT, F. A. BRANDIS, E. PERRYBERRY. Bottom row, H. E. JACKSON, E. F. HARTWELL, NEIL COCHRAN, T. M. DOBSON, J. E. LE COMPTE and L. H. PRINDLE. Dobson and Cochran operated the car and appartus that captured the bandit car piloted by "Spike" Hennesy of the Durant Motor Car Company and Les Manning of the state motor vehicle department.

Simple R. F. Amplification.

Radio frequency amplifiers employing air core transformers have been used quite extensively with considerable success when care is exercised in designing the transformers for the particular wave length on which they are to be used. The arrangement shown in the diagram below makes use of one stage of radio frequency, detector and one step of audio frequency amplification.

The circuit shown requires but one amplifying transformer since coupling between the one step of radio frequency amplification and the detector circuit is obtained by means of impedance coupling in the form of a variometer. A study of the circuit shows that no additional equipment other than that contained in the ordinary two variometer regenerative receiver is needed for the one step of radio frequency amplification. Filament battery connections are omitted for simplicity.

Since radio frequency amplification requires that the transformers employed be designed for the particular wave length on which it is desired to receive, the circuit shown above where a variometer is employed for coupling purposes enables the operator to adjust the circuit to the exact wave length to be received and thus secure maximum efficiency from the set. The adjustment to the exact wave length being received is also an important factor in reducing interference from stations transmitting on nearly the same wave length.

While this circuit is useful in the reception of damped waved such as emitted by spark stations and radiotelephone stations by increasing the filament temperature of the radio frequency amplifier tube this circuit may be caused to oscillate at an adjustable frequency so that the reception of continuous waves such as the carrier wave of radiotelephone stations and continuous wave telegraph stations may be accomplished on the heterodyne principle.

The circuit illustrated is particularly useful in cutting out the interference from the spark stations, since these signals are not amplified the same amount as the signals from continuous wave stations.

it should always be remembered that vacuum tubes have a certain capacity between the elements which varies somewhat with the different makes and types of tubes. At the very high frequency which corresponds to the wave-length of 360 meters at present extensively employed for broadcasting purposes the capacity of the tube plays an important part and in some types of tubes forms a shunt path for the radio frequency current thereby materially reducing the strength of the received signal.

It has been noted above that this circuit may be used for the reception of undamped signals by setting up local oscillations. In multi-stage amplifiers it is sometimes difficult to prevent the circuits from oscillating due to a certain amount of feed back coupling in the battery circuits or the other wiring of the set. Oscillation may sometimes be prevented by exercising great care in making the battery wiring as short and as low resistance as possible or by employing separate batteries for the different steps of amplifications.

In using this type as well as other types of radio frequency amplifiers

Red Cross, Health Center to Confer

SAN LEANDRO, Aug. 31.—The San Leandro Red Cross chapter and the Public Health Center will hold a joint meeting tomorrow afternoon in the auditorium of the Lincoln school. Plans for both organizations will be discussed.

It is expected that Dr. Alvin Powell, head of the Alameda County Health Center, will attend, and address the meeting on a subject relative to the work of the center. Mrs. B. F. Mason, chairman, will officiate over the chapter unit, while A. E. Cary will act for the health center in the absence of Mrs. M. F. Merrell, chairman.

ONE ARRESTED, ONE INJURED IN TRIPLE CRASH

SAN LEANDRO, Aug. 31.—W. Hagenbottom, 1738 Filbert street, San Francisco, is under arrest and J. E. Boyle, 3225 East Seventeenth street, San Leandro, is at the county hospital under treatment for a compound fracture of the right arm and cuts about the face and legs, as the result of a triple accident at East Fourteenth street and Knox avenue last night.

Machines driven by P. Martinelli, Ramon street, San Leandro, and P. J. Pickering, 649 Thirty-sixth street, Oakland, first collided. Then in trying to avoid the wreck, Hagenbottom ran his machine head on into a street car, wrecking it completely and seriously injuring Boyle. Hagenbottom, who escaped with cuts on the face, was under the influence of liquor and had a flask in his pocket, according to Marshal Joseph Peralta who placed him under arrest.

SINGERS ASKED TO AID WELCOME

Singers who are willing to donate a little of their time to help the Welcome to Oakland Week movement are asked to get in touch with E. L. Perry at the Franklin theater tomorrow morning between 10 and 12 o'clock in an appeal issued today by the Welcome to Oakland Week committee.

The committee has had a special song, "Get Acquainted With Your Own Home Town," written for the purpose of furthering the interests of the Welcome to Oakland Week. Neil Moret, a nationally famous composer, has written the music and every theater in Alameda county has volunteered to make a place for the song and the singer on their programs.

In connection with the song a motion picture carrying views of Oakland the words of the lyric will be thrown on the screen.

"This is the first time that we know of when an appeal has been sent out to the singers of the Eastbay district to help out in a boost Oakland movement," reads the notice. "We believe that there are hundreds of singers, both men and women, who will be glad to donate their time toward the cause. Mr. Moret will rehearse the singers and the work which we wish them to do would only involve one appearance in one theater a night. This also offers a splendid opportunity for the introduction of young singers to the public.

Dr. Cabot Praises U. C. Health Service

BERKELEY, Aug. 31.—That the University of California has the finest students' health service in the United States is the tribute paid by Dr. Richard Cabot of the medical department of Harvard University, who is a visitor in the bay section. Dr. Cabot inspected the infirmary as the guest of Dr. Robert Legge, head of the college hospital, and investigated health activities on the campus in a thorough manner. He declares he will spread the fame of the university's health work throughout the country.

AUGUST BUILDING PERMITS.

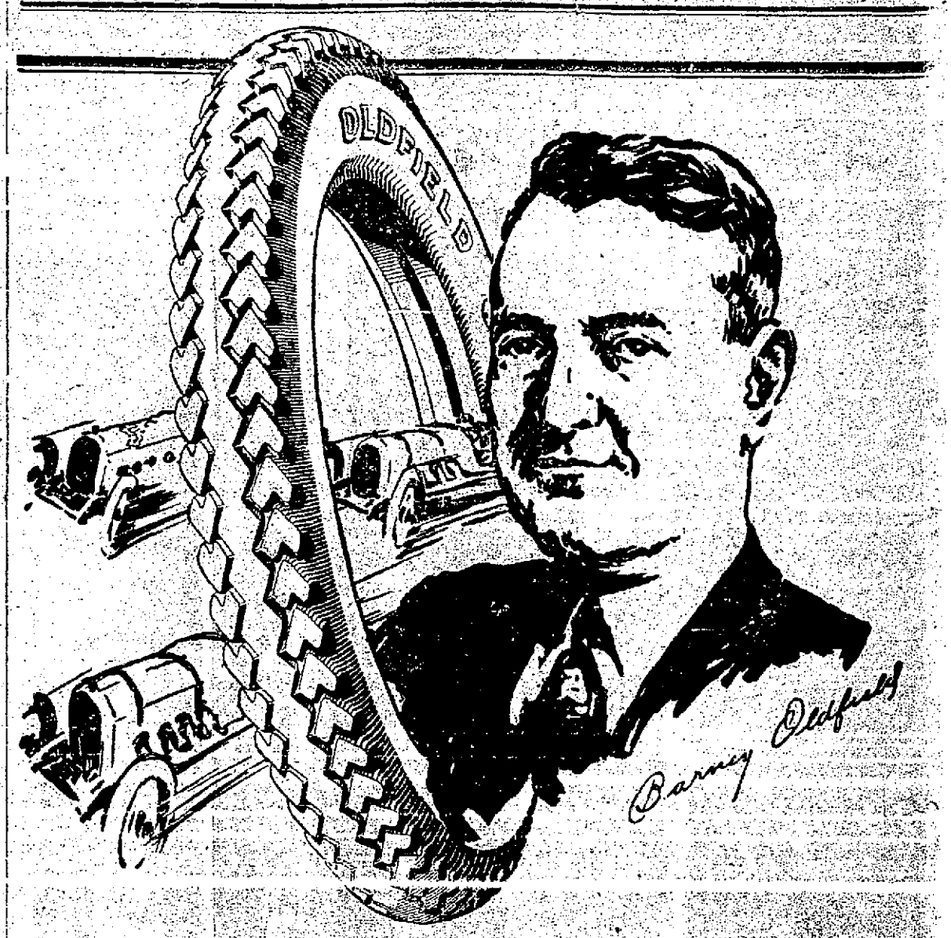

SAN LEANDRO, Aug. 31.—Building permits for 13 dwellings to cost $24,670 were issued during the month of August by W. J. Rowles, city building inspector, he announced today.

BARROWS WILL GREET STUDENTS

BERKELEY, Aug. 31.—President David P. Barrows, who returned yesterday from the east, will formally welcome new students at the first university meeting of the semester to be held tomorrow in Harmon gymnasium. A reception to all new students will be held by Dr. and Mrs. Barrows on Saturday evening in Harmon gymnasium. Dr. Barrows went east to participate in a conference on international issues at Williams College and also visit other universities.

WOMAN TO BE SPEAKER.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 31.—Mrs. A. S. Kibbe, Eastbay guardian of the Camp Fire Girls, will be the speaker at the meeting of the Haight School Parent-Teacher Association Tuesday, September 5. Mrs. C. F. Pennywell will preside. Mrs. E. O. Chaney, chairman of the Women's State Legislative Council, will also be a speaker.

If Fire Attacked YOUR House

WHAT would remain of your walls after being subjected to a terrific blaze for half an hour? Would the studding and body of the walls be intact? Would red-hot metal loosen the plaster, set fire to the walls and undermine the structure? Or would dry wood lath kindle the blaze and send everything up in smoke?

Buttonlath

Is Absolutely Fire-proof

For years this super lathing material has demonstrated its value as a positive fire retardant. Tests have proved it to be the supreme lathing material. It contains no wood or metal and is waterproof and soundproof.
Buttonlath is a tough plastic composition compressed between sheets of heavy fireproof paper. Thousands of plastic buttons jutting from the surface give the mortar an everlasting hold.
